GIVES LIFE FOR FATHER

Banker's Daughter Acts as Shield and Is Murdered.

ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP

SUSPECT UNDER ARREST

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

Medford, Mass., May 6.—Miss Nellie Sturtevant, daughter of James Sturtevant, president of the Medford Co-operative bank, was shot down in cold blood at her father's residence on Sturtevant terrace, about 10:30 o'clock this evening.

Miss Sturtevant was shot three times by her assassin, each of the bullets taking effect in her body.

An Italian who answered the description of the murderer was arrested two hours later on suspicion.

Mr. Sturtevant reached his home about 11:30 last night, having with him a satchel well filled with money and checks belonging to the bank. As he stepped upon the piazza of his house his wife and daughter opened the door and a few words of greeting passed between them. At that moment a rough-looking stranger appeared at the end of the piazza and, revolver in hand, ordered Mr. Sturtevant to throw up his hands.

The order was not immediately obeyed and Miss Sturtevant stepped in front of her father to shield him from harm just as the intruder fired, the bullet entering her body with fatal result. The man then snatched a chatelaine bag from Miss Sturtevant and jumping upon a bicycle which he had conveniently near, rode off rapidly in the direction of Boston.

Miss Sturtevant was shot through the right temple and fell dead at the feet of her parents.

Mr. Sturtevant was prostrated by the shock, but was able to tell the police some particulars of the murder. He says that when the stranger ordered him to throw up his hands Miss Sturtevant rushed at the man and struck him with her umbrella. With one hand the man grasped at Miss Sturtevant's chatelaine bag. He simultaneously fired the revolver which he held in the other hand. This bag he took. It contained a $10 bill and some small change. It is supposed that the man mistook the chatelaine bag in the darkness for a small bag which Mr. Sturtevant was carrying and in which he had placed his bank money and checks.

Miss Sturtevant was one of the best known young women in the Hillside district of the city. She was between 30 and 32 years of age. Her family is one of the oldest in the city and commands the respect of everybody.

Mystery in Recorder's Death Has Not Been Fathomed.

LOOKING FOR WOMAN

OIL SECURITIES ARE SOLD

Increasing mystery surrounds the death of Recorder J. O. Brown. The efforts of his brother, J. R. P. Brown, to probe the underlying circumstances attending the recorder's sudden end rather tend to make the tangled situation more and more difficult to unravel. The investigation may drag a woman into the case.

It will be a week before the chemists make their report, ascertaining whether or not the recorder came to his death through poisoning. In the meantime his brother and Coroner Jesse M. McGeary will continue their search for $15,000 in ranch stock which was willed to Miss Anna McGeary. This portion of the estate, Mr. Brown says, has not been found, and he declares that persons in charge of the dead man's archives refuse to look for it.

It has been learned that the recorder disposed of his interest in $175,000 worth of oil securities but a short time before his death. His relatives deny any knowledge of this transaction. Some say that his money was to have been used in the building of a new house which Mr. Brown had long held in pleasant anticipation since he had been reconciled to his wife.

ACONITE IS NOW SUGGESTED.

It was asserted yesterday that the recorder's death was due to an overdose of aconite, a stimulant which he had been taking for his weakened heart. Although neither Mr. Brown nor Coroner McGeary will commit themselves, it is probable that the entire investigation is being made in view of establishing the theory that the recorder's mind was unbalanced some time previous to his death and that his will was made while he suffered mental aberration.

It had long been known among his intimate associates that much of the recorder's wealth was made in oil operations. It was his custom to furnish capital for experienced producers. Last summer he formed a partnership with J. T. Trees of New Martinsville, W. Va.; Joseph Ellsworth and Anson Davis under the style of the Three Joes Oil Company. Wells were drilled in the Big Knot Run, Ritchie county, W. Va., and in the vicinity of Washington, O. These operations like his previous ventures were remarkably successful. Later he secured an interest with the Philadelphia Company and Mr. Trees in properties in the Wetzel county field in West Virginia. A well was drilled on the Francis farm and a wonderful return was made.

POSSESSED A LARGE FORTUNE.

A short time before his death this well and the adjoining leases was bought by Brown's interest in this deal and another made about the same time, in which he relinquished part of his interest in the Three Joes company, netted him wealth far in excess of that which was accredited to him at the time of his death. The disposition of this money also will be sought.

The recorder's brother said last night that he knew nothing of the oil deals. Mrs. Brown and other relatives who are beneficiaries under the will likewise had no knowledge of the transaction. If the will is broken and the court decides on a new division of the estate, the new heirs will receive substantial fortunes.

J. R. P. Brown and Coroner McGeary were busy yesterday. They have followed every movement made by the recorder from the time he made the disposition of his property.

RECORDER'S LAST OFFICIAL DAY.

Inspector John Bradley, an old personal friend of the recorder, was corraled and plied with a volley of questions regarding Brown's last day at his office in city hall. He was asked if the recorder had been in the habit of eating downtown with a woman, if a woman had been with him at his office and if he knew where the dead man had taken his dinner on that day.

Mr. Bradley was unable to enlighten him on these details, which, it is inferred, go to show that every effort will be made to follow up the circumstances leading to poisoning, should the chemists find any trace of drugs after their analysis. Thus far detectives have not been employed in the investigation. J. R. P. Brown said last night:

"Private detectives are not necessary. I am somewhat of a pathfinder myself. My questioning Mr. Bradley was only in line with the facts which I am trying to establish simply for my own satisfaction. Of course, we do not know that there was any woman in the case, but if there was we should know it. Just now I am turning my attention to finding what became of the $15,000 stock in the Pierre Ranch Cattle Company of Pierre, S. D.

DOCTOR RISKS LIFE AT GIRL'S BEDSIDE

Romantic Story of Attachment That Began in Pittsburgh Six Years Ago.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, MD., May 6.—Dr. C. S. Bradfute of Baltimore has sacrificed home, practice, social ambitions and risked his life to minister to Miss Grace Thomas, daughter of L. B. Thomas, a traveling salesman.

Miss Thomas is ill with smallpox and as soon as the health department verified the attending physician's examinations they ordered the patient removed to the quarantine station on Chesapeake bay, or the entife family to be quarantined at the house. No nurse would risk her health to care for the patient, and as a last resort the family were preparing to send her to the bay.

However, word reached the ears of Dr. Bradfute and he gave up everything to attend the 19-year-old beauty, and as a beauty she is conceded to lead the fashionable residents of Wallbrook suburb.

Six years ago Dr. Bradfute was the Pennsylvania railroad physician at Pittsburgh, where he had been so acting for four years, and Mr. Thomas was taken ill with a severe attack of pneumonia. The medical man was summoned and later the family of Mr. Thomas arrived in Pittsburgh to keep him company. Grace saw the doctor, and it is said "he waited for her to grow up."

At any rate, when the family returned to Baltimore the doctor left Pittsburgh, opened an office two blocks from the little girl's home and visited her regularly. The most intimate friends of the family say they are engaged. Mr. Thomas is silent and the doctor's patients are notified that "he is out of town."

Chicago Thief Robs Baby Girl.

CHICAGO, May 6.—(Special.)—Edward Ward proved himself the meanest thief in Chicago when he snatched a wallet containing $25 and a diamond ring from the tiny fists of 2-year-old baby Crozier, as she sat in her perambulator in front of her father's home at 5235 Fimkark avenue today. Ward was captured. He gave up the pocketbook and was locked up.

BUILDINGS AND ALL WOULD GO; UPPER BRANCH STEALS MARCH

Fatal Feature of Failure of Condemnation Proceedings.

STRUCTURES UNSAFE

WHY TRUSTEES HESITATE

If condemnation proceedings are declared illegal by the courts, the owners of the technical school site get their property back, together with all the buildings erected upon it, no matter how many millions they cost.

This in substance is the opinion of Attorney A. M. Imbrie, a prominent member of the Allegheny county bar.

Mr. Imbrie contradicts the contention of Director E. M. Bigelow and his supporters that all the city has to do is to file a bond and institute condemnation proceedings and the trustees of Carnegie institute can proceed at once and build the school.

"If the supreme court decided the Woods bill to be unconstitutional, then all the buildings that might be erected on the site while the case was pending to the courts would revert to the owners of the property," said Mr. Imbrie yesterday. "The technical school, at least as much of it as would be constructed during the two years that would be required to get a decision from the supreme court, would belong to the owners of the property, and no power could take it from them.

"The condemnation of property for the technical school is quite a different matter than ordinary condemnation, such as taking property for a railroad under the right of eminent domain. In that case all the railroad has to do is to file a bond and take the property. In the case if the city took possession by filing a bond, according to the plan Director E. M. Bigelow has outlined, the city would lose not only the site but whatever buildings might be erected thereon if the supreme court should decide that the property was taken illegally.

"The Woods bill, passed by the last legislature, is new legislation enacted for this specific purpose, and if it fails in a test in the courts all rights under it fail. The trustees of Carnegie Institute know this, and they would not dare to erect any buildings or to start work while condemnation proceedings were pending.

"The question of the legality of the Woods bill and the ordinance by which condemnation was authorized would be raised during the course of the condemnation proceedings before the local courts and would go to the supreme courts upon an appeal by either party.

"It would be impossible to go through all the necessary legal proceedings in less than two years," said Mr. Imbrie, "and no work could be done on the school before that time without running a great risk."

Select Council Will Consider Purchase Ordinance Tomorrow.

CALL TO GO OUT TODAY

Republicans Claim to Have Won Over Several Citizen Councilmen.

NEW PHASE OF SITE FIGHT

Director E. M. Bigelow's control of common council and his expressed determination to push the condemnation ordinance through common council without further ceremony, with the aid of his brother, T. S. Bigelow, has induced the select council leaders to take a hand in the fight.

This afternoon a call will be issued for a special session of select council tomorrow afternoon at which an ordinance to acquire the Filan-Magee site for the technical school by immediate purchase will be introduced.

Another meeting of select council will be held Monday afternoon, at which the purchase advocates expect to pass their ordinance finally.

LEADERS HOLD CONFERENCE.

The decision to call a special session of select council was reached yesterday after a conference of Select Councilmen John A. Murphy of the Twentieth ward and Samuel J. Wainwright of the Eighteenth ward, Common Councilmen J. C. Wasson of the Twentieth ward and W. H. Stevenson of the Fourteenth ward and President Lambie of select council.

Lambie agreed to call the special session and stated that the call would be issued this afternoon. The members will be notified by special delivery letters.

The purchase ordinance will be referred to the finance committee of select council, in accordance with the rules of that body, and will be reported out of the finance committee affirmatively and printed for presentation to select council on Monday afternoon.

The ordinance will then come up in select council on second reading, and a motion will be made to suspend the rules and put it on third reading and final passage.

A careful canvass has been made of all members of select council and the necessary three-fourths have agreed to vote for suspension of the rules, which means that several Citizens councilmen have been won over, the body being equally divided on party lines, 19 to 19.

If suspension of the rules fails, the ordinance will be passed on second reading Monday and finally on Tuesday at an adjourned meeting.

If select council passes the purchase ordinance finally on Monday afternoon it will be messaged to common council Monday night. That branch will not be able to pass the condemnation ordinance Monday night except on second reading because the condemnation advocates can not muster enough votes to suspend the rules. The common branch will then have to receive a notice of the action of the upper body and either concur in it or reject it.

If the two bodies disagree, a conference committee will be appointed, and the members from select council on the conference committee will stand out to the end for the purchase ordinance.

COMMON WILL HAVE TO RECEDE.

Common council will then have to recede or assume the blame of holding back the technical school indefinitely.

The special session of select council tomorrow was contemplated last Monday night, when Councilman Wasson diplomatically obtained the reconsideration of the purchase ordinance and had it put back on the file.

The Bigelow members were not aware of the real intention of Wasson in making his move, as it was explained to them that the purpose in reviving the ordinance was to enable that body to take up the ordinance later in the event of the condemnation ordinance being killed in select council or vetoed by the mayor.

If the Citizens had not agreed to a reconsideration the purchase ordinance would have been dead during the life of the present councils and could not have been brought up again for another year by either branch.

A meeting of the chamber of commerce will be held at 2:30 o'clock, at which the technical school site muddle will be discussed. The report of the committee on Greater Pittsburgh is also expected to be made.

A meeting of citizens of the Twenty-second ward will be held in Colfax school tonight to protest against the action of councils. Other ward meetings are being arranged.

CAPT. FORD GAVE AWAY FORTUNE WHILE LIVING

Will of Millionaire Glass Manufacturer, Philanthropist and Church Builder Shows He Died as Andrew Carnegie Says Men Should.

The will of Capt. John B. Ford, the millionaire plate glass manufacturer of Creighton, was filed for probate yesterday in the register's office. This man, who was the father of the plate glass industry in this country and the founder of Ford City, died comparatively poor, as he had given away practically all of his wealth before his death. He has a record of having erected and presented to congregations more churches than probably any other man of this generation. His benefactions in this line reach from one coast to the other, many states having houses of worship built entirely by Capt. Ford. Much of what he did in this way will never be known, as he never advertised his gifts.

Capt. Ford erected a Y. M. C. A. building at Tarentum, costing $60,000, and endowed it. He gave a $45,000 chapel to Allegheny college at Meadville. Although a Methodist in religion, his benefactions extended to all church denominations and religions, Catholics getting their share of his wealth.

The will was filed by Attorney James W. Kinnear and no statement of the value of the estate is given in the petition. What little remained of his estate was devised to his children and their families, for whom he had liberally provided before his death. Edward Ford, the only son, was appointed executor and Mr. Kinnear represents the estate.

THOUSANDS SIGN PAPER TO GUFFEY

ALL ARE IN EARNEST

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

Pottsville, May 6.—The movement to place Pennsylvania Democrats in line for Grover Cleveland for another presidential term is making marked progress, according to Archibald Jones, who has charge of the movement. Already the names of 10,000 prominent Democrats, all men of influence, have subscribed to the papers.

The names are not for publication, but will be presented to National Committeeman Guffey and other state leaders to show them the sentiment of the party. Action will, however, be taken independently of these leaders.

"When we started this movement six weeks ago," said Mr. Jones, "it was received with ridicule in many quarters. Now everybody knows we are in earnest.

"It is probable that a meeting of Democrats in sympathy with the movement will be held in conjunction with the state convention in September."

WOULD SAVE CONSCIENCE.

New Postmaster May Appear at Kanawha Because of Adventist Belief.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—(Special.)—Emery Robinson, postmaster at Kanawha, W. Va., has notified the postoffice department that his assistant has resigned, and asks that another be allowed him.

Mr. Robinson says he is a Seventh-day Adventist and his religion will not permit him to attend to the business of the postoffice on Saturdays.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has asked the representative in congress for that district to recommend another man for postmaster, as he does not wish Mr. Robinson to violate his religious belief.

BICYCLE RIDER IMPALED ON FENCE

CHICAGO, May 6.—(Special.)—Louis Sabolski, aged 12, was instantly killed this morning by being hurled from his bicycle upon an iron fence. One of the pickets penetrated his throat, entering the jugular vein. The youth was riding his bicycle on the cement sidewalk when the bicycle swayed and he was thrown headforemost over the handlebars on the fence.

MRS. BURDICK GETS CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

BUFFALO, May 6.—By a decision of the county surrogate, Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick will get the custody of her three children. The surrogate today declared null and void the provision in Mr. Burdick's will which directed that the children should be under the guardianship of his executors.

Gates Sails for Europe.

NEW YORK, May 6.—John W. Gates and Mrs. Gates sailed for England today on the steamship Oceanic.

WATER CURE GIVEN IN KANSAS HOSPITAL

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

TOPEKA, KAN., May 6.—It has been customary to administer the "water cure" to refractory patients at the Topeka asylum for the insane, according to the testimony of Miss Knox of Topeka, given before the legislative investigating committee today.

Miss Knox said that the "water cure" frequently was administered while she was an attendant at the asylum. She was employed there during Gov. Stanley's first term, and the head attendant of the ward in which she worked was Miss Houston, who left the institution to be married. It was by the orders of Miss Houston, according to Miss Knox, that the "water cure" was administered.

"When a patient refused to obey the orders given by Miss Houston," said Miss Knox, "the attendants were ordered by Miss Houston, to throw a sheet over the patient's head and throw her to the floor. While the attendants held the patient, Miss Houston poured water out of a pan into the patient's face. The water was poured fast and the pouring continued until the patient agreed to obey orders."

ORDER OF BOLIVAR IS GIVEN CARNEGIE

CARACAS, VENEZUELA, May 6.—(Copyright Cable.)—Mr. Andrew Carnegie has been decorated with the Order of Bolivar, second class, as a benefactor to humanity. This is the outcome of Mr. Carnegie's offer to furnish the money needed to pay the claims of the powers which blockaded the Venezuelan coast.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH GETS BIG GIFT

CONCORD, N. H., May 6.—The gift of $100,000 for a new Christian Science church edifice, in addition to a previous gift of a site in the heart of this city, was announced from Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, head of the Christian Science church, at a meeting here tonight.

CARR IS SLATED FOR COMMON PLEAS BENCH

HARRISBURG, May 6.—(Special.)—"Gov. Pennypacker will appoint William Wilkins Carr of Philadelphia, a common pleas judge, to succeed the late Judge Arnold," is the statement of a prominent politician, who is credited with being a confident of the governor. Insurance Commissioner Durham and former Mayor Ashbridge were here on Tuesday, and called upon the governor in the interest, it is said, of Mr. Carr.

Shoots Child Wife and Himself.

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—George Rust, on the eve of the first anniversary of his wedding, tonight shot his wife and then fired a bullet into his own brain. Rust is expected to die, but it is thought that his wife will recover. The bridegroom was then 24 years old and the bride only 15.

Negroes Admitted to Convention.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., May 6.—The Republican party of Alabama held a state convention today in which negroes, who had been denied admission to former state conferences, were invited to participate. About 100 negroes took seats upon one side of the hall, with the white delegates on the other. Oscar R. Hurdley was elected temporary chairman.

BULLETS FLY AFTER GREEN GOODS DEALER

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—After a chase replete with old-fashioned dime novel happenings, and a running fight in which several shots were fired, postoffice inspectors of the Philadelphia district caught Isaac Keyser, an alleged greengoods man in the fields near Allentown this afternoon.

Keyser is an assumed name, and the inspectors say they have one of a band of New York greengoods men who have been carrying on their work from outlying towns for several months.

Through a letter addressed to "J. Smith, Parkville, Mo.," the greengoods conspiracy was first discovered. The letter was discovered by the postmaster at Hamilton, Mo., having been opened by mistake. He sent it to W. W. Dickson, postoffice inspector in charge of the Philadelphia district, who detailed Inspectors Ryan and Morse on the case. In addition to two circulars giving detailed directions and information there were two telegrams and a genuine one dollar bill, which was alleged to be a sample of the "greengoods" for sale.

Keyser was brought to Philadelphia tonight. He will be given a hearing tomorrow morning.

PITTSBURGH DEAL SPOILS COMBINATION

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—The recent purchase of the Sterling Lead works of Pittsburgh by the National Lead Company is given as the cause of a split in the lead merger. Financiers who are engaged in forming the lead combination made it known today that they have made a change in plans whereby the National Company will not be included in the deal. The Sterling Company was formerly under option to the United Lead Company.

SERVANTS SCARED OFF BY FORTUNE TELLER

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—Puzzled by the actions of her employes, who seem to be afraid of her, and who left on short notice for no apparent reason, Mrs. Fannie Jenick, a Brooklyn dressmaker, learned that a fortune teller had been telling the girls that their employer was in league with the evil one. Mrs. Jenick caused the arrest of the alleged fortune teller, Mrs. Harriet Bergh, and the woman was held in $500 bail.

Body of Famine Victim Eaten.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The state department received a cablegram from United States consul Gen. McWade at Canton saying that bubonic plague is increasing in Canton, Honan, Shuntak, Yeoung Kong and Yuengshan. The famine is increasing in Kwangsi, and an American missionary reports that the body of a victim had been eaten.

RAILWAY FAILS FOR LACK OF FOREIGN CAPITAL

British Government and Other Nations Refuse to Float Stock of German Enterprise.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

(Copyright, 1903, by New York Herald Co.)

BERLIN, May 6.—The construction of the Royal Ottoman Bagdad railway, which was to have been undertaken the coming fortnight under German initiative, has been postponed. Following closely upon the refusal of the British government and financiers to support the Bagdad railway enterprise and to assume 25 per cent of the bond issue, comes the announcement that the Deutsche bank of Berlin has failed to make connections with the Austrian, Swiss and American financial groups which were to have made the project feasible.

It is asserted that this is largely due to King Edward's visit to Paris and the new Anglo-French entente cordiale. According to the original plan of the Deutsche bank $10,000,000 worth of the Bagdad railway stock was to be launched in Paris.

JAMES A. CHAMBERS BACK FROM EUROPE

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—James A. Chambers, president of the American Window Glass company, returned from Europe today on the Kronprinz Wilhelm, and is at the Astor with several members of his family. Mr. Chambers said that he did not go to Europe for the purpose of installing glass machines and as far as he knows nothing of the kind will be attempted for the present. The success of the machine is yet to be determined on a large scale, he said, as the majority of the American factories have not been equipped with them.

GIVES HER LIFE TO SAVE OTHERS

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—Rather than give an alarm, which she knew might awaken a dozen families to panic, Mrs. James K. Polk silently and desperately fought a fire in her apartments last night. She paid for this with her life tonight, for so badly burned was she that she died. Wealthy and herself a daughter of one of Sweden's famous artists, Mrs. Polk was married 21 years ago to Mr. Polk, whose great uncle was president of the United States.

DRIVEN FROM PULPIT BY TOO SMALL SALARY

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—Can a minister live on $1,200 a year is an economical nut for the elders of Madison Avenue Presbyterian church, North Elizabeth, to determine. The Rev. Herle Hathaway, pastor of the church, declares he cannot support his family on such a small amount, and cites the fact that he has been compelled to seek employment as a departmental manager of a factory in Newark at a salary of $3,500 a year.

PHILADELPHIAN BECOMES HIS SON'S BROTHER-IN-LAW

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—By his marriage to Miss Mary Louise Gotshall, John W. Woodside, millionaire and member of the Union league, established the relationship of brother-in-law to his own son. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Geo. D. Woodside, son of the groom.

Another phase of the tangle is the fact that the son has an option on the title of the bride and may either regard her as his stepmother or sister-in-law, while the new Mrs. Woodside is given discretionary power as to whether her husband's son shall stand in the relationship of a brother-in-law or stepson.

And it may also please the wife of the younger Mr. Woodside to regard her sister as her mother. Then again she may not take that view.

WARD MEETINGS TO BE CALLED TO VOICE PUBLIC INDIGNATION

The chamber of commerce special committee on Technological school site recommends that the chamber call upon the citizens of Pittsburgh to meet in their respective ward school houses and protest against further delay in securing a site for the school, urging upon their representatives in councils that it is their duty to support the ordinance providing for an immediate purchase of property upon which to locate the school.

The situation in regard to the establishment of the Carnegie Technological school is considered critical, and a public sentiment should be aroused that could not fail to secure favorable action from councils.

PAYNE MAKING CLEAN SWEEP

All the Big Postoffices in Country to Be Investigated.

NO WRONG EXPECTED

Postmaster General Hopes to Place His Department on Business Basis.

TYNER INCIDENT CLOSED

The postoffices of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, together with all the other big offices of the country, are to be thoroughly investigated by inspectors of the postoffice department. This announcement was made today by Postmaster General Payne, who said that he had decided upon this course before the probing into the affairs of the department here was begun. An appropriation of $5,000 to cover the extra expense of this work was made at the last session of congress.

The object of these investigations is not to discover any alleged crookedness in the conduct of the offices, as no charges have been made against postmasters or employes except in the case of New York; but it is the idea of Mr. Payne to see how the business of the big postoffices of the country is conducted and where defects are found to remedy them. If, for instance, it is found that at Pittsburgh and Allegheny there are more men employed than is necessary, the number will be cut down. On the other hand, if men are needed they will no doubt be allowed.

WOULD SYSTEMATIZE BUSINESS.

It is hoped by these investigations to systematize the work in postoffices all over the country and get it down to a business basis, such a basis as a large private business would be conducted on.

Mr. Payne was unable to say today when the inspection would begin, but he said it would require a good deal of time, probably a year.

The expenses of some offices are much higher in proportion to the business done than of others, and it will be a part of the duty of the inspectors to find out why this is the case.

Mr. Payne announced that it might be necessary to employ at various places men outside of the government to look into local postoffice conditions. A lawyer, for instance, he said, might be engaged to go over some rolls. A committee may be designated to look into the needs and conditions generally at the postoffices, including such matters as dispatch of supplies to offices, etc.

The investigation will cover all first-class postoffices whose annual receipts aggregate $500,000. Mr. Payne said today that the present administrative methods of the postal service were put in operation by former Postmaster General Wanamaker, 14 years ago, and since then the business of the department has trebled.

TULLOCH PREPARES STATEMENT.

Mr. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, has received a request from Postmaster General Payne to produce the evidence backing up his charges, which involved former Postmaster General Smith, his first assistant, Perry Heath, and other officials. Mr. Tulloch says he can furnish the evidence and will gladly comply with the request. He is now engaged in preparing a written statement, but he declines to outline what he will say until the statement has been placed in the hands of the postmaster general.

All of the former postoffice department officials who were named by Tulloch have written to Gen. Payne denying the statement of Tulloch, but Mr. Payne will not make public the text of these letters.

The abstraction of papers from the safe of the office of the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department by Mrs. James N. Tyner, wife of the then assistant attorney general, is now regarded as practically a closed incident. The papers were taken on April 21, and the case was referred to the United States attorney for the District of Columbia a week later. The matter has not progressed further. It has not been presented to the grand jury, and it is generally believed that the grand jury would not be likely to take action because of lack of proof that the papers taken were government property.

Passenger Steamer Launched.

PORT HURON, MICH., May 6.—The new steel twin screw passenger steamer East Land, which it is believed will be one of the fastest boats on the Great lakes, was successfully launched here this afternoon. The boat was built for the Michigan Steamship Company, and will ply between Chicago and South Haven. The boat was christened by Mrs. J. C. Pereue, wife of Capt. Pereue, who will sail the new craft.

Sympathetic Strike in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Alleged discrimination by Swift & Co. in discharging two stationary engineers precipitated a general sympathetic strike of engineers in eight of the largest packing houses at the stockyards today. Business Agent McCallum of the union ordered the men on strike without attempting to bring about an adjustment of the alleged difficulty, according to representatives of the several firms.

WARNING OF DEATH COMES FIVE MINUTES LATE

Messenger to Inform Macrum of Plot to Assassinate Him Finds Him Dead.

STORY TOLD BY WIDOW

She Finds in Husband's Pocket Statement That He Knew He Was Marked for Murder—Gov. Beckham Offers Reward.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

JACKSON, KY., May 6.—Mrs. James B. Marcum, whose husband was shot down in the county court house, today bravely told what she knows of the assassination. The tragedy is but one climax in the story of 17 months, in which 38 men have met death.

Mrs. Marcum showed a notebook found in her husband's pocket wherein he had noted in his own writing: "On December 31, 1902, Alexander Hargis told Dock Mullins he and Jim Marcum could not live here; he was against them and he had to be put to an end."

She said that some time in February Elbert Hargis met F. M. Chapman at night on the street, stopped him, peered in his face and said:

"Oh, I thought you was Jim Marcum."

On Sunday evening preceding Marcum's death, Ned Strong, a worthy citizen and friend of Marcum, either overheard or was informed that a select few had plotted to kill Marcum the next day. This happened at a blind tiger about three miles from Jackson. At daylight Monday morning he sent a messenger post haste to warn Marcum, but he arrived in town five minutes after the tragedy.

Mrs. Marcum is an educated, refined, cultured woman of great force of character. She is left with five children to support and the stork is now hovering again over her home.

JUDGE REDWINE EMPHATIC.

Circuit Judge D. B. Redwine landed in Jackson this morning from Wolfe county, where he had been holding court. He was very emphatic in expressing himself.

"Catch the dirty scoundrel and hang him," he said with great emphasis.

Judge Redwine is the gentleman who first figured prominently in the public eye as the chairman of the famous Louisville convention that nominated Mr. Gobel for governor. The political methods employed at that convention were apparently transplanted to Breathitt county and the means alleged to have been used to carry the county election two years ago are said to be at the bottom of the lawless condition that has prevailed for the last 14 months. The judge has it in his power to summon a special grand jury, see that witnesses are not intimidated and indict and punish the murderer.

Another remedy could be applied by the chief executive of the state if the county officials refuse to ask for help. He has the right to cal the legislature in extraordinary session and recommend the abolishment of Breathitt county. It could be apportioned among the adjoining counties, the officials impeached and other judges and juries see that the law is enforced.

The local photographer was requested to make a picture of the court house and the store of Hargis Bros. He refused unless permission be obtained from Judge Hargis.

Upon request the judge granted the permission, and offered to aid in any way in his power such investigations as were desired. His manner is always urbane and courteous and he impresses you with the belief that his troubles have all been brought on him by others, but when you attempt to locate the "others" you are at once baffled.

WILL ASK GOVERNMENT FOR AID.

People not involved in the feud contemplate calling on Gov. Beckman to bring peace to Breathitt county. It is expected that the contingent with which Marcum was allied, which includes the influential family of Postmaster Hurst, Marcum's father-in-law, are uniting against the Cockrell family, with a view of precipitating a fight. Conservative citizens who are acquainted with both families do not express surprise at the report.

The town may be compared only to a man sitting on a barrel of powder in a shower of sparks. When the explosion will come no one knows, but it is inevitable. At least three men know who assassinated James Marcum and though they are silent, it is believed that their doom is sealed. Such knowledge in Breathitt county means death or exile. There are also others left who know who assassinated Jim Cockrell. They will not be overlooked. If these people remain or there is the possibility of a rigid investigation by the law they will be put out of the way, probably at an early day.

Several families are preparing to follow the example of more than 50 people, who, during the last six months, have fled the country. Male members will leave immediately and when they have found a home, the women and children will follow.

Gov. Beckman has offered a $500 reward for the arrest of the assassin.

Pony Express Rider Dead.

CHEYENNE, WYO., May 6.—Capt. William H. Strope died today of pneumonia, aged 72 years. He was born in New York. As a pony express rider for the Wells Fargo company, he made a great ride across the plains in 1857, carrying the inaugural address of President Buchanan to San Francisco. During the civil war Capt. Strope was in command of a gunboat on the Mississippi.

Will Get Moment of Fresh Air.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—(Special.)—"Big Bill" Mason, a notorious burglar, wanted in several cities, will be released from the Eastern penitentiary at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. Detectives will take Mason into custody and produce him in court, when the question of where Mason is to go will be determined. There are enough burglary charges against Mason in Washington to keep him in prison for the rest of his life.

VICTIM OF ASSASSIN'S BULLET

JAMES B. MARCUM,

Fierce Feud's Latest Victim Had Fought Political Battles

LEXINGTON, KY., May 6.—(Special.)—James B. Marcum, the latest victim of the Hargis-Cockrell feud at Jackson, was a man of great character and a fine lawyer. He was 42 years old, a native of Jackson and married the daughter of D. D. Hurst, now the postmaster at the place. They had five children, all of whom are quite young. Marcum has two brothers, Tom Marcum, a young man who went west some years ago to seek his fortune and whose whereabouts are not known, and New Marcum, who is about 30 years old and is a resident of Jackson. He was educated at the S. P. Lee Institute there and studied law under Judge Holt at Mt. Sterling. He has for many years been a prominent lawyer of that section, representing many corporations interested in the development of the mountain section of Kentucky. He was a trustee of the Kentucky State college and a Deputy United States commissioner. He had borne the brunt of the political battles as attorney for the faction opposing the Hargises, who seemed to rule the county without the votes. He was once the law partner of Jim Hargis, the leader of the Hargis faction in the present trouble, and at their parting there was considerable feeling between them.

Marcum's great-grandfather was an Indian chief, and he was as fearless as the most desperate Indian brave. Standing in a court room surrounded by men he knew to be assassins and ready to take his life at the command of their leader he denounced the methods of his enemies and smiled at adverse decisions. When he exposed the three plots laid for his assassination he openly called the names of the men he held responsible for the lawless conditions in the court, looking them in the eye. While an exile in this city because he could not get protection from the men whom he knew to be hounding him he spoke feelingly to friends who told him not to return. He spoke of the disgrace of a state that contained a community in which a lawabiding citizen could not reside with his family and friends and feel secure, especially when he had been born and reared in that community, and had spent his life's work among the people. He determined rather than remain an exile he would die a martyr to his cause at his home, and returned feeling that at any time he would receive the assassin's bullet. "I will die," he said, "if they kill me, not with a curse on my lips for the villainous assassin that holds the gun, but with a feeling of pity for the people of a state, for only one in all this civilized world that such outrages are allowed, and with pity for the poor weakling that is too cowardly to meet me in the open, but resorts to this vile method of avenging what he pretends to think a wrong."

NO INCREASE FOR JUDGES

Governor Believes Legislative Act Is Unconstitutional.

TREASURER CONCURS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, HARRISBURG, May 6.

Gov. Pennypacker agrees with State Treasurer Harris that the judges of the supreme, superior, common pleas and orphans courts of the state have no legal right to accept the increase in their salaries made by the last legislature.

Since this question was raised by Harris the governor discussed it with some of his official associates, to whom he said that the judges are expressly forbidden from accepting any increase in their pay by section 13, article 3, of the state constitution, which provides "that no law shall extend the term of any public officer, or increase or diminish his salary or emoluments, after his election or appointment."

Harris will pass the question up to Attorney General Carson and if that official takes the same position as the governor and state treasurer, the judges will not be entitled to the increase, which goes into effect January 1, next. At that time 10 common pleas judges and two superior court judges, who will be chosen at the November election, will take their seats and there seems to be no question that they will be entitled to benefits of the new law.

In order that the question may be settled for all time, it is thought an amicable proceeding will be brought by certain judges to force Harris to pay them the increase in their salaries, which would bring up the whole question. Some of the supreme court judges have advised their professional friends in this city that they are not legally entitled to more pay and that they would not accept the increase.

The governor may settle the question for the present by disapproving the item in the general appropriation bill providing $385,000 for the payment of this increase in the salaries of the judges. But if he were to do this it would cut out the judges who will take office next January and about whose legal right to the increase there seems to be no doubt.

The governor will slash the contingent fund items in the general appropriation bills in order that the practice among certain state departments of employing extra help and paying them out of their contingent funds may be abolished. All contingent funds, including his own, will be reduced by the governor. He sent for the heads of several departments today to explain why their contingent funds remain unchanged and the necessity for the amounts appropriated to them.

Until the governor has disposed of the general appropriation bill he will probably take no final action on the Grady-Salus libel bill and other legislation on his desk.

Army Surgeon Died of Wound.

STAUNTON, VA., May 6.—Dr. Harold H. Haas, an army surgeon who shot himself in the head several days ago with suicidal intent, is dead.

LORENZ WAS WELCOMED.

NEW ORLEANS, May 6.—Sectional meetings kept the delegates to the American Medical association busy today. Dr. Adolph Lorenz was a conspicuous figure at the section of surgery and anatomy. He was immediately recognized upon entering the hall, and introduced by Chairman Moore. He was cordially applauded and briefly expressed his acknowledgments. Dr. Lorenz says he is simply here as a visitor, with no desire to appear as a participant.

At a meeting of the section of materia medica, pharmacy and therapeutics, over which Dr. Solomon Solis-Cohn presided, Dr. Robinson read a committee report declaring that there were too many "patent medicines" and proposing an act of congress to limit the sale of "poisonous and dangerous patent medicines."

The Southern Medical Colleges association has elected Dr. Christopher Tompkins of Richmond president and Dr. G. C. Savage of Nashville secretary-treasurer, and selected Birmingham for its next place of meeting.

The American Medical Editors have elected Dr. C. E. DeM. Sajous of Philadelphia president, Dr. Charles Chassaignac of New Orleans and Dr. O. F. Ball of St. Louis vice presidents, and J. McDonald, Jr., of New York secretary-treasurer.

Milwaukee will make a strong bid for the next convention of the American Medical association.

SWORD FOR CLARK

People of Oregon Also Send Silver Tea Set for Wife of Admiral.

PORTLAND, ORE., May 6.—A sword for Rear Admiral C. E. Clark, who commanded the battleship Oregon, in the battle of Santiago, and a tea set for Mrs. Clark, were sent to Philadelphia today.

The testimonials are presented by the citizens of Oregon, in memory of the services of Admiral Clark in the Spanish war.

It was expected that Admiral Clark would come to Portland with President Roosevelt, and at that time receive the sword, but his health would not permit of his making the journey.

Mrs. Samuel F. Smith Dead.

NEWTON, MASS., May 6.—Mrs. Samuel F. Smith, widow of the Rev. Dr. Smith, author of "America," died at her home in Newton Cemetery tonight of old age. She was born in Haverhill, Mass., about 90 years ago. Dr. Smith died in November, 1895.

NEW YORK, May 6.—While playing before an open window in a Second avenue elevated train late this afternoon, three-year-old Louis Lubbinger toppled forward and out as the train started from the Eighty-sixth street station. A scream from the mother, who was sitting by the child, caused the guard to back the train, but before it could be brought to a standstill the baby had passed through the girders and was falling to the street below.

Two men, passing under the structure, were attracted by a bundle, as they supposed, squeezing between the ties, and instinctively they threw out their arms just in time to catch the child. He was not injured further than a scratch upon his face.

SUIT FOR $20,000,000 AGAINST SYNDICATE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—Legal proceedings are to be begun with a view to enforcing a stockholders' liability of $20,000,000 against the promoters of the Union Traction Company and the original subscribers to its capital stock.

This statement was made tonight by one of the most prominent corporation attorneys in the city, who is preparing for influential stockholders of the North and West Chicago street railway companies an opinion regarding the liability of the Elkins-Widener-Yerkes coterie for the debts contracted by the Union Traction Company. The same attorney will begin the $20,000,000 suit, it is stated.

After an exhaustive research the attorney has informed his clients that the men who subscribed for the preferred stock of the Union Traction Company and who were given its common stock to the amount of $20,000,000 can be made to pay every dollar of the latter amount to discharge the indebtedness contracted by the traction company in favor of the component railways.

In the proposed proceedings it will be charged that the Union Traction Company was thrown into the hands of a receiver in the pursuit game wherein the stake was $52,000,000. This sum is made up of the $32,000,000 alleged water, representing the capitalization of the Union Traction Company, and the $20,000,000 liability which the promoters of that company know exists against them.

MISSIONARY BISHOP RETURNS FROM INDIA

Bishop J. M. Thoburn, D. D., father of the Rev. J. M. Thoburn, pastor of Calvary Methodist church, Allegheny, has returned from a winter spent in India, where he is the senior bishop of his denomination. Within seven weeks he baptized over 1,700 converted idolaters. This is the most successful season's work in this field. Bishop Thoburn has been in charge of the Methodist Episcopal missions in India since 1859, going to that country from the Pittsburgh conference. He will preach from his son's pulpit next Sunday morning and evening.

FIFTEEN DROWNED ON FISHING BOAT

THREE OF CREW ESCAPE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CANSO, N. S., May 6.—The American fishing schooner Gloriania, Capt. George Stoddart of Gloucester, Mass., ran ashore during a thick fog on the cliffs at Whale Cove, near White Point Ledges, last night and 15 of the crew, including the captain, were drowned, out of a total of 18. The survivors are John Richards, Eugene LeBlanc and Frank Nickerson.

When the Gloriania struck on the ledges she passed over the outer ones, but brought up on the inner reef, butted against a cliff of rocks and then fell off into the sea. When the vessel struck the cliff, Richards, LeBlanc and Nickerson rushed out on the bowsprit and climbed up the rocks to a place of safety. Others of the crew who were below started to lower the dories. As soon as each boat touched the water it was smashed into pieces.

Lines were thrown ashore several times, but they were either broken or torn from their fastenings on the rocks. Four of the crew jumped overboard and attempted to swim ashore, but they were dashed against the rocks and killed. The others who were on the vessel took to the rigging and clung there while their strength lasted, but the enormous seas were more than they could battle against, and one by one they were swept away.

STORY OF MASSACRE BY MOSLEMS DENIED

VIENNA, May 6.—The statement that 9,000 Christian inhabitants of Novi-Bazar, European Turkey, have been massacred by Moslems, published by a news agency in the United States is regarded as an invention. A large force of Austrian troops is stationed on the borders of the Sanjak of Novi Bazar and no reports of any disturbances in that region have been received.

Union Labor Leader is Missing.

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—It is said he was going to Greenport to see some engineers whom he heard might go to work on the boats against which his union had declared a strike. Faultless Workmanship.
Reasonable Charges.

These Last of the Millinery Opening Days

witness unusual attendance following up an unprecedented season. We are flattered with good words from everyone for our artistic exhibits of faultless millinery.

Our collection of beautiful Hats, Toques and Bonnets was never so complete nor were prices ever so reasonable.

Our $5, $7.50 and $10 models have been carefully thought out. Long experience has taught us that very few women will pay money for trashy and garish hats. Our millinery is showy enough without running to the vulgar extremes so prevalent.

Artistic millinery does not mean expensive millinery, and that is the secret of our selling our millinery for the lowest prices possible.

New Shirtwaist Hats, a thousand or more—$1.50, $2.50 $3.50, $4.50 and up to $15 each. All new fresh models.

In our French room, where there are no duplicates of the Paris hats—therefore each represents an individual creation—the prices are $18 and up to $65.

1,000 Tuscan Burnt Straw Hats for misses and women—all the latest shapes—now the great rage in straw—ready today for $1.00 each.

Dainty White Shirt-waists, $1.25.

An unusual instance of economical pricing on strictly modish shirtwaists. This special waist is made of fine white lawn with four rows of Swiss inserting and hemstitching; the back is pleated; large sleeves, tucked stock. Really a $2 value for $1.25.

Finer Waists of sheer lawn, prettily trimmed with fine tucks and hemstitching; also other handsome styles in figured mercerized material, side pleat and box pleat effect, new pouch sleeves, $2.

A new arrival, and one that we know you'll like to make the acquaintance of, is a fine Mercerized Cloth Waist in pink, blue and white—made with wide folds front and back; heavy silk embroidery over the front; narrow shirt cuffs, two buttons, and bishop stock. Bought to sell for $3, but lack of stock room, or for that matter any other room, compels a quick clearing. The price is $2.

Mattings and Rugs for Porches and Summer Houses.

Unquestionably the most complete lines of Summer Floor Coverings in the two cities.

Importing our Matting direct from China and Japan, saving all who buy here the importers' profit, accounts for our never carrying any dried-up stocks from one season to another. This Spring's Mattings, as shown here, were made expressly for this Spring's business.

We have the all-white Matting, and white with bunches of roses, also small point effects on white, and the prices for these new Mattings range from $7 per roll of 40 yards up to $16.

We make up Rugs for porches, and make them to conform to any space desired or of any size, and use a weight binding for the end.

We also have Prairie-Grass Rugs, 1½ yards and 2 yards wide, which are highly favored for porches, and are probably as good as anything of the matting family.

Moodji Mats and Kashmier Rugs, the latter reversible, are the preferred Rugs for cottages. Moodji Mats come in 9x9 feet sizes and the Kashmier Rugs in 9x12 feet.

For cottages we have a beautiful line of 9x12 Rugs known as Scotch Meadows—in other words, an imported heavy art square, Morris effects in two-tone and monotone.

East India Dhurries are favorite Summer Rugs and we have them in blue and white—two sizes, 9x12 and 6x9 feet.

Our line of Brussels and Wilton Rugs in these several sizes, 6x9 ft., 9x12 ft., 10.6x13.6 ft. and 11.3x15 ft., is complete.

The exhibit is rich in its variety of patterns and colorings.

Today we place on sale one lot of Persian Hearth Rugs, worth $20, for the extraordinary reduction of $12.50 each.

Summer Stockings for Women and Children.

More complete lines than we ever carried for the very good reason that a marvelously growing trade necessitates heavier stocks. But heavier stocks, just now on account of no stock rooms, means pushing out new goods at prices never before known.

New lines of women's black Lisle Stockings, with lace ankles and all-overs, blue Lisle Stockings with lace all-overs, gray and natural linen color; Lisle Stockings with lace ankles, natural linen color; Stockings embroidered in red, green and black dots; also black lace Lisle Stockings embroidered in effective colors on ankles, 50c, 75c and $1 a pair.

Women's all black Maco Cotton Stockings, and black with white feet and soles, a 50c grade selling here for 35c a pair or 3 pairs for $1.

Children's plain black and rib Maco and French Cotton Stockings—all sizes from 5 to 10—all with reinforced knee, heels, soles and toes—25c a pair, 35c, 50c, 65c and easily along to $1.30 a pair, according to size.

Infants' and Children's Silk Stockings, sizes 4 to 9—50c a pair and upward to $1.20. White, pink, blue, tan, morocco and black.

For the finer grades of Stockings—as fine as any woman cares to pay money for—just ask the people at the counter to show you them.

Two Very Special Numbers in Silks.

And any woman standing in need of a splendid black silk for a coat, or a neat colored silk for the many uses to which it can be applied, is invited to give the following two numbers a double reading. They deserve it.

Today 2,000 yards of printed Brocha Palliet de Soie, in 16 styles of designs—blue and black grounds. These goods were made to retail for $1.25 a yard, and are of this season's productions. This Palliet de Soie is 24 inches wide, and our special price for it is 78c a yard.

A special number of black Peau de Soie—27 inches wide—a silk that was made to retail for $1.10 a yard. It has a brilliant lustre and an exceedingly soft finish. Being of a feather black it is used extensively for coats. Our special price for it is 85c a yard.

Low Prices for Silk Waists.

Here are two numbers of Silk Waists, the reduced prices for which are rather astonishing. We don't say that they are just the thing for dress occasions, but we do say for all kinds of run-about wear, where a woman likes to look neat, they are just what is needed.

$3 each, reduced from $7.50—Black and white Peau de Soie Waists in several different styles.

$5 each, reduced from $10, $12.50 and $15—Waists of black Peau de Soie and Taffeta, handsomely trimmed.

PENN AND FIFTH.

COMMITTEES TO BE REORGANIZED

Chairmen Leslie and Robertson Are Not Candidates.

AGENT SEES GOVERNOR

Thomas S. Bigelow Sends a Man to Pennypacker to Talk About the State Appointments—Citizen Leader Fond of Quay.

New chairmen of the city and county Republican committees will be chosen within a month after the primaries of May 16. Neither M. G. Leslie or A. C. Robertson will be candidates for re-election.

There is to be a complete reorganization of the two committees. The present chairmen are willing to step aside and not contest the right of others to take the leadership. So far there is nothing definite about the successors of either chairman. Dr. William H. Weber of the South Side, is mentioned for the head of the city committee. Joseph C. Wasson of the Twentieth ward is also being discussed.

Thomas S. Bigelow spent the morning at his Fourth avenue offices endeavoring to appease the wrath of unrewarded Citizens' workers. He said that the Twenty-third ward might get the superindency of Marshalsea, remarking that the ward is entitled to more appointments. So far a driver of a patrol wagon has been the only plum given to the ward. Bigelow says that W. S. Haynes was thrown out because both of the councilmen from the ward were against his appointment.

In the discussion of the late jobs, Bigelow said that he expected to control the filling of these positions. He says that he has no engagement to discuss the matter with Quay. Incidentally he handed the senator this bouquet:

"I would be glad to see him. I am always glad to see him. I am very fond of Senator Quay."

Bigelow yesterday sent a representative to Harrisburg to have a talk with Gov. S. W. Pennypacker on the state appointments. The agent will make a report to the Citizens' leader today.

Director Clark yesterday reinstated A. K. Young of the Sixth ward, as chief engineer at Marshalsea. Young resigned on February 10 so that he could work for the Citizens' ticket.

E. A. Geis, a fireman attached to engine company 21, has resigned to Chief Miles S. Humphries. He sent this resignation:

"Understanding that it is a crime to be a Republican under the present administration, I hereby tender my resignation to take effect at once, thereby remaining true Republican."

The Republicans of Dravosburg yesterday won a victory in the first borough election. The following ticket was elected:

Burgess, S. S. Crump; councils, three-year term—Charles Corey, C. N. Stoops and W. C. McCune; two-year term, John Ord, J. D. Myers; one-year term, H. G. Berger, E. E. Chester. School director—Three year term, A. H. Aber, C. H. K. Downey; two-year term, F. E. Summey, G. L. Applegate; one-year term, W. L. McCave, John A. Kerr. Justice of the peace—Martin Kohl, Charles Wallace. Tax collector—William Knies. Auditors—G. L. Eagyle, James V. Maguire, William Richard. Election board—Robert Emery, judge; James Ord and Isaac Watkins, inspectors.

A special meeting of the school board of the Thirty-fifth ward was held last evening to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Fred Wills, who has changed his place of residence. Charles J. Pedder was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

George W. Wilson, former director of the department of charities, who has been mentioned as a candidate for the superintendency of Marshalsea, says that he is not seeking that or any other city position.

CONTEST AMONG BABIES HAS BECOME EXCITING

New Features Being Introduced at the May Festival in the Cathedral Lyceum.

There are many anxious mothers and fathers in Pittsburgh tonight. Their baby may not be the particular one to win at the baby show conducted as part of the May festival at the cathedral lyceum, for the contest is becoming exciting.

"The votes are close. No one can yet say that the winning is easy," said one of the assistants at that department yesterday.

The crowd last night at the festival was the largest so far. There has been a steady increase in all regards as the extent of the big affair becomes known. Features galore are added nightly. Last evening one of the new ones was the bag-punching of Bal Jeffries, champion of the world. For 20 minutes he beat the bag, showing equal skill with his eyes blindfolded or watching. The "nigger" at which balls are thrown was hit twice last night. The first was by a boy who had thrown a stone over the wall behind his booth. As he turned to look for the unlicensed thrower a swift liner caught him in the eye. The clog dancing also attracts many. "Steve" Madden, formerly secretary of the Amalgamated association, is a prime favorite at this. Albert Leonard, a professional, also showed some neat steps.

Tonight is C. M. B. A. night and an attendance that will again break records is expected.

The winners of first and second prizes in an exciting 16-table euchre at the festival last evening were: Miss Mary Gannon and P. B. Boylan and Mrs. Frederick Kamerer and J. I. Brown.

JUST FRIENDLY VISIT.

Ashbridge and Durham Did Not Mention Judgeship to Governor Pennypacker.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—(Special.)—"Our visit to Gov. Pennypacker yesterday," said former Mayor Ashbridge, "was not in relation to the fillins of the vacancy caused by the death of the late Judge Arnold.

"Mr. Durham and myself had some private business in Harrisburg, and after we attended to it we paid a friendly visit to the governor. The judgeship was not mentioned during out visit, but the governor did say to Mr. Durham that he wanted to recommission him again as his insurance commissioner, and that he intended to do so within the next few days."

FOREIGNER BELIEVED TO BE BURIED ALIVE

Neighbors in Snowden Alley Think That Stephen Bendokovitz, Who Died of Scarlet Fever, Is Not Dead.

Many of the people in Snowden alley, Lawrenceville, believe that Stephen Bendokovitz was yesterday morning buried alive. About 11 o'clock Tuesday night a special trip of a physician was needed to partly allay the fears that Bendokovitz was still alive, although he had been officially dead for 25 hours.

The man was one of a party of immigrants which reached Pittsburgh early last week. He came from Eisenbrod, Bohemia. He was without friends when he arrived here, but sought out people from his own country, some of whom lived in Snowden alley. There he went to board. Inside of four days he had developed a case of scarlet fever. He died Monday night about 9 o'clock.

Fellow countrymen raised from their own scanty earnings enough to pay the undertaker and the funeral expenses. All had been arranged for his funeral. He had been placed in his coffin and his new friends were keeping the death watch when they were startled to see movements of his chest and an apparent effort to open his lips. They touched his eyelid. It opened and stayed open.

Word of this spread rapidly. It reached the ears of the policeman on the beat, and a friend of the man, accompanied by the officer, hastily hunted up Dr. Charles J. Stein, who had had charge of the case. To reassure them Dr. Stein went to the house. His explanations of the phenomena which had so puzzled the foreigners was accepted with some reluctance and only after long questionings and grave doubts. They claimed the body was still warm, that they had seen signs of movement, indicating life, and the fact that decomposition had set in did not entirely reassure them. The funeral arrangements were carried out, however, and the body was interred at the Millvale cemetery at 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

There still remain many doubters in Snowden alley. The "rigors mortis," as physicians term the stiffening after death, the movements that come from accumulated gas escaping from the mouth and the lack of resistance in the passive eyelids of a dead man are all easily explicable, but Snowden alley people will probably talk for weeks and believe all their lives that Bendokovitz was buried alive.

FATAL QUARREL OVER A WOMAN

MURDER ON BUSY STREET

Dead Man Had Pawned His Revolver or the Incident Might Have Ended Differently—Homicide Caught in His Flight.

In a quarrel over a woman, an Italian shot and killed a fellow-countryman last night at Townsend and Wilson streets. Anthony Greg, 22 years old, of No. 256 Washington street, who fired the fatal shot, was captured by Officer Andrew Terry while running down Webster avenue. The dead man was without firearms. A ticket from a loan office showed he had pawned his revolver on Saturday for $1 80. Of the four shots fired at him two took effect, one in his abdomen and the other in his left shoulder.

The trouble started between the men at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They were seen by Louis Shapinsky of No. 1325 Wylie avenue to go into a saloon with two women, one of which was Maggie Oldman of rear of No. 157 Webster avenue. John Talaferio of No. 256 Webster avenue was with them. They drank in the saloon for a while, and when they came out Maggie Oldman asked Greg to buy her a ring. Greg and the woman went into Shapinsky's jewelry store and he bought her a ring for 75 cents. Greg and the dead man had some words over the Oldman girl.

RENEWED THE QUARREL.

The women and the men separated, but met again at 7 o'clock at Wilson and Townsend streets and quarreled. Louis Shapinsky went out of the store and asked them what was the trouble. Greg said the other Italian was trying to entice Maggie Oldman from him and he wanted him to leave her alone.

The men separated again. At 9:50 they returned to the same corner and the women were with them. The men started to wrangle. Both women became frightened and ran from them. Greg drew his revilver and started to fire at his opponent. The unknown was killed instantly.

STORY TOLD BY GREG.

At the station house Greg said he was standing on the corner when the other man came along with two women. Greg said the dead man pushed him off the pavement and he shot him. This story differs from told by the witnesses, Louis Shapinsky and Max Mansion of No. 43 Wilson street. They say that Greg deliberately drew his revolver and shot his opponent while they were fighting.

Greg refused to divulge the name of the dead man, and late last night he had not been identified.

Glute Terini, an Italian, 22 years old, shot Paul Lesock, also Italian, three times in the right arm and once in the right hand last evening in North Braddock. Terini quarreled with another Italian at a social gathering last Sunday and Lesock acted as peacemaker. Terini threatened to kill him for interfering, and went to Lesock's house last night for that purpose. A crowd of 60 was attracted by the cries of Lesock and chased Terini two miles to the Union railroad yards. They were stopped by Terini's revolver and he escaped on a passing freight train.

MISSING MAN FOUND.

Alleghenian Who Disappeared From Home Is Working in West Virginia.

Postmaster James Grier of Allegheny yesterday received a letter from L. T. Bare of Hannibal, O., a contracting painter, notifying him that F. F. Washburn of Allegheny is in New Martinsville, W. Va. Washburn disappeared from his home in Spruce street, Allegheny, April 22, and since then nothing had been heard of him until yesterday. The man is subject to fits of mental aberration, during which he wanders away from home. This is the third time in three years that Washburn has left home. The letter from Hannibal states that Washburn, who is a painter, worked for L. T. Bare about a year ago, when he left home mysteriously.

Washburn was injured about the head almost 19 years ago. About two years ago Washburn regained his memory, after a mental lapse of 17 years. When he regained his senses he declared he knew nothing of his married life and of the fact that he was the father of four children. About a year ago he left home suddenly and was found working in Hannibal, O. Postmaster Grier was unable to locate the man's family last night.

STANDS BY GIRL.

Sent to Hospital by Father, Youth Calls on Daughter Soon as Released.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—(Special.)—Frank King, aged 19, of Camden, who was shot in the neck last Thursday night by Charles Rich for persisting in calling on his daughter, was discharged from Cooper hospital today.

Rich was released on $500 bail.

As soon as King left the hospital he went to Rich's house to get an audience with Rich's daughter. The police were notified and King was ordered away on threats of being placed under arrest.

SCANDALMONGERS CAUSED SUICIDE

DIED IN HUSBAND'S ARMS

Child Mistook Arsenic Tablets for Candy and Is Dead—Victim of Saturday Night Fight Expired at the Hospital.

"I am going to part from you forever. The people will not have a chance to talk about me any more."

These were the words of Mrs. Annie Mitunik, 31 years old, of Harmarville, to her husband yesterday, after she had shot herself in the breast, and died a few minutes later. The despondent woman ended her life because of the slanderous gossip about her among the neighbors. They had accused her of being in company with her husband's friend. She spoke to her husband about it and he advised her to give the matter no attention.

One of the boarders Tuesday evening told her a story he had heard about her. This worried her greatly. About 5 o'clock yesterday morning Mitunik heard a shot. He hurried downstairs and in the kitchen found his wife on the floor with a bullet hole in her left breast and a revolver in her right hand, attempting to shoot herself again. He took the weapon from her and raised her in his arms.

Arsenic tablets taken in mistake for candy resulted in the death of Kenneth A. Smith, the 15-month-old son of P. H. Smith of No. 219 Miller street, Knoxville, yesterday morning. The shock received by his mother affected her heart, and she is now in a precarious condition.

The body of the man who was drowned in the Monongahela river at Riverton on Tuesday night was identified yesterday as that of George Colton, 26 years old and single, of Port Perry, by his brother, Frank Colton.

William Flaherty of No. 1012 Shields street, Allegheny, who had his skull fractured in a quarrel with some friends early Sunday morning in Sixth avenue, died at the Homeopathic hospital yesterday morning. A. J. Conley and four brothers, J. S., J. H., M. F. and A. J. Curley, are in jail to await the result of the coroner's inquest.

The body of the unknown negro who was found in the Monongahela river near the Monongahela mines yesterday morning is supposed to be that of the colored highwayman who attempted to hold up William Wade on a bridge near that place five weeks ago and was thrown off the bridge by Wade in their struggle.

John O'Donnell, aged 24 and single, of No. 1119 Siegle street, Philadelphia, died at the West Penn hospital last evening. He was taken there on April 6 suffering from a wound in his right temple. He was unable to tell how he got hurt. His brother, James O'Donnell, an Altoona saloon keeper, will take charge of the remains.

Steamer Clyde Quarantined.

The steamer Clyde is under quarantine. Yesterday it was discovered that Hezekiah Rose, a deckhand had smallpox. He was sent to the municipal hospital. Mary Hoteran of No. 2129 Liberty avenue, and Vincent O'Conner of No. 108 Forty-sixth street, were sent to the hospital suffering with the same disease.

FRAUD IS ALLEGED.

Salvation Army Officer Is Wanted by Several Harrisburg Merchants.

HARRISBURG, May 6.—(Special.)—Col. Joseph Hathaway, who termed himself the "territorial commander of the American Salvation Army," is wanted by a half dozen Harrisburg business firms from whom he is alleged to have secured goods on approval. Two warrants have been issued for Hathaway's arrest on the charge of larceny and the police expect to find him in Pittsburgh, where the unpaid goods are believed to have been shipped.

Hathaway recently opened a rescue home for women in this city, which was maintained from private contributions made by Gov. Pennypacker and other state officials, together with the local missionary and temperance societies. Hathaway's neighbors say that four wagon loads of furniture were hauled away from his home before he and his wife disappeared from the city on Sunday.

Hathaway had the confidence of the religious element of the city and was scheduled to speak on the work of the American Salvation army this evening at the Market Square church, one of the most fashionable congregations in the city.

WALKED OUT WINDOW WHILE HE WAS ASLEEP

A. B. CHASE PIANOS

Are the Highest Class Instruments

The A. B. Chase piano is the foremost piano because it contains all the elements a high-class piano should have.

Some pianos are good because they have some particular praiseworthy feature. The A. B. Chase piano is the BEST because it embraces all the elements so much boasted of in all high-class pianos. And it contains qualities impossible for other pianos ever to acquire.

The A. B. Chase piano is pre-eminent for its power, purity, sweetness and sympathy of tone.

The A. B. Chase piano is the most artistic piano of the age.

You are most cordially invited to judge for yourself.

Come and hear it played. Bring a friend with you, if you like.

Show Your Truss Away

No person who has ever witnessed some of my cures would believe how quickly true rupture, false rupture, water rupture and all forms of rectal diseases will respond to the newest medical and electrical forces constituting MY ELECTRO-CHEMIC METHOD. My discovery is universally recognized as the greatest achievement known to medicine or surgery. It is the only treatment which can be depended upon to cure the most aggravated form of these diseases WITHOUT CUTTING, PAIN, DANGER OR INTERFERENCE WITH DAILY DUTIES. Every person who has ever received my treatments will willingly testify to the truth of this claim.

DR. GEO. B. WIX.
The Discoverer of the Electro-Chemic Method.

Archersfork, Wash. Co., Ohio, April 9, 1903.

"I was afflicted for 13 years with Rupture on left side and for about 2 years with Rupture on right side. Seeing Dr. Wix's advertisement in a Pittsburgh paper I visited his office and concluded to try his new treatment for curing Rupture (as against the old style method by use of the dangerous knife). Dr. Wix did just as he said he would and gave me a complete cure. I threw my truss away May, 1902, and feel today as sound as before my misfortune.

"I cheerfully recommend anyone afflicted with Rupture to at once consult Dr. Wix. He will cure them if they follow his instructions—same as he did to my case. LEO HILL."

PILES AND FISTULA

A PERMANENT CURE GUARANTEED.

I don't care how many years you have been afflicted with Piles, Fistula, etc., there is every reason to believe that I CAN CURE YOU. I have been able to make this painless after having treated persons sent to me after some of the most learned physicians in the United States had pronounced them beyond all hope.

Dr. Geo. B. Wix: Belle Vernon, April 16, 1903.

Dear Sir—It is with sincere pleasure that I tell the public of your wonderful cure of Fistula. I suffered for almost two years and could get no relief until I tried your Electro-Chemic Method. After using it I am entirely cured. I advise all persons suffering with Fistula to try your treatment, as I am positive it will cure them. Yours truly, MRS. L. D. WHITLATCH.

Thursday, May 7, 1903.

That calling the annexation bill the Greater Pittsburgh bill was a misnomer is evidenced by the fact that the first outcome of the measure is a Greater Braddock movement. A mass-meeting has been called to discuss annexation of the boroughs of North Braddock and Rankin to Braddock borough. To facilitate movements of this kind is just what the bill was for, and if the people of the three boroughs think they can get better government by uniting, that is their right and Pittsburgh will wish them good luck, while observing that the natural outcome of the movement is for the various cities and boroughs in the Pittsburgh district to get together in one frame of government.

It would be deplorable to have the technical school site made an issue of faction controversy, but the present drift is in that direction. Thomas S. Bigelow is reported as taking an active stand in favor of condemnation proceedings, and that implies that the influence of his organization will be exercised to line up members of councils in favor of that method. The papers which supported the Citizens party during the campaign are against him on that issue, but they have been against his action before and eventually came around to it, so that this will hardly influence him. There is no doubt whatever as to the attitude of public sentiment irrespective of party association. The people want the school site and want it as soon as they can get it, and hence they favor the purchase ordinance.

The proceedings in regard to the vacation of Watson street, which turns over city property to the adjacent property owners, of whom Councilman Peter Hermes is one, show how defective is city procedure in regard to such matters. They are dealt with by a council committee which as a rule has only such information as those interested chose to submit. Nobody is particularly concerned, and councilmen who might object do so at the risk of having their pet projects jumped on. Other cities have charter requirements requiring an investigation and an appraisement of value in all such cases by some body representing the community as a whole, before any action by councils, but under our system such things are a matter of pure favoritism. It may be that no street is needed there, but why should city property of any kind be presented to Councilman Hermes or anybody else?

The Baltimore city election indicates that there is now a very independent state of public sentiment in that former stronghold of the Democratic party. Although the Democrats elected their candidate for mayor and a majority of one branch of councils, the Republicans elected the city controller and a majority of the other branch of councils. Maryland, although it used to be one of the safe Democratic states, is now definitely in the doubtful column. It is not exactly in the same class as West Virginia, in which state there has been an absolute increase of the Republican vote through growth of population accompanying industrial development, but on the issues of the last two presidential elections Maryland has turned from Democracy to Republicanism. In order to swing it back to its old moorings the Democratic party would have to cut loose from Bryanism and nominate a strong candidate, with no leaning to free silver or crank panaceas of any kind. In order to carry Maryland it would be necessary to nominate the sort of candidate who would carry New York. It would be a mistake to class Baltimore as a Democratic city because it has elected a Democratic mayor by a small majority.

The impression was so industriously cultivated that the city pay-roll was full of soft snaps and easy places that doubtless many people believed that there were numerous superfluous offices which could be abolished. Investigation has shown that there is very little ground for such an impression. The delinquent tax office invites the pruning knife, but its emoluments are regarded as too valuable a party perquisite to be surrendered. Councils did a little trimming of the pay-roll, but protests are already heard that even that much is injurious and that more positions and better pay will have to be provided in order to get the city's business properly attended to. Some offices which there was no intention of abolishing appear to have been left out by mistake in the passage of the appropriation ordinance. Controller Larkin is quite right in holding that there is no way by which pay can be had for officials whose employment was not authorized by councils. The only way to correct the mistakes which have been made is to apply to councils for the necessary legislation. Eventually it is quite likely that the pay-roll will be bigger than ever. Substantial reform is only obtainable through a radical change of system, but the leaders of the Citizens party appear to consider that the old system is good enough provided they hold the offices.

The dynamite outrages in Macedonia would be apt to provoke fierce retaliation even among people more peaceably inclined than the Turks, and it is not at all surprising that numerous arrests have been made and that Turkey is pouring troops into the disturbed districts. The behavior of the Bulgarian government in serving as a base of guerrilla warfare against the Turks would have provoked reprisals before this if directed against any other power than Turkey, but Turkey is restrained by the knowledge that invasion of Bulgaria would provoke European interference. Bulgaria appears to have been carried away by a wave of excitement which makes her people reckless of consequences in their determination to expel Turkish authority from Macedonia. The bands of raiders receive general sympathy and support, and a state of unofficial warfare actually exists between Bulgaria and Turkey, with Macedonia as the arena. The efforts of the Turkish government to introduce the reforms dictated by the European powers have accomplished nothing toward pacifying Macedonia, but have caused the Albanians to rise in rebellion, so that the sultan has had to send an army to reduce to submission people of his own religion. The Albanians are splendid fighters, and they have a mountainous country abounding in defensive positions, so that it is doubtful whether the sultan can subdue them by force. In any event, the reform scheme is an absolute failure and the country has entered upon a period of anarchy from which there is no prospect of relief save by European interference. European warships are gathering at Salonica, and although their mutual jealousies make it difficult for them to arrange any program of joint action, events will sooner or later force action of some kind.

Purchase or Condemnation.

Because Director Bigelow thinks the city can get the property by condemnation for less than the price at which it is now offered to the city, that does not make him out an opponent of the technical school or as trying to defeat selection of that particular site, and the clamor raised against his course is not altogether just. The city has done just such things before at his instance and has been able to obtain property by condemnation for less than was asked for it.

Neither is it true that condemnation proceedings necessarily involve further delay. The city can file its bond to pay such damages as may be assessed by the condemnation proceedings, and just as soon as the bond is approved by the court, the city obtains possession. Delay and uncertainty will occur as to the amount the city will have to pay, but that risk falls upon the city. As City Solicitor Rodgers says in his opinion furnished to Common Council: "If it files its bond and takes possession, undoubtedly it cannot withdraw and will be liable for whatever damage may be ultimately recovered against it. The school gets possession without delay and what the city may eventually have to pay does not concern it at all.

It has, however, been stated that the trustees would not regard it as safe to accept the site under such circumstances, since if the right of the city to condemn the property for the purpose should be successfully contested during the proceedings, it would revert to its original ownership. We do not think that there is any actual risk on this score, but the possibility exists and it appears to be the policy of the trustees to await the conclusion of condemnation proceedings before making any use of property so acquired. This has been the course pursued with regard to the Mawhinney street property which the city is condemning for the extension of the Carnegie library building. Hence, whether necessary or not, as a matter of actual fact, the adoption of condemnation proceedings means another long delay, in all probability extending for years. This is a consideration entitled to great weight and it is not to be disposed of by the suggestion that the trustees can take immediate possession. They can and we believe that they would be perfectly safe in doing so, but the giver of the endowment has a right to annex conditions, and it is certainly a reasonable condition that legal possession shall have been absolutely established by the final conclusion of all proceedings in the case, so that while condemnation does not necessarily involve delay, it certainly will do so under the circumstances of the case. The choice therefore does not lie between purchase and condemnation as a question of business procedure, but lies between getting the school now and postponing it to some indefinite period in the future, risking the loss of the endowment by delay in closing with Mr. Carnegie's magnificent offer.

Even if it were thought that the price asked is too high the prudent course to pursue would be to pay it rather than take the risk of delay. But the weight of expert testimony is to the effect that the price asked is reasonable and if the option is allowed to lapse the prospect is that the city will have to pay more rather than less. Director Bigelow's own judgment on this point would in any ordinary case have preponderating influence on our opinion, and if he should be willing to assume the responsibility, we should favor letting him do so, but in this particular case it is plain that he has gone wrong, and councils will make a great mistake if they adopt his recommendation. Even if he is right in his contention that he can get the property at less cost by condemnation, that is altogether unadvisable under the circumstances, and it is the manifest duty of councils to pass the purchase ordinance.

Benefits to Accrue.

An Allegheny correspondent requests answers to the several questions which he propounds thus: "On the Greater Pittsburgh bill, barring politics, and being called Greater Pittsburgh, what benefit would it be to the people of Allegheny? 1. To the business people? 2. The property holder? 3. The non-property holder?"

We cannot bar politics altogether in considering the Greater Pittsburgh, though we may leave out partisanship and factional advantages, which are probably meant by our correspondent. One principal advantage of the greater city would be economy in administration, since there would be but one mayor, one director for each department and one superintendent for each bureau. There would be economy in the interchangeability of water supplies and increased efficiency in the closer relations of public safety equipment and personnel. These benefits would apply alike to all classes of citizens. The business people would benefit especially from actual consolidation of the postal services, from the increased prestige of having their place of business in one of the largest cities in the country and from the better protection afforded them. The property holder would benefit by the better protection of his property and the probable reduction of his taxes. The non-property holder would not profit in any way not included in the foregoing. His burdens under the present duality of government are mainly indirect, and his benefits would be indirect. Expensive administration pinches him in the form of rents and high prices for commodities. He could reasonably expect to share in any reduction of taxes or insurance rates enjoyed by the property holders, and he would enjoy in common with them increased protection to life, health and property.

Our correspondent in addition to asking questions offers some opinions. He says Allegheny is at the present time in better condition than Pittsburgh, "and a thousand times better than the South Side since it became South Pittsburgh." He does not specify in what particulars it is better, and there is room for argument upon his remark as a statement of fact. It has been said by persons supposed to be familiar with the facts that vice flourishes more rampantly in Allegheny than in Pittsburgh and many times more than on the South Side. It has been charged that Allegheny sanitary precautions are more lax than those of Pittsburgh. It may be frankly admitted that Allegheny's streets, sewers, water supply and public works generally are superior.

One of the benefits of having a Greater Pittsburgh is that all of its parts will fare alike and the huge body of citizens will insist that in every particular the standard shall be as high as the highest now obtaining in any section. All classes in Allegheny will be benefited and so will all classes in Pittsburgh and on the South Side.

No Increase for Judges.

Auditor General Hardenbergh's interpretation of the constitution and the laws as applied to the announced intention of Treasurer Harris to refuse payment of increased salaries is overruled by Gov. Pennypacker. Mr. Hardenbergh was quoted as saying it was none of the treasurer's business; that the treasurer would be compelled to pay if properly drawn warrants were issued from the auditor general's department. Gov. Pennypacker says, on the contrary, the constitution expressly prohibits the increase of the salaries of judges during their terms of office, and it is said judges of the superior and supreme courts have informed friends they would refuse the increase if offered to them. It is probable, however, an amicable case will be arranged to test the matter and to obtain a final decision covering the whole ground.

Gov. Pennypacker's opinion in support of Treasurer Harris is unofficial, of course, but he may give it official force by vetoing the appropriation of $385,000 for the payment of the proposed increases. There are 10 common pleas judges to be elected next November. These will be clearly entitled to the increase in salary when they take office January 1, 1904. If the governor vetoes the whole item they will be obliged to wait for their money. It is not probable, however, that the governor will overlook the fact that provision must be made for the payment of those who will be legally entitled to payment under the bill he signed some days ago. Meantime if Mr. Hardenbergh desires to test the full authority of the auditor general's office to construe the constitution and the laws he can pass up a few warrants upon the state treasurer for items which the latter official does not deem proper. An issue of that sort between the accounting and disbursing departments of the state government would serve to postpone the monotony that may otherwise fall upon Capitol hill after the close of next week.

The Star of Empire.

Colonial Secretary Chamberlain explained to parliament yesterday his proposed loan of $175,000,000 to the recently conquered states in South Africa. He declared cheerfully that this loan was supplementary to a sum of $150,000,000 to be raised by the colonies, to be paid principally by British mining interests, as it has been agreed to put no burdens upon the land. The money is to be used for the development of the country, and incidentally Mr. Chamberlain thinks it necessary for the British government to take over the railroads at a cost of $166,000,000, though he made no definite proposition about the way to raise the money.

These items indicate the staggering cost of conducting the star of empire on its northward course from the Cape through Africa. The Boer war cost hundreds of millions and the Boer peace is costing more hundreds of millions. The rand mine owners, who protested against the exactions of Kruger's dynamite monopoly, will probably enjoy paying out $150,000,000 needed to revitalize the Boer state industrially and agriculturally, not to mention their probable share in meeting the $175,000,000 loan for development purposes. The general British taxpayer will also be delighted with the plan to add the neat sum of $75,000,000 needed to give effect to the Irish land bill with its $300,000,000 loan. But it is not to be wondered at that the campaign in Somaliland, which will cost much to prosecute and may cost more for the "development of the country," arouses little enthusiasm in the British breast.

Secretary Chamberlain and Secretary Wyndham may be cheerful and debonaire in discussing these millions of expenditure, but the solid British taxpayer groans when he totals up the figures. He may cover his groans with a grin, for he has to bear the burden, anyway, but he is not likely to have any better opinion of the star of empire on that account. The abolition of the grain duty, that is to be, and the reduction of the income tax are consoling to a degree, but they look small compared with the hundreds of millions demanded for making war on the one hand and for making peace on the other.

Homestead will dedicate its manual training school on Saturday with appropriate ceremonies, and pay proper tribute of praise to the generous donor, Charles M. Schwab, who has promised to be present on that occasion. Mr. Schwab and Homestead are to be congratulated. Homestead has an institution to be proud of and we believe it is proud. Moreover, we hope it will be too happy to throw any back-handed compliments to Pittsburgh, which is still squabbling over a site for its great technical school.

Roumania turns Uncle Sam down with more firmness than politeness, albeit its intimation that Roumanian affairs are none of our business was couched in diplomatic language.

The proposed action of select council may simplify the technical school matter. If the announced program is carried out it will give a decided advantage to the direct purchase ordinance and put upon Director Bigelow and his friends in common council the onus of creating a dangerous deadlock. In such a situation we believe common council will put the interest of the city in securing the technical school above personal preferences as to the manner of procuring a site.

Holding Down the Ends.

From the Philadelphia Press.

If Pittsburgh could go ahead with its consolidation scheme and get all the population it needs to make it the fourth city in the country it would give this state a better balance. With Philadelphia at one extreme and Greater Pittsburgh at the other there would be no danger that either end would tip up.

THE PARASOLS.

When the pitch comes up in bubbles from the cracks between the bricks,
When your flannel chest protector too affectionately sticks,
And each dead wall's resurrected by the green of clamb'ring vine,
Then you know that summer's coming; but the surest sign of all
Is the fact that every woman bears a dinky parasol.

Parasols as red as blazes or as green as new-trimmed hedges;
Parasols the size of biscuits, till one idly wonders why
Women carry them protruding toward the hot and glaring sky;
But, although they're no protection from old Phoebus' parching heat,
They are stylish, so they're carried down the scorched and sizzling street.

Still the pitch boils up in bubbles from the breaks between the bricks,
And your undiscarded flannel, too, affectionately sticks,
And each dead wall's resurrected by the cool and clamb'ring vine.
These are harbingers of summer; but the surest sign of all
Is that every sweltering woman bears a three-inch parasol.

The Quiet Observer.

ERASMUS WILSON.

Every woman thinks she knows what she wants, but does she?

One must have a lot of nerve who says she does not know, for she is sensitive on this point, and is liable to fly off the handle. And what is more terrible than one of the dear creatures when on a fly of this sort?

And who shall say what her real wants are, if not she herself?

Many of those who have attempted to say it will never do so again. Not that they are dead, and buried, or going on crutches, or being led around feeling objects for lack of eyes with which to see them, but because they don't want to.

However, if you are not smart and exercise great care, you may so tell her that she will embrace you with smiles, another pair with unkissed kisses, and be a sister to you for long as you remain good, and think the same as she thinks.

In order to get along quietly with the best of them you have to play the diplomat more or less. But this isn't very bad—not too bad—since diplomats do not have to lie. They may lie, 'tis true, but they don't have to.

* * * * *

Some experienced diplomat might write a very successful book under the title: "Happy, Though a Woman." Here is a chance for a regular corker in the book line. Also a chance for a regular hit. Poise of a time, for a bunch of women, taken as they come, is much more easily exploded than a mountain, even if it has a young volcano concealed about its person.

It is not impossible for a women to be happy, notwithstanding the fact that there are so few specimens of the happy type extant.

Magazines and various periodicals—in fact all publications that seek to become popular with the ladies—are much given to fashion plates, pictures of shapely women, and advertisements containing half-tone busts, full length statues and figures in graceful repose.

Most women take great delight in such publications, even if the fashion plates do not apply to persons of their build. For they may know one of the women who stood for the pictures, and then raised a row about it, threatening suits for libel, damages and all sorts of things, all of which tended to add to the value of the advertisements by calling special attention to them.

All this is food for her, but it does not cause her to grow in happiness.

* * * * *

Tell a young woman what she wants, and tell it right, according to her way of thinking, and your name goes down on her special list of good fellows, sure.

Her idea of how to be happy, though a woman, is to have nice things, and plenty of them: money, and plenty of it; attention, and plenty of it. With all these she feels quite certain she would be as happy as the day is long.

But would she?

And yet there are women who have them, and to spare, who are not only unhappy, but positively miserable. They may not be able to tell why, but they are. Some of them envy their laundresses who sing as they push the iron, or maybe whistle a few notes in imitation of the birds as they fold the fine things away in the bureau.

The unhappy one studies fashion plates, looks at the pretty pictures of women in magazines, and reads about titled fellows who come in search of ladies capable of presiding in a palace or castle after having rented and refitted it at their own expense. She thinks it would be awful nice, if only the castle were handy to a city where it could be made a center of gaiety. There would be lords and dukes and earls and counts of all sorts and sizes kissing her finger tips, paying her compliments, and borrowing money from her through her husband.

After thinking over all these things which she is missing, the poor dear takes a good cry, her eyes swell and her nose gets red, and she tells her maid that she is indisposed and will not be at home to anyone.

* * * * *

This type of woman will not listen if you attempt to tell her that she would be happier behind a counter, in a laundry, or manipulating a typewriter. Indeed, she would be offended, more than likely.

But who are her woes beside those of the poor creatures who find no comfort in fashion plates? There the figures are all wasp-waisted, artistically developed, with beautiful teeth, pouting lips, dimpled cheeks, fascinating eyes, and altogether lovely.

To some these figures are a source of delight and inspiration, but to those who are barrel-waisted, flat-chested, dumpy or lean, they are a continual source of discouragement. They imagine that men take to the wasp-waist, so that if a prince or something should come along he wouldn't give them a passing glance.

Frequently a dumpy figure, in the hope of looking as pretty as she of the willowy figure, orders a willowy costume, and then proceeds to dress the dressmaker down for spoiling her goods and making her look like the sister of a brownie. It is her turn to cry; and she does, wondering between sobs why she ever was born, or why she ever went to that fool dressmaker. She knows she will it on purpose, and because she is jealous, for she made the willowy girl's costume out of the very same piece of goods, and one is a thing of beauty while the other is just awful.

Of course you wouldn't be guilty of any such foolishness, nor be unreasonable in your demands, nor mean if you have enough to be mean with. We were only saying this, you know, and if there is anything in it it must have crept in surruptitiously.

Nor would you be so ungrateful and ungenerous as to complain were you nicely fixed with enough to eat and to wear and to use in securing the comforts of life from day to day. That is, you think you wouldn't; but wouldn't you? Others have thought the same only to become regular growlers after having been dumped into the lap of luxury.

However, it is one of the wonders of the age that overly fat, unduly lean, too tall, too short, or otherwise inartistically constructed women do not rise in open rebellion against the fashion plate, and smash the dainty, fragil models in store windows.

There are no real flesh and blood figures like unto those used to show off gowns, and, perhaps, not many gowns like those shown off. And yet we find crowds of women looking at them, admiring them and buying something of the sort, although in the admiring crowd there may not be one in a dozen that comes within a mile of looking like the dressed model.

The costumer will tell you that true-to-life models would drive customers away. People don't seem to want to appear as they are, but as they would like to appear. Every woman wants to appear dainty, shapely and graceful; therefore she copies the fashion most becoming to that type of woman.

Well, can you blame her? She has a head of her own, and she thinks she knows what she wants.

But, does she?

* * * * *

Suppose we drop the subject just here and give her a chance to think it over, and may be she will come forward and tell us what she wants in this world.

Or, better still, tell us, in a general way, what a woman should have to make her life one of happiness and contentment.

You see, there are a great many who imagine there is more coming to them than is their due. If they knew this, or could have it pointed out to them, they might get along ever so much better. For, as you may know, more than half of the ills of which we complain are, in a sense, imaginary. Instead of accepting facts as they are, and trying to make the best out of them, we play the spoiled baby part, breaking and upsetting that which, if properly used, would bring us a reasonable share of comfort.

The disposition that we manifest in accepting and using opportunities and means that come within our reach, is largely the result of our home and school training. Our parents having been raised in the same manner we cannot expect anything better from them, but our school training school be such as to set us right on matters and things upon which our happiness and usefulness so largely depends.

However, as the case stands now, most of us think we know what we want ourselves, also what others should want.

But, do we?

Talked of in New York

(By Private Wire to The Gazette.)

NEW YORK, May 6.—Notwithstanding that New Yorkers have been grumbling continuously for more than two years about the explosions, noise and danger of the rapid transit tunnel operations, they were glad enough today to see and hear them, after a respite of three or four days. The strike of the diggers is over. Whatever questions are involved between the contractors and laborers have been placed in the hands of an arbitration committee. Meanwhile work has been resumed, and there will be no more waste of time in the guise of a strike, unless the arbitration board or committee proves itself woefully incompetent. The need of the rapid transit tunnel is felt more and more painfully every day, and the bright pleasant spring weather New York has had for the last week has accentuated it in many ways. Rapid transit in the city is always a problem, and the crowding of cars, both on the surface and "L," has increased dangerously in the last month or two. Therefore we all are glad to see that operations in the subway are going along gallantly, and that the dispute over wages and hours of work is not to be allowed to interfere seriously with its completion. It seemed to day as if the laborers below the surface were working with more will and made more noise than usual, as if they were glad to get back—as doubtless they are. What is hard to understand is why they were so slow in getting the dispute into the hands of an arbitration board, when such a body was so soon able to adjust the difficulty well enough for work to be resumed.

Millinery on Parade.

Broadway was ablaze with millinery this afternoon. It was matinee day, for one thing, and, besides, the afternoon was one of the most brilliant that has been seen in New York this spring. The sidewalks were crowded before and after the matinee, and if anyone doubts that this metropolis can give a show of lovely femininity not beaten anywhere else in the world, he should take his stand in Herald square on a bright Wednesday afternoon in this merry month of May.

Pittsburgh Man Off for Europe.

The renovated American liner New York, in all the bravery of flags and fresh paint and with a large passenger list, swung out of her berth in the North river about 10 o'clock this morning, and started on her first trip to England since coming from the dry dock. There was an enormous crowd on the pier to see her off, and she was cheered enthusiastically as she turned her bow toward the narrows, and gracefully steamed down the bay. T. A. Mellon of Pittsburgh was among the passengers, as was H. H. Miner of Waynesboro, Pa.

Safety Pins for All.

It is often said that you can get anything in New York if you know where to look for it. This is true especially of the ferryboats, which are used by so many thousands of commuters morning and evening. This morning, as one of the boats a woman passenger had imperative need of a safety pin. She could not get what she wanted from her fellow-passengers, but that did not trouble her particularly. She beckoned to a husky deck hand who was busy directing teams which way to go, and when he came to her, she whispered. Within two minutes she had three safety pins, of assorted sizes, which the deck hand produced from various parts of his attire. He seemed to look upon the proceeding as quite in the line of his duty.

Merely a Daily Incident.

A woman fainted in the crush on the Third avenue "L" today at the morning rush hour. She was unconscious for more than an hour. The fact of a woman fainting was nothing unusual, but her remaining in a faint for so long caused some little wonderment to the guards, and they actually took the trouble to make the crowd stand back while the sufferer was conveyed to an ambulance. It was merely an incident of "L" travel to which New Yorkers have become more or less accustomed.

Schwab Skips Shower.

Charles M. Schwab took an automobile ride this afternoon through Central park and along Riverside drive, and evidently, from his appearance, was enjoying it. He leaves the office generally about 4 o'clock on these bright afternoons, and his favorite amusement is an automobile trip along the Hudson. This afternoon he left an hour earlier. It was too fine a day to stay in the office longer than necessary. Besides, he wanted to get away from the showers of congratulations on his re-election that were descending upon him from all sides.

Still Opportunities for Betting.

It seems as if the handbook industry is increasing in New York. After the explosive report that poolrooms were legalized by a decision of court a week or two ago, with the speedy denial of its truth, some outlet for the betting spirit that bubbles up in so many New Yorkers had to be found forthwith. The handbook appears to supply that vent, and the police declare there are men at almost every corner in some parts of Manhattan ready to take any wager, on any horse, in any race, at almost any odds. The police are so busy running down handbook betters that they have no time to raid gambling houses, and the vice crusade is altogether out of joint in this gay town.

Speed Developed in Brooklyn.

The case of the strong-armed widow in Brooklyn who broke a water pitcher over the head of a young man who trifled with her affections, and refused to marry her when she commanded him to do so, has called attention seriously to the pursuit of the strenuous life in the part of New York, which it has been the custom of Manhattanners to call "slow." The youth with the sore head and who has indigestion as the consequence of the water pouring down his spine, laughs disconsolately when he hears anyone refer to the slowness of Brooklyn. He insists that the widows of that cheerful borough are both swift and severe.

Polo Gains in Popularity.

Polo is increasing in popularity in the neighborhood of New York. It is a wealthy man's amusement, of course, but that does not prevent hundreds of New Yorkers engaging in it. Most well-to-do New Yorkers can afford to own a polo pony, and a great many of them do. So the announcement that Eugene S. Reynal, clubman and lover of horses, is about to lay out a polo field on his estate at White Plains does not surprise anyone. Mr. Reynal occasionally drives a coach, and can tool a four-in-hand with the best of the wealthy young men who go in for that kind of amusement. He is also an expert polo player. His home at White Plains will cost a cool million dollars, it is said.

Political Drift.

Speaking of the latest manifestation of the Commoner against reorganization of the Democracy, the Buffalo Commercial (Rep.) comments: "The situation grows more interesting every day. Mr. Bryan, having constituted himself the sole guardian of the virtue of the Democratic party will not remain either silent or inactive, awaiting the assaults of 'predatory wealth' under the mask of Clevelandism. He will not betray the confidence of 4,000,000 voters by joining those who are seeking to Republicanize the Democratic party. He and his faithful followers will 'organize and marshal their forces at the primaries.' They are said to be still strong in some states, these loyal Bryanites, but to 'the average country' Bryan is no longer a name to conjure with."

Referring to Senator Hanna's recent interview the New York Commercial Advertiser (Rep.) says if any one has been fooled by the talk of Hanna for president it has not been the senator. It continues: "In regard to the prevailing Cleveland boom, the senator's observations are no less sagacious. Grover Cleveland's name! Yes, it is freely mentioned, and it strikes one as being significant. He commanded a great deal of attention at St. Louis. While I do not care to state he will be the Democratic candidate for the presidency, yet I repeat that the mention of his name so freely among politicians and in all classes looks significant. In that view every experienced political observer shares. Nothing more significant than the current popular boom for Cleveland has happened for a long time. It indicates, among other things, that the Democratic party is sobering up from its Bryanite debauch."

The Cleveland boom is not taken seriously in some quarters, though in others it assumes a very serious aspect. The Baltimore Republican (Rep.) declines to become excited. It says: "We are not disposed to take seriously the Cleveland presidential boom, formally launched last week by the Brooklyn Eagle. In this disposition we find ourselves in excellent company, as the press of the country, without much regard to party affiliations, is looking askance at the proposition that Grover should become a candidate for the fourth time. Reasons for this very noticeable lack of alacrity in pushing along the attempt to exalt the sage of Princeton are numerous. Some of them are political, others commercial, and still others purely sentimental; but no matter what their nature, they are singularly unanimous in one point—Cleveland will not do for the 1904 presidential contest."

Some time ago the Boston Herald (Ind.) called Mr. Bryan a "marplot." The editor of the Commoner (Dem.) has devoted a page and more to denying the charge, but has failed to convince the Washington Post (Ind. Dem.), which, taking the definition of a marplot as "one who, by meddlesome interference, mars or frustrates a design or plan" concludes as follows: "In speaking of those who believe in the Kansas City platform," Mr. Bryan talks of purely imaginary beings. No men who believe in metallic money wishes to put this country on a silver basis. And, inasmuch as it is the desire and design of the Democracy to drop the free coinage cadaver, Mr. Bryan plays the marplot in trying to prevent that consummation. He seems determined to compel the party to retire him to the seclusion which he should voluntarily have sought long ago. A twice-defeated leader on a platform thoroughly condemned and scrupulously obsolete is a marplot, in modified sense interfering, when he persists in exacting the rights forfeited by defeat in order to thwart all plans that hold out a gleam of hope to his party. And if Mr. Bryan is keeping his ear to the ground, and especially to the ground where Democrats elect presidential electors, he must perceive that he is taxing the forbearance of long-suffering friends too heavily."

Anent the "Iowa idea" the Philadelphia Inquirer (Rep.) hears that Senator Allison is to write the plank for the next Iowa Republican convention, and that it will simmer down to about this: "Free trade would be a national calamity; the principle of protection must be retained; but tariff schedules should be changed from time to time to meet changed business conditions; where the tariff is promoting a monopoly, the revision should first be made there."

Tariff revision has a staunch advocate in the Washington Star (Ind. Rep.), which refuses to believe President Roosevelt has gone over wholly to the "stand-patters." It says: "As for the president, it is not impossible of proof as yet that he has taken his stand with the Aldrich contingent. His recent tariff speech, as the Star noted at the time, was the least successful of those he delivered on his way to the Yellowstone park. It was not characteristic, in that it was not altogether clear. He left much to be desired as to just what we might expect from him on that question in his recommendation to congress next winter. His position may be difficult. He may think it advisable for the moment to choose his words with extreme care. But it will be necessary for him to touch this topic definitely in his next message, or in some other way before the meeting of the next Republican national convention; and in the event that the revisionists do not find themselves in full agreement with him they may take their case into the convention and fight it out in the platform committee. No revision in 29 years if the good times last so long is no shibboleth to go to the country on, with a tariff bill constructed in starvation times hampering the greatest volume of business ever transacted and steadily growing."

The Wisdom of Candor.

From the Washington Post.

We don't know that it is any of our business, but it does seem as if the treatment accorded the Thaw-Yarmouth incident by some of the American participants has a good deal to commend it. The course usually followed by private citizens who have become for the time being objects of interest to the public is not unlike the practice of shyster lawyers who go deliberately into court, are beaten by a poor presentation of their case and a lot of ingeniously handled testimony on the other side, and then seek satisfaction in profanity. The newspapers will print what they can get. Most of them must be credited with trying to get the truth. If they fail, it may be in part due to their unskillful management, but the chief blame will rest with those victims of their misrepresentations who, though earnestly solicited, would not do anything to promote their quest for accurate information.

At each stage of the Thaw-Yarmouth incident, some member of the family most concerned came forward and took the public into his confidence. It was saying, in effect, to the press: "Do you wish the facts? Here they are. It would be better for us that you should have them right than that you should print a mass of misinformation. Therefore, help yourself to this complete statement." What was the result? Less friction, less worry, less falsehood, less fol-de-rol generally. What might have been a ninety-days' sensation blew over in nine, and the forces of malicious gossip were disarmed, for half the pleasure of the mischief-maker lies in spreading stories which leave so much to the imagination that fact is soon dwarfed beside fancy.

IT IS TO SMILE.

JAMES M. BAILEY ENDS BUSY LIFE

After Several Weeks' Illness, He Succumbs to an Attack of Pneumonia.

A PROMINENT FINANCIER

Identified With Many of Pittsburgh' Important Business Interests—Jury Commissioner McCarthy Is Dead.

James Madison Bailey, for many years one of the most prominent business men of Pittsburgh, died yesterday at his residence, No. 827 Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, in his 70th year. Death was due directly to pneumonia, although Mr. Bailey had been confined to his room for many weeks on account of poor health.

Mr. Bailey was born in First avenue, Pittsburgh, in 1833, and got his early education in the public schools. Later he was graduated from the Western university. His father, Francis Bailey, who came to Pittsburgh from Philadelphia in 1814, was a prominent Free Mason and the first commander of Pittsburgh commandery Knights Templar.

After leaving school James M. Bailey spent a year in the gold fields of California, and later entered the coal business in Pittsburgh, in which he remained the greater part of his life. For many years he was a member of the firm of Phillips, Nimick & Co., and later of Singer, Nimick & Co., owners and operators of the old Sligo mills on the South Side. He was prominent in financial circles of this city, being at the time of his death president of the Fourth National Bank of Pittsburgh. He was one of the incorporators of the Fort Pitt National bank and of the Pittsburgh Clay Pot Company. He was for many years a director in the Cash Insurance Company and the Menongahela Bridge Company, and was an incorporator and director in the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, the Pittsburgh & Castle Shannon, the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Youghiogheny and the Lexington & Big Sandy Railroad Companies.

In 1867 Mr. Bailey was married to Martha Dalzell, daughter of James Dalzell, a prominent Alleghenian. Mrs. Bailey died in 1883. Surviving Mr. Bailey are three children, Mrs. Burney K. McMechen, Mrs. Edward Duff Balken and Mark Bailey, all of Pittsburgh.

The news of Mr. Bailey's death was received by hundreds of Pittsburgh business men with deep regret. His ability and wide experience in business made his worth felt in all the corporations with which he had been connected for so many years. Mr. Bailey was regarded as one of the most able business men in Pittsburgh for almost half a century. At the Lincoln avenue home yesterday scores of business men and friends called to pay their respects to the memory of the dead.

Mr. Bailey performed many charitable acts in a quiet and systematic manner. For years he was a member of the Second Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh and contributed largely to the many charitable funds of the church.

No arrangements for the funeral have been made yet.

WELL-KNOWN COUNTY OFFICIAL PASSES AWAY

Daniel J. McCarthy, Democratic Jury Commissioner, Died Last Night at Braddock.

Jury Commissioner Daniel J. McCarthy, a prominent Democratic politician and one of the best-known residents of Braddock, died last evening at 5:50 o'clock at his home in Fourth street, Braddock. He had been in an unconscious condition since Sunday. Mr. McCarthy had been in failing health for more than a year. Several months ago his illness, acute indigestion, became so serious that he went west and traveled in that section in the hope of improving his health. A few weeks ago he returned east and spent some time at Atlantic City and two weeks ago came home. He failed rapidly and meningitis set in and caused his death.

Daniel Justin McCarthy was born in Sheffield, Yorkshire, England, on June 9, 1850, and was a son of James McCarthy, a pioneer settler of Braddock. When 10 years old Mr. McCarthy was brought to the United States by his parents, who settled in the old village of Oak Hill, now a portion of East Pittsburgh borough, October 14, 1860. At the age of 14 Mr. McCarthy became an apprentice in the printing office of Bakewell & Marthens in this city. Some years later he entered the employ of Stevenson & Foster, printers. Later he worked on the Pittsburgh daily newspapers. In 1879 he removed to Braddock with his family and in 1881 Mr. McCarthy founded the Braddock Tribune, a Democratic weekly, and in 1887 he purchased the Braddock Daily News from the late Charles Mills and conducted the paper for 11 years.

During President Cleveland's administration Mr. McCarthy was postmaster at Braddock and during his term the office was raised to the second class. At the time of his death Mr. McCarthy was serving the last year of his second term as Democratic jury commissioner of Allegheny county. Mr. McCarthy was a charter member of St. Brendan's Roman Catholic church, West Braddock, and a member of the church committee. He was also an active member of St. Brendan's branch of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association and of the Elks' lodge at Braddock. Thirteen years ago Mr. McCarthy married Miss Sarah Churchill of the East End, who, with two daughters, Madeline, aged 11, and Ursula, aged 9, survives. He is also survived by his parents, three brothers, John McCarthy of Wilkinsburg, James McCarthy, Jr., a member of Braddock council, and Thomas McCarthy of Benwood, W. Va., and one sister, Mrs. Joan Butler of Clairton. Funeral services will be held over Mr. McCarthy's remains Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Brendan's church, West Braddock.

He had been a resident of Allegheny for the past 15 years, coming here from Kansas to become chaplain of the Gusky orphanage in Perrysville avenue, Allegheny. Mr. Lazarus was prominent in fraternal organizations. He was a member of the Masons, the Ancient Order of United Workmen, Royal Arcanum, Knights of Pythias, I. O. O. F. and I. O. B. B. Mr. Lazarus is survived by his wife, three daughters and two sons. Funeral services will be held at his late home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Col. Asa P. Stanford.

Col. Asa P. Stanford, 81 years old, brother of the late Gov. Leland Stanford of California, died yesterday at his home, No. 409 West Forty-seventh street, New York. Col. Stanford had been ailing for the last four years and his death was due to nervous prostration and heart disease. At one time he was a millionaire, but according to his second wife, who survives, he died in almost absolute poverty. Upon the death of his brother, Col. Stanford was left $100,000, but most of this went to pay his debts.

Mrs. Owen McAnulty.

Mrs. Mary E. Gartland McNulty, 24 years old, wife of Owen McNulty, died late Tuesday night at the family home, Center and Railroad streets, Swissvale, of typhoid fever. Mrs. McNulty was born in Swissvale and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gartland. She was a member of St. James' Catholic church, Wilkinsburg. She is survived by her husband, two children, her parents and four brothers and two sisters.

Judge Augustus Maxwell.

Judge Augustus Maxwell died at Marianna, near Pensacola, Fla., yesterday, at the age of 83. The remains will be interred there tomorrow. Judge Maxwell and ex-Senator Vest of Missouri were the only surviving members of the confederate senate. He served in many important positions during his life, being one of the most eminent jurists of Florida. He was born in Elberton, Ga., September 21, 1820.

Miss Lillie Johnson.

Miss Lillie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson of No. 1014 Talbot avenue, Braddock, died at noon yesterday of consumption, after an illness of several months. She was 26 years old and had many friends among the younger people. She was a member of the Bethal Swedish Lutheran congregation, Braddock.

USED A TABLE LEG.

Woman Made a Vigorous Defense Against Eviction Officers.

Eviction proceedings have been begun by the United States Steel Corporation against residents of the Bowery district in McKeesport, which was purchased by the company. Some of the property is wanted at once so that work can be started on the new tube mills, and the occupants of the property were notified some time ago to vacate.

At the home of Mrs. Mary Janowitz Constable W. J. Lauderback and an assistant were attacked with a table leg when they attempted to serve an ejectment process. The woman was arrested and fined $2 and costs. The fine was paid, but the woman immediately returned to her house, claiming she had no place to go. Three cases of a similar nature await a hearing.

Teachers Are Recommended.

At a meeting of the industrial committee of the central board of education last night the following teachers were recommended for re-election: Mabel C. Hillis, domestic science, Franklin school; Edith McDermott, domestic science, Humboldt school; E. Phillips, manual training, Franklin school, and A. D. Alexander, manual training, Humboldt school.

Arrested for Cutting a Woman.

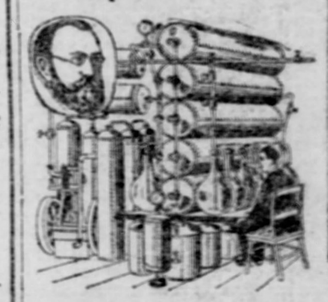
Heating Oils In the Lungs CURE Consumption and Asthma



In the great war waged by the nations against the terrible scourge of tuberculosis, the discovery and invention of the "Koch Tuberculine" by Professor Robert Koch, of Berlin, Germany, has been the most important step.
The invention by Dr. Edward Koch, of an apparatus by which the "Tuberculine," combined with healing oils, can be vaporized and breathed directly into the lungs and air passages, has completed the work of Professor Koch.
The medical world now frankly admits the value of this remedy in the cure of Consumption.
The Koch Lung Cure, operates offices and sanitariums in practically all the principal cities of this country. Hundreds of cured patients in all walks of life have given their grateful testimonials, that their fellow-sufferers may be benefited by their experience.
The only Pittsburgh office is at 321 Penn avenue. Consultation, careful examination and a trial treatment are free. If you cannot call, write for booklet containing full information and testimonials. To those who cannot take office treatment the Koch Inhalation Home Treatment can be sent.

LARGE REWARD FOR MURDERER

SUSPECT UNDER ARREST

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

LORAIN, O., May 6.—Although discouraged by the expected but almost farcical conclusion of the first chapter in the Lorain murder case, the authorities of this city and county are determined to continue their investigations and discover, if possible, the murderer of Agatha Reichlin. Large rewards will be offered for the apprehension and conviction of the man who committed the deed.

A local council of Knights of Columbus will raise a fund which will be offered as a reward. Mayor King will ask the county commissioners to offer an equal sum and in case the incentive remains insufficient to set detectives to work the Fathers of the Precious Blood and the congregation of St. Joseph's church will make a substantial contribution.

The authorities do not take much stock in the story from Sandusky, and are of the opinion that the suspect under arrest at that place could not have committed burglary in Bellevue and murder in Lorain in the space of less than three hours. It is 36 miles from Lorain to Bellevue. The first freight train leaving Lorain in the direction of Bellevue after midnight was at 12:30 o'clock. The Rev. Ferdinand Walser says the murder occurred 15 or 20 minutes after this train left. The run from Lorain to Bellevue under favorable circumstances is about two hours. The man under arrest in Sandusky somewhat answers Father Walser's description of Miss Reichlin's slayer, and he has blood on his clothes.

Father Reichlin was in Kellys Island when the murder was committed, and today he said:

"When I started for Kellys Island I was compelled to wait for a car for fully 10 minutes at the corner of Broadway and Eighth avenue. It would have been an easy matter for a burglar to have determined where I was going and to lay plans to rob the house. All the gold and silver plates of the church are kept in a safe in my sitting room. It is my theory that some one who saw me go away laid his plans on the supposition that my sister would be alone. After entering the window and disposing of my sister he probably started downstairs, when he was confronted by Father Walser."

SANDUSKY, O., May 6.—(Special.)—Father Walser stopped here a few minutes tonight, just long enough to change cars for Celina, O., where he will rest. He did not go to jail to see Frank Kennedy, the man suspected of the Reichlin murder.

John Miller, a hardware merchant of Bellaire, came here. Miller's store had been robbed between midnight Thursday and 6 o'clock Friday morning. Five revolvers and a watch were stolen. Four of the revolvers were found in second-hand stores here and the fifth was on Kennedy's person, loaded. None of the arms had ever been fired. The watch was also in Kennedy's possession when arrested.

SHOW LOVE FOR POE.

Manuscripts Dingy and Discolored With Age Cause Spirited Bidding.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—(Special.)—It was Edgar Allen Poe's day at Davis & Hervey's book auction rooms today. For a few manuscripts, all dingy and discolored, and an armful of tattered first editions, the eager bidders paid in all $6,356 50.

Trouble at the Harold Pierce library sale began this afternoon over the original manuscript of "The Bells," a roll of blue writing paper scarcely a yard in length. The manuscript, neatly written in Poe's peculiar clerical hand. It was started at $500, went up with a rush to $2,000.

The coterie of New York curios hunters were silent, but one of the party finally added $50 to be promptly met by a similar raise. "The Bells" manuscript went to George Rigby of Philadelphia for $2,100.

BARTENDER STOLE STICKPIN

Took it from Customer's Tie and Confessed Guilt, Implicating Another.

Rafaello Viccinni of No. 47 Washington street and Gievvo Riesso of No. 45 Washington street were arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing a $175 stickpin from Charles F. Markwort, a hotelkeeper of Ellwood, Pa. The pin was taken from Markwort's necktie in a downtown barber shop yesterday. Viccinni is a bartender. Viccinni denied his guilt when accused, but two detectives went to Viccinni's home, where they told his wife that her husband had sent for the pin. She promptly gave it up, and when Viccinni saw it he confessed to stealing it and implicated Riesso. Both came here from New York.

A RECEPTIVE CANDIDATE.

Mayor Johnson Not Actively Seeking to Be Governor or United States Senator.

COLUMBUS, O., May 6.—(Special.)—Harvey L. Garber of Greenville, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, today declared in this city that Tom L. Johnson is a candidate for neither the governorship nor the United States senatorship.

PROMINENT CATHOLICS HOLD ALUMNI REUNION

NEW YORK, May 6.—Archbishop Farley of New York and Monsignor O'Connell of the Roman Catholic university, Washington, D. C., were guests of honor at the annual reunion of the Alumni association of the American college in Rome, Italy, held today. The Rev. J. T. Colfey of St. Louis was elected president of the association and the next annual meeting will be held in St. Louis in March, 1904. Archbishop Farley bestowed on the members the papal blessing, which was received in response to cabled congratulations to his holiness.

PROTECTS GUARDSMEN FROM LABOR UNIONS

ALBANY, N. Y., May 6.—Gov. Odell today signed a bill designed to prevent discrimination on the part of labor unions against members of the National guard. The bill is very drastic and refers equally to labor unions or employers, making it a misdemeanor to interfere in any way with the employment of a person who is a member of the National guard on account of such membership or to dissuade a person from enlisting by threat of injury with reference to his employment, trade or business. The act is to take effect September 1, 1903.

HOMESTEAD COUPLE ENJOYED 54 YEARS OF HAPPY MARRIED LIFE

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS CARRICK.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carrick of Homestead celebrated the fifty-fourth anniversary of their wedding at their home at Fourteenth avenue and West street, Homestead, yesterday. The day was spent by the old couple in company with their nine children, 19 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Many old friends and neighbors also called to congratulate them. Mr. Carrick recited a poem entitled "If We Were Young Again." He is 77 years old. He was born in Westmoreland, England, and came to America with his parents in 1828, coming direct to Pittsburgh, where he lived until 31 years ago, when he moved to Mifflin township, and resided in Homestead and vicinity ever since. Mrs. Carrick was Miss Mary West. She was born in Pittsburgh 73 years ago.

The couple were married in the old Methodist Episcopal church at Port Perry, by the pastor, the Rev. D. A. Haines, May 6, 1849. Mr. and Mrs. Carrick are remarkably well preserved and active for their advanced years. Their nine living children are: George A., Coal Valley; Mrs. Katherine Kirkland, Homestead; Mrs. Laura Ainsworth, Homestead; William E., Homestead; John, Homestead; Mrs. Adah Morley, Homestead; Mrs. Mary E. Abers, Plum township; Mrs. Martha A. Boyd, Webster, and Thomas, Homestead.

ALL USED TO KNOW ANDREW CARNEGIE

FORTUNE FOR A WIDOW

Dr. Holland Finds Her on Behalf of the Former Steelmaster, and When Others Hear the News They Want to Participate.

Dr. W. J. Holland, director of the Carnegie museum, has discovered that there are scores of people in Pittsburgh who either befriended Andrew Carnegie when he was a struggling young man or else were intimately acquainted with the steel king at one time or another. The great interest manifest recently by these people is because of a gift that Mr. Carnegie has given to a Pittsburgh woman.

Under instructions from the philanthropist, Dr. Holland had been prosecuting a search in this city for Mrs. Ada E. Wills, widow of Charles Wills. When Mr. Carnegie was a poor railroader and superintendent of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad, Mr. Wills was a great friend of his. They drifted apart, and Mr. Carnegie lost track of Wills, who was superintendent of a wrecking crew at Pittsburgh.

In some way Mr. Carnegie learned that Wills had died and that his widow was in poor circumstances. He notified Dr. Holland to try to find her. This he did, and it was published in the newspapers on Tuesday that the woman was being sought by Dr. Holland and that he had good news for her. Seeing the story in a paper, Mrs. Wills called on the director yesterday.

Mrs. Wills was informed by Dr. Holland that Mr. Carnegie had made her a gift of a sum of money sufficient to keep her comfortably for the balance of her life. She had been employed by a Pittsburgh family and was overjoyed at her luck. The transfer of the money will be made today. Dr. Holland refused to state what sum Mr. Carnegie had given Mrs. Wills nor where she lives.

The publication of the story, however, had other effects. Dr. Holland was yesterday literally besieged by men and women who claimed that, either they or their husbands had been intimate with the steelmaster. Nearly all told hard luck stories, and asked that Mr. Carnegie be notified of their condition. That Mr. Carnegie would be only too glad to know that his friends were in need was deeply impressed upon the director. He, however, made a note of each of their names.

Woman Shot Two Men.

BAY CITY, MICH., May 6.—David Trombley, a fisherman of West Bay City, was shot and instantly killed, and Harry Schindehette was wounded last night by Mrs. Alson Roworth, of Wisner. They demanded beer and Mrs. Roworth seized a shotgun and struck one over the head several times. The gun was finally discharged.

PRESIDENT TALKS TO HIS COMRADES

TAKES RIDE IN HILLS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

GRAND CANYON, ARIZ., May 6.—Arizona welcomed President Roosevelt here today, and the welcome it gave him was a warm one. The president's train arrived at 9 a. m., and until it left at 6 p. m. he was constantly on the go. Horses were at the station, and after the president had greeted a number of members of his old regiment, he took a 12-mile ride. Then he returned to the hotel, where he made a brief address to the people and presented diplomas to the graduates of the Flagstaff school.

"It was from Arizona," said the president, in opening his address, "that so many gallant men came into the regiment that I had the honor to command. Arizona sent men who won glory on hard-fought fields, and men to whom came a glorious and an honorable death, fighting for the flag of their country. As long as I live it will be to me an inspiration to have served with 'Bucky' O'Neil.

Speaking of the grand canyon, the president said he believed it was absolutely unparalleled in the world.

"I want to ask you to do one thing in connection with it," he said. "In your own interest and the interest of all the country, keep this great wonder of nature as it now is. I hope you won't have a building of any kind to mar the wonderful grandeur and sublimity of the canyon. Keep it for your children and your children's children and all who come after you, as one of the great sights for Americans to see."

The president also extended a word of greeting to the Indians, a number of whom was in the crowd.

"Some of them were in my regiment," he said. "They were good enough to fight and die, and they are good enough for me to treat as squarely as any white man. There are a great many problems in connection with them. You have got to save them from corruption, from brutality, and I regret to say, at times we have to save them from certain eastern philanthropy." The president left for California at 6 p. m.

Millions for Filipinos.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—(Special.)—During the present week 3,000,000 silver coins will be shipped from the Philadelphia mint to Manila. Of the amount 2,500,000 will be silver pesos, and the remainder in subsidiary coins. The treasury department has already sent from San Francisco 1,200,000 pesos.

VOTED FOR AN ORGAN IN CHURCH

Second United Presbyterian Congregation Changes Old-Time Policy.

PASTOR MAY RESIGN

Young People Decided They Would Have Music and Two Meetings Resulted in Sentiment Favoring Them.

The congregation of the Second Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh, met last night in the new structure, North Negley and Stanton avenues, and by a vote of 41 to 26 decided that hereafter congregational and choir singing shall be accompanied by the strains of a pipe organ. This is contrary to the custom of the church and is against the desires of the pastor, the Rev. David S. Littell, who will probably resign as a result of the action.

For many years the Second church has remained a lone anti-organ church. There is but one other church of the denomination in Western Pennsylvania that is without an organ, this church being located at McDonald, Pa. Pastor Littell has long been opposed to having an organ in his church and when the church was located at Sixth avenue and Cherry alley no strains from the instrument were ever heard coming from within.

But when the new building was erected not long ago the younger element in the congregation desired to sing with an organ accompaniment. They got together and concerted their efforts to this end. A meeting last week ended in their favor, but a rumor that the pastor would resign caused some to reflect and a change of base was anticipated.

Last night's meeting, however, dispelled all doubts. David Blair presided and Joseph Brown acted as secretary. The Rev. Littell was not present. There were about half of the congregation in attendance, and all but six voted. After the vote the meeting adjourned and the members attended prayer meeting conducted by Dr. Littell.

Dr. Littell refused to state last night whether he would resign. He said that when the proper time comes he will make an announcement. He has been pastor of the church for about 15 years, having formerly been in charge of a church at Pigeon Creek, where he had been 24 years.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN ENGAGE IN RIOTS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

VIENNA, May 6.—Advices received here from Salonica say that, notwithstanding the fact that hundreds of Bulgarians have been arrested, street fights are constantly taking place. Women and children, especially young girls, take prominent part in these disturbances. It is asserted that bomb outrages have been planned in all the towns of Macedonia. Bombs have been discovered in houses at Uskub, European Turkey, where the Turkish population is greatly excited, fearing a massacre.

SALONICA, May 6.—An engagement is reported to have occurred at the village of Vanitza between Turkish troops and a Bulgarian band in which 60 Bulgarians, including their leader, Deltzeff, were killed, while the Turks had four men killed and three wounded. Thirty houses in Vanitza were burned.

A Bulgarian band led by Petroff has been routed at Krapesa. Seven of the Bulgarians were killed. A number of dynamite bombs were captured here and martial law was proclaimed in Salonica yesterday.

The battleships Sardegna and Francesco Morosini, the cruiser Carlo Alberto and the torpedo cruiser Calatafimi, of the Italian navy, have arrived here.

WANTS MORE DETECTIVES.

Director Moore Will Ask Councils to Double the Present Force.

It is the intention of Director Harry Moore to increase the number of officers on the detective force from 14 to 28 men. After he has completed making appointments in his department he will have an ordinance introduced in councils increasing the number of detectives. He thinks more detectives are necessary to protect the city.

Alderman James R. Connors said last night that this increase would be made as soon as Director Moore had time to have the ordinance drawn up.

Immigrants Kept on Ships.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Of 9,610 immigrants who arrived, only 5,550 were allowed to land today. Commissioner Williams said he would not allow the great tide of immigration to overwork his men further, though he has been in the habit of keeping them on duty far into the night during a big rush.

MILES DENIES CHARGE.

Letter Signed by Native Filipino Lined General Up With Anti-Imperialists.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—In a recent trial at Manila there was produced in evidence a letter taken from a Filipino and signed by a native, saying that the recent visit of Gen. Miles to the Philippines was to collect evidence to aid the cause of the anti-Imperialists.

The letter, with other evidence was published in a Manila paper. Gen. Davis sent a copy of the letter to the war department with an indorsement saying he had no doubt that the use of Gen. Miles' name was unauthorized.

The letter was referred to Gen. Miles, who returned it with the further indorsement that the view of Gen. Davis was entirely correct.

TWO ARRESTS MADE AT WILD WEST SHOW

Thomas Kirby, said by the police to be the "Chicago Kid," noted pickpocket, was arrested last night at Pawnee Bill's show in the East End, because he was mixing too freely with the crowd. Joseph Davies, an employe of the show, was also arrested, the management asserting that he was passing persons in who had not purchased tickets.

KIDNEY DISEASE IS FATAL

Blood Wine is a Wonderful Protection.

James B. Mirick.

When disease gets into the kidneys it is just as certain to take a person off as leprosy, unless it is checked before it goes too far. If people just knew the danger that lurked in diseases of these delicate organs, they would be as careful of them as they are of their eyes. People who have sound kidneys should understand how to protect and take care of them. "Blood Wine" is a sure cure of Kidney Diseases because it removes the poisons that collect in the blood through the inactivity of the kidneys.

Mr. John T. Foster of Manchester, N. H., speaks as thousands speak.

"Blood Wine" is truly a most remarkable medicine. In my case its work has been little short of a miracle. For some time I suffered with Kidney disease and Rheumatism, of a most painful and advanced type. I tried almost everything, without relief, and expected the same result from 'Blood Wine,' but fortunately for me when I struck 'Blood Wine,' I struck the Rock of Gibraltar. It stood my severe test and conquered my trouble, and today I am a well man, due wholly to this great medicine. To my mind there is absolutely nothing that will compare with it, and I have no hesitation in advising anyone in ill health to give it a thorough test."

Just read this letter from James B. Mirick, Worcester, Mass.:

"As a tonic and invigorant as well as a specific for all kidney and bladder ills 'Blood Wine' is unequaled. I have used it and do not hesitate to heartily recommend it."

Miss A. Davis, No. 186 Washington street, Boston, Mass., says:

"For kidney trouble, I believe there is nothing better than 'Blood Wine.' I have been troubled with difficulties arising from kidney disease for years, and I have used it and found nothing to compare with 'Blood Wine.'"

Mr. Daniel A. Metsel, No. 292 South Eighth street, Terre Haute, Ind., says:

"For some years past I have suffered greatly with my kidneys and rheumatism, which at times almost unfitted me for work. I heard of a few cases that 'Blood Wine' had cured and tried it. It cured me entirely. Have not had a sign of my trouble since."

FREE BLOOD TEST.

The only way to tell just what is in your blood—is to have it examined by an expert bacteriologist under a powerful microscope. You can have your blood examined free of charge by sending your name to the Louis Daudelin Co., Worcester, Mass., for full particulars.

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle.

COURT ENJOINS OMAHA STRIKERS

COMMERCE IN DANGER

It Is Thought That United States Troops Will Be Ordered Out If the Injunction is in Any Way Violated.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

OMAHA, Neb., May 6.—On petition of a number of complainants, including the principal transfer and delivery companies involved in the teamsters' strike, Judge Munger of the federal court tonight granted a temporary restraining order enjoining the officers of Team Drivers' International union, local No. 71, J. E. Crews, president; R. E. Wilcox, treasurer, and Edward Sumner, secretary, with all members of the union from doing certain acts calculated to interfere with interstate commerce, and commanding them to appear in court May 20 to show cause why a temporary injunction should not be granted.

The action of the federal court practically takes the strike out of the hands of the local and state authorities, and a violation of the order, it is believed, will result in the calling out of federal troops if necessary, to preserve the peace and enforce the order of the court.

Large crowds of strikers have gathered in different parts of the city during the day jeering the owners of wagons who themselves were driving teams, but no violence has been reported.

In their petition, the complainants recite the terms of the contract the Team Drivers' union asked them to sign, and their particular objection to that clause therein, which provided that "no teamster shall be discharged, laid off or docked in his time or pay for refusing to haul goods to or from any house for a firm declared to be 'unfair' by the labor unions," and relate instances in which by threats, intimidation and violence the strikers have interfered with their business.

It is alleged that a threat was made by one of the strikers that if Walter Jardine undertook to do business with non-union drivers he would be killed. It is further alleged that interestate commerce was interfered with when the strikers stopped goods in transit from Omaha to Council Bluffs, and from one freight depot to another in Omaha.

More than 200 of the Teamsters' union are named in the court's order, which restrains the men "from in any manner posting in or about the places of business of your orators pickets instructed or directed to challenge, stop, threaten or intimidate any of the employes of your orators, or all or any of them, from proceeding with their work and service as such employes, and from in any manner interfering with any of the employes."

LINCOLN, NEB., May 6.—Gov. Mackey today notified the employes of Omaha, who had signed an appeal to the state for protection, that he could not call out the troops until the Omaha city and Douglas county governments should notify him that they were unable to cope with the situation. The petition was signed by seven transfer companies of Omaha.

WOMEN CONTINUE WHIST CONTEST

CHICAGO, May 6.—Play in the Woman's Whist league was resumed at the Auditorium today. The contests for the Washington trophy, the Cavendish trophy, the Toledo trophy and the Philadelphia cup were continued. The top scores in the open games were: Section A, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. W. M. Newman, 11, 18-21; Mrs. E. M. Sherwill and Mrs. C. A. Warwick, 7, 2-21; Section B, Mrs. G. E. Grosvenor and Mrs. C. M. Newburger, 10, 7-11; Mrs. Clarence Brown and Mrs. E. B. Lloyd, 4, 1-11; section E, Mrs. E. H. Carter and Miss N. Latta, 8, 4-19; Mrs. N. Lighte and Mrs. E. E. Dale, 7, 15-19.

FRAUD IS ALLEGED BY INSURANCE COMPANIES

ST. JOSEPH, MO., May 6.—Suits were filed in the federal court by five insurance companies today asking that the policies of $5,000 each which were carried on the life of Eber B. Roloson of Weatherby, Dekalb county, Mo., be cancelled because they were secured by fraudulent representation, it being claimed that Roloson had consumption when the policies were issued. He carried insurance amounting to $47,500.

MACHINISTS WILL NOT ASK FOR SHORTER DAY

MILWAUKEE, May 6.—The National Machinists' convention this afternoon voted to increase the president's salary from $1,500 to $1,800 a year. According to Douglas Wilson, editor of the Machinists' Journal, who has an intimate knowledge of the intentions of the association leaders, this convention will take no vital action on a shorter work day, calculated to involve the organization in strikes with railroad or other corporations.

Chicago Bookbinders Strike.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employes of four more bookbindery firms joined the strike, making eight firms now tied up. The bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages last March. Committees representing the local union and employers were appointed and they agreed upon an advance of 20 per cent, to take effect May 1. The bookbinders asked for a further advance today and it was not granted.

Prohibitionists Name Ticket.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 6.—After a lively afternoon session, which developed several sharp tilts over the platform, the Kentucky Prohibitionists nominated a state ticket tonight. The ticket is headed by Col. T. B. Demaree for governor and O. T. Wallace for lieutenant governor.

In the Suburbs.

WEST HOMESTEAD—Council has fixed the tax levy at 9 mills.

McKEESPORT—John W. Taylor yesterday had $200 in bills stolen from his room. A bag containing $75 in silver was not disturbed.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEN WANTED FOR NEW NAVY

Gen. Tracy Appeals for Reserves to Be Called in Case of War.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—Eloquent pleas for a strong navy for the United States were made today by Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy, secretary of the navy during the administration of President Harrison, and by William McAdoo, assistant secretary of the navy in President Cleveland's cabinet.

They were the principal speakers at a meeting held in the rooms of the maritime exchange under the auspices of the Maritime Association of the Port of New York. The purpose of the meeting was to interest the public in the movement now well under way for the strengthening of the Navy League of the United States, an organization incorporated last December to array the sentiment of the nation in support of a broad policy of naval expansion.

In Germany a similar organization, which has been in existence only since 1898, has now grown to a membership of more than 600,000, and it has made it possible for the kaiser to realize his plans for a formidable German navy.

Gen. Tracy is the president of the American league and Mr. McAdoo vice president. Gen. Tracy outlined a plan which he believed to be practicable for the manning of a large navy without incurring the expense of keeping the entire force in commission perpetually. He proposed a new form of naval reserve, to be recruited largely from the ranks of ablebodied men whose regular occupations compel them to be idle during a portion of each year.

The former secretary would establish a reserve force of 50,000 men.

SHARON HAS NEW CLUB.

Organization Is Composed of Business Men and Manufacturers.

SHARON, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—The Sharon club was organized today by business men and iron and steel manufacturers. The following officers were elected: president, Alexander McDowell; vice president, John C. Owsley; secretary and treasurer, John R. Hastings, formerly of Pittsburgh; directors, Alexander McDowell, John C. Owsley, John R. Hastings, Charles F. Phillips, James A. Pierce, Alfred N. Perkins, W. G. Kranz, Charles E. Hart and R. A. Hannah. The club's headquarters will be in the Fitzpatrick building.

Happenings of a Day.

—Sixteen cases of typhoid fever, one of scarlet fever and three of diphtheria were reported yesterday.

—The Western Pennsylvania Humane society has appointed Samuel H. Richardson agent at Kittanning to succeed C. N. Henry, who died last week.

—Harry Thomas was arrested last night on a charge of stealing a $150 diamond ring from J. H. Foster, a bartender in a Wylie avenue saloon. Both are negroes.

—Joseph Moore, 23 years old, of Fourteenth street, was arrested last evening on a charge of attempting to hold up John Signer, 65 years old, of Grant street at Twelfth and Pike streets.

—Detective Philip Dommel returned from Minneapolis yesterday having in custody S. Sheridan, who is charged with having presented a forged check a month ago at the Mellon bank for $350, signed by W. H. Henchey, a broker.

—John Kerwin, a lineman aged 30 and single, of No. 4 White street, Pittsburgh, employed by the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Telephone Company, fell from a pole while at work in Sedgwick street, near Washington avenue, Allegheny, yesterday and had both ankles badly sprained and was hurt internally.

FIFTEEN HURT IN TRACTION WRECK

CAR WAS TURNED OVER

Passengers and Crew Were Badly Injured—Bombarded by Flying Glass—Wounded Taken to Their Homes in Carriages.

Running at good speed around the corner from Bryant on to Euclid avenue, North Highland car No. 202 was thrown from the track yesterday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock. The car crashed into a telephone pole, bending the iron rod almost double, smashed in the front end of the car and seats, injuring the ten occupants of the car, 7 of whom were badly hurt. The injured are as follows:

MOTORMAN JAMES MCLAREN, of No. 4059 Cypress street, cut and bruised about the head and body.

MARY ANNAWALTZ, 8-year-old niece of Miss Sweeney, same address, cut about body with flying glass.

ESTHER ANNAWALTZ, aged 6 years, another niece of Miss Sweeney, injured about head by striking against side of car.

OLIVE ANDERSON, maid of Annawaltz girls, same address, cut about head and body by flying glass.

The car was in charge of Motorman McClaren, and most of the passengers were on their way to Highland park. The car came down Bryant street, running rather swiftly, and when about to make the turn up Euclid avenue the front wheels caught in a switch, which was about half open. The car was thrown off the track violently forward.

The front end, with the motorman making every effort to jump, but prevented by the closed doors, ran squarely into the telephone pole at such speed as to bend the rod down. The car almost at a right angle. The car then lurched forward and turned on its side. The passengers within were thrown heavily forward from their seats.

Every window in the car, which was a new large one, was broken, and pieces of glass flew in all directions. The passengers were covered with it and many badly cut. Those most injured were removed to the residence of Mrs. Sarah Schultz, at Elgin and Euclid avenue, and Dr. C. S. Foster of No. 5822 Ellsworth avenue, a physician, for the Pittsburgh Railways Company, attended them. They were removed to their homes in carriages.

The wreck of the car tied up traffic for some time and parts of the car and broken glass were strewn for a distance of about 100 feet. A wreck of this kind occurred about six weeks ago, when several passengers were injured.

End to Sunday Racing.

VAILSBURG, N. J., May 6.—The common council voted tonight not to permit any more Sunday bicycle racing on the Vailsburg board track. This puts an end to the sport that has afforded amusement for thousands every Sunday during the season for many years.

LAST HOPE NEARLY GONE WHEN RESCUERS APPEAR

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—Twenty-three survivors of the crew of 28 of the French fishing brig Ile de Terre Neuve of St. Servan, France, reached here today on the German-American Petroleum Company's steamer Phoebus from Hamburg. The Ile de Terre Neuve was swept by a hurricane on April 26 and seven of her men washed overboard. Of these four were rescued and three drowned.

On the 29th the wreck was sighted by the Phoebus and the survivors were taken on board the steamer with much difficulty and the brig was set on fire.

Capt. Schierhorst of the Phoebus says that at 3 o'clock of the morning of April 2 a flare of light was sighted dead ahead, evidently a signal of distress. The Phoebus bore down and found a small dismasted sailing vessel, which proved to be the Ile de Terre Neuve, listed heavily to port, rolling frightfully, with the seas washing over her. The condition of her crew appeared dangerous and they were seen grouped on the after part of the vessel.

A lifeboat was sent to the wreck, to which a line was passed. Some of the crew jumped into the sea and were hauled one after another into the boat and brought to the steamer. When the second trip was made daylight broke and the work progressed more rapidly.

Four trips were made, the captain being the last to leave. He maintained strict discipline throughout the transfer and set fire to the wreck before leaving.

This was left to Miss McGeary, and has not been turned over to her.

"Those in charge of Recorder Brown's personal papers have refused to look for this stock. I shall insist upon this being done, in justice to the young woman."

Walter Black, the recorder's nephew and one of the beneficiaries in the will, said:

"The physicians who attended the recorder and who understood his physical condition thoroughly have attested to the cause of his death. It was not suicide. There is nothing that would indicate other than natural causes. He was not insane and never had any symptoms that would lead to the assumption of insanity.

"This procedure is uncalled for," said Mrs. Brown, referring to the searching investigation which is being made to prove the recorder insane. "I did not think that anyone doubted that his death was due to natural causes. Nothing will come of the investigation."

Members of the McLain family in McKee Place, where the recorder had made his home for a number of years, hold similar opinions. They said that they knew nothing of his business deals, and did not know what disposition he had made of money he acquired from the sale of his oil securities.

SIX NEW COLLIERIES TO BE ESTABLISHED

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company intends to increase its output of anthracite coal 25 per cent. Six new collieries with a capacity of 500,000 tons each a year, will be opened within the next two years. Five shafts have already been started and the sinking of the sixth shaft will be started soon. The new collieries will represent an investment of $100,000. One will be in the Shamokin district, another between Shenandoah and Mahanoy City and the other four south of Broad Mountain.

LOST RACE WITH THE GRIM REAPER

SUCCUMBED IN CHICAGO

Fought a Desperate Struggle With Death and Prolonged Life by Sheer Strength of Will. Laughed at Physicians.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—J. T. Toohey, an Australian brewer, died here today, but it was after a desperate struggle with death, and he remained alive almost a week by the sheer strength of his will.

Mr. Toohey was on his way from England to Australia. He knew he would never reach his native land, but he had a son in San Francisco, and he was determined to live to see his boy.

A year ago Mr. Toohey realized that the end was near. He was 67 years old and ill of consumption. He decided to visit England and consult famous specialists. They told him there was no hope and warned him that he soon would die.

He announced his intention to return to Australia. The physicians told him it was foolhardy; that he would never survive the voyage across the Atlantic. Mr. Toohey cabled his son. He told the boy to meet him at San Francisco, and to get there as quickly as possible, as it would be the last time they would meet.

The father and son started for the meeting place. All during the voyage Mr. Toohey's family thought he was dying. When New York was reached he was advised to remain there. He said he would not; that he would meet his son in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Toohey and their three daughters reached Chicago Saturday morning. The father wanted to proceed, but physicians would not allow it.

"I must get to San Francisco," he said. A few minutes before his death a telegram from the son arrived from San Francisco. It read:

"I beat you here. When will you arrive?"

The body was started on the journey to Sydney, Australia, this evening. Mr. Toohey was one of the wealthiest men in Australia.

To Relieve Polar Expedition.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 6.—Capt. Nichaus of Berlin, is now here seeking to hire or purchase a sealing steamer to proceed to the antarctic regions to relieve the German exploring expedition which was dispatched to south Polar waters from Kiel on August 11, 1901, under the leadership of Prof. Ehrich von Grygalski, on board the steamer Gauss. Capt. Nichaus is acting under the authority of the German government.

Paper Plant Burned.

MIDDLEPORT, N. Y., May 6.—The Hartland Paper Company's plant was destroyed by fire tonight. Two employes of the firm were cut off from the exits by the flames, and were forced to jump from a window into the millpond. Both were rescued. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

ROUMANIANS REFUSED TO NEGOTIATE TREATY

Hay's Note to Berlin Signatories Meant to Protect Americans Abroad.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 6.—It is shown in the diplomatic correspondence, contained in the volume of foreign relations now in press, that this government sought to negotiate a naturalization treaty with Roumania, but found the latter unwilling.

Following the rejection of the proposal of the United States that such a treaty be entered into, Secretary Hay addressed the Roumanian note to the countries party to the treaty of Berlin.

It is shown that the king flatly declined to negotiate because he, the king, "did not consider a naturalization treaty necessary," and further because he thought it would be injurious to Roumania and would complicate already troublesome questions.

Mr. Hay, in a note of instructions to Mr. Wilson, United States charge at Athens, when a naturalization treaty was being proposed, said with reference to the action of another country that the United States "can never assent that a foreign state, of its own volition, can apply a religious test to debar any American citizen from the favors due all."

JUDGMENT AGAINST TOWN.

Defiance, O., Must Pay Bonds and Compound Interest of $90,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 6.—A judgment for $90,000 against the town of Defiance, O., was granted today to John W. and Edward Schmidt of this city by the United States circuit court at Cincinnati.

The suit grew out of a deal made by the Schmidt Brothers and William Schriever with the town of Defiance about ten years ago. A bond issue of $50,000 made for the purpose of constructing a railroad bridge was bought by the Indianapolis men.

The contractor who was to do the work obtained possession of the $50,000 and defaulted. The town of Defiance repudiated the bonds. The judgment granted today allows the plaintiffs $90,000, the original investment and compound interest.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS WANT 3,000 MILE TICKET

CHICAGO, May 6.—The Federation of Commercial Travelers of American today started a movement which has for its object the authorization of a 3,000-mile interchangeable ticket good on all trains on Western Passenger association territory. A petition, signed by a large number of the wholesale merchants of Chicago and other cities in the middle west, was presented to the traffic officials of the railroads in the association.

Unions Elect President.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., May 6.—Counting of ballots cast by members of individual unions of lace curtain operatives all over the country for national officers, occupied the entire session of the national convention of this craft today. In complete figures indicate the re-election of President David L. Gould of Philadelphia.

Glove Makers Locked Out.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., May 6.—The lockout of international table cutters by the Glove Manufacturers' association of Gloversville and Johnstown occurred today. About 5,500 operatives are idle. The employes of all branches of the heavy and fine goods trade are out except in two factories.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

The Trotting Board Takes Action on a Peculiar Case.

NEW YORK, May 6.—At today's session of the National Trotting association a number of cases were disposed of. Among them was the case of Thomas D. Rees, a driver of Wheeling, W. Va., on an application for removal of suspension imposed by the Memphis Trotting association on October 25, 1902, for one year on the charge of having pulled the horse Geoffrey Rex, implied that he had driven to the best of his ability, and his suspension was removed.

The temporary reinstatements of S. H. Beers, Kingsville, Va., and J. C. Vender Johnstown, Pa., were confirmed. The application of James Healey of Milford Mills, Pa., for the removal of suspension was granted.

In the case of D. W. Cunningham, Shelby, O.; James Fogarty, Buffalo, N. Y.; F. L. Hinkston, Shelby, O., and the bay gelding Dick M., formerly Dave Hughes, Fogarty and Cunningham were expelled and the horse suspended until the entries and winnings are returned. The case against Hinkston was dismissed. This was a case of "ringing." The horse was taken from Syracuse, N. Y., to Erie, where a barber worked on him, dyed him and changed his color from a bay to a chestnut. The horse was then shipped to Shelby, O., where he was substituted for Dick M., a chestnut owned by Cunningham.

CONSTITUTION CHANGED.

Yale and Harvard Representatives Confer at Springfield.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., May 6.—An athletic conference was held today at Springfield between Walter Camp, J. B. Thomas and Mr. Duval, representatives of Yale, and R. J. Wendell, W. T. Ladenser and W. C. Clark of Harvard, relative to the dual athletic contest between the two universities.

The constitution governing this dual committee was changed so that hereafter it will not pass upon the eligibility of athletes, this question being passed under the new athletic agreement between Harvard and Yale. It was further decided that all dual meetings be held under the rules adopted by the I. A. A. A., except that one relating to officials. The officials for this year's meet will be announced later in the week.

FIRST TRIAL RACE.

The Shamrocks Will Have It Out on Friday.

GLASGOW, May 6.—The renewal of the trials of the Shamrock III. was again postponed today, owing to the inclement weather. The first set race between the two Shamrocks is expected to take place Friday, and there will be a special race over a set course in the Firth of Clyde Saturday.

Sir Thomas Lipton was much interested in the result of the Columbia-Reliance brush on Long Island Sound yesterday. He said he thought the Columbia's victory by only half an hour seemed to be a large order, but it was something to know the Columbia was ahead.

YOUNGS DEFEATS LEMMONS.

Cleveland Man Knocked Down Four Times in One Round.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—The boxing contest tonight between Joe Youngs of Buffalo, N. Y., and Harry Lemmons, featherweight champion of Cleveland, O., was a warm one while it lasted. The men were to have gone 15 rounds.

Youngs had the best of every round. In the sixth round he knocked Lemmons down four times in quick succession. The preliminary was a six-round bout between Henry Connor of New Brighton and Edward Young, colored, of Pittsburgh. Connor got the decision.

SEEKS TO KNOCKOUT INJUNCTION PROCEEDING

INDIANAPOLIS, May 6.—An effort to knock out the injunction proceedings brought against the Indianapolis baseball club to prevent the playing of Sunday ball will be made tomorrow by attorneys for the baseball management. A demurrer will be filed to the complaint which asked for the restraining order. The anti-Sunday baseball people say, if the demurrer shall be sustained, they will take their case to the supreme court.

South Chosen Captain of Reserves.

NEW CASTLE, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—The New Castle High school team will play the Greenville High school team at the latter place tomorrow afternoon. The High School Athletic association has elected Robert Watts, manager and Charles Smith captain of the second team.

WINTON CREATES A NEW AUTO RECORD

CLEVELAND, O., May 6.—Alexander Winton, in a trial run with his gasoline automobile, "Bullet No. 2," today covered a mile at the Glenville track in one minute and two seconds, or ½ second better than the world's record. Winton will enter the 200-mile race with this machine, for the Gordon-Bennett international cup, in Ireland, July 2 next.

Central League Games.

WHEELING, W. VA., May 6.—A batting rally in the eighth and ninth innings enabled Wheeling to make it three straight. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Anderson	2	6	1
Batteries—Fox and Fisher; Schoonton and Wagner.

EVANSVILLE, IND., May 6.—Wilkes had a bad inning at the start and three hits, with two bases on balls, gave a lead the locals could not overcome. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
South Bend	3	6	1
Batteries—Wilkes and Cross; Schafer and Thomas.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., May 6.—Fort Wayne proved perfected; rain.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., May 6.—(Special.)—Yale has consented to permit the University of Pennsylvania crew to enter the Yale-Pennsylvania-Cornell race next Saturday on the river Derby.

Agrees to Fight Ari Simms.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Tommy Toby has agreed to fight Al Leadsville with Ari Simms, but says he will not go south for a battle until after he has disposed of Jack O'Keefe.

KNOWS MI-O-NA WILL CURE.

Schilling Bros. Co., Penn and Frankstown Aves., Have Such Faith In This Great Dyspepsia Remedy That They Guarantee It.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell a medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Schilling Bros. Co., Penn and Frankstown avenues, the popular druggists, are selling Mi-o-na, the remarkable cure for dyspepsia.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine has cured as will Mi-o-na. People who buy a few months' treatment like it, while others who have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health, solely due to the use of this remedy.

There is no longer need of anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia, for Mi-o-na can be relied upon to cure. The percentage of cures is so nearly 100 per cent that there is little risk in Schilling Bros. & Co., Penn and Frankstown avenues, in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not cure. And they stand ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are cured by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment shows considerable gain in health and a cure speedily follows.

Remember that Mi-o-na is the only medicine for the cure of dyspepsia that is sold under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Mi-o-na Schilling Bros. & Co., Penn and Frankstown avenues, will return your money without any questions.

ALLEGES WIFE WANTS HIS LAND

Daniel L. Weller Objects to Manner in Which He Was Put Out of House.

MURDER CASE PUT OFF

United States Trying A. W. Burnett for an Alleged Bunco Endless Chain Scheme, and Karson & Co. for Fraud.

Daniel L. Weller tells of his domestic troubles and of his alleged ejectment from his home by his wife, to whom he was married many years before, in an answer. Mary J. Weller, the wife filed a petition to be declared a femme sole trader. The couple were married December 26, 1865, and separated July 4, 1900. On January 31, 1901, Weller declares, he received the following self-explanatory notice from his wife:

Mr. D. C. Weller:

Your furniture and everything which belongs to you that was in my house you will find outside in the yard, and you can come and get it whenever you wish, and after that I expressly forbid you to come in my house on any pretext.

M. J. WELLER.

Weller declares that for 20 years previous to this he and his wife had lived at Canonsburg, Washington county, on the property of Elisa J. Gaston, and that during this time he expended $2,000 for improvements upon it, with the understanding that at Mrs. Gaston's death her property was to go to him and his wife. At Mrs. Gaston's death the will was contested and the case was carried to the supreme court. The result was that the will was held valid, and that Mrs. Weller's interest amounted to about $10,000.

OBJECT OF THE PETITION.

Weller says that he purchased other real estate with his own money and that it is in his wife's name; that he believes it is not her intention to engage in any trade, but that she filed the petition to deprive him of his interest in the real estate.

In criminal court the trial of William Young on a charge of murder was postponed owing to the absence of witnesses. Young is accused of having killed an Italian in a fight following the robbery of an Italian shanty near McKeesport.

In the United States district court A. W. Burnett, charged with using the mails in pursuance of a scheme to defraud, was on trial. He is charged with conducting a swindling game in Altoona under the names of The Home Supply Company and The Harrison Manufacturing Company, which advertised for "home workers."

GAVE UP THE FIGHT.

Edward A. and Paul Kemerer, charged with using the mail in furthering a scheme to defraud, entered pleas, the former of guilty and the latter no defense.

William R. Connor, charged with swearing falsely to a pension claim, pleaded guilty.

The grand jury completed its work and was discharged. True bills were: George B. White, formerly of Hyndman, misapplying funds of a national bank; George B. White and S. I. Stryker, making false entries in a report to the comptroller of the currency and misapplying the funds of a national bank; Frank Reynolds (2), altering a money order.

The Charles W. Huff Company, against which a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by the Commercial National bank, the Keystone Lumber Company and the First National Bank of Crafton, yesterday filed its schedule of liabilities and assets. The former aggregate $44,804 and the latter $60,712 80; $14,355 appears as secured claims and $29,788 20 as unsecured.

Charles W. Huff of Ingram, the president of the bankrupt company, filed his petition in bankruptcy yesterday. His liabilities are given as $18,003 27 and assets $44,246 30.

Finkelstein & Maaget, merchants of New York, have filed a petition in the bankruptcy proceeding against the Edmundson-Perrine Company, asking for an order on the receiver directing him either to pay for or return a bill of goods delivered to the bankrupt firm by the petitioners valued at $1,081. The petition sets forth the goods were sent on approval only, and if accepted were to be paid for at once.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Ross W. Black took out letters of administration on the $1,800 estate of Dora Mentz. Attorneys Frank Gosser and L. B. Cook represent the administrator.

Dr. J. V. Harsha sued the city of McKeesport for $10,140 for medical attention to 1,014 patients for three months. It is this bill that the city controller refused to countersign a warrant for.

The will of Margaretta Thoma was filed. The estate is worth $12,000. Five hundred dollars each is left to the St. Philomena German Roman Catholic church and the St. Joseph's Orphan asylum. The children of Ludwig Kohler of Germany are left $1,000 and the balance of the estate is left to Sebastian Kohler and Christina Eisenbaum.

A suit growing out of an unusual claim was entered by John T. O'Rourke against the bureau of health of Stowe township. The action was brought to recover for the use of his house as a hospital and for the services of himself and wife during a smallpox epidemic from December 20 to February 9 last. Three hundred dollars is asked.

LATE SEASON ATTRACTIONS.

Two More Theaters Will Close Next Week—Excellent Programs Are Offered.

William Faversham made an extraordinary record in "Imprudence" in New York, playing to as large audiences as the Empire theater could accommodate and scoring so complete a hit at each performance that everybody left the Empire captivated and delighted by his acting, and enthusiastic over the brilliancy and sparkle of the Esmond comedy. Mr. Faversham and his company will present "Imprudence" at the Alvin theater next week.

The farewell week of the season at the Grand opera house will possess many elements of attractiveness. It will not only mark the last appearance of the present stock company, but also the last performances to be given in the present Grand opera house building prior to its demolition to make room for the widening of Diamond alley. Manager Davis is determined to make the event a notable one. The delightful comedy of the Arden Forest, "As You Like It," will be given with all of the members of the stock company in the cast. Souvenir photographs will be given at the matinees, while the different players will hold their receptions at the evening performances.

In organizing the "Smart Set," which is to be the attraction at the Bijou next week, commencing Monday afternoon, the manager has had an eye for beauty as expressed by African nature, an ear for music and a keen sense of the popular taste. He made his selections for the cast of this three-act comedy with a view to giving the theater-goer a peep at the methods of "coon" art.

Judging from early indications, the Hagenbeck trained animal show will have a prosperous engagement at the Empire. Business promises so well in fact that Manager McCullough has arranged to retain this attraction for another week—the last of the season.

That daring bicycle rider, Tony Castellane, known as the "Little Demon," will be a feature at the Avenue family theater next week. This intrepid youth has met with a number of serious accidents, but, undaunted, he has stuck to looping the loop until he is now able to present one of the most startling feats ever witnessed. In addition this novel feature Manager Davis will offer a program of 15 acts.

Manager Williams of the Academy offers as his next week's attraction the "Tiger Lilies," a new organization in the field of burlesque, under the management of Will N. Drew of the Star theater, Cleveland.

Burton Holmes will give the last lecture of his present season at Carnegie hall, Pittsburgh, at 8:15 o'clock Monday evening and in Allegheny at the same hour Tuesday evening at Carnegie hall, the subject being "Norway II., the Land of the Midnight Sun." Those who traveled through the five great fjords with Mr. Holmes last week cannot but realize the magnificent photographic possibilities which were made the theme by Mr. Holmes in this land of scenic grandeur.

Blacksmiths Won Strike.

The 18 blacksmiths and helpers employed by the Pittsburgh Trolley Pole Co., No. 117 Water street, went on strike Wednesday evening for an advance. The blacksmiths were getting $3 a day and the helpers $1 70. They wanted $3 25 and $1 80 respectively. All returned to work yesterday with their demands granted.

They have joined the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths. This organization has been in existence in Pittsburgh only since February 1, but there are now five locals here and they will hold a convention in Pittsburgh July 1, at which a scale will be drawn up.

STUDENTS MADE THINGS LIVELY

THEY HAD HAND ORGANS

Teachers Refused to Allow Boys to See a Parade, so They Played "Hook" and Had a Good Time.

About 100 schoolboys played "hook," banded together and "pitched in" enough money to hire three hand organs and various other noise-making devices, startled part of the East End with their pranks and shocked the teachers and amused the students at a girls' school by their ragtime serenade. The parade of Pawnee Bill's wild west show yesterday was the cause. The culprits have something coming to them—something in the line of discipline. In some cases it will come from two quarters—from the teachers and from the parents of the celebrants.

The boys are students of the fashionable East Liberty academy and of the Lincoln, Sterret, Friendship, Shakespeare and Highland public schools. The boys attending the public schools were dismissed at 10 o'clock that they might witness the parade. At the East Liberty academy, however, the principal, the Rev. Emil Lewey, informed the boys on Tuesday that they were not to see the parade.

But 48 of the boys thought different and took things in their own hands and did not report at the usual time, nor at any time during the day. These boys, it is said, were the ringleaders in the pranks that astonished the fashionable residents of the East Liberty district.

About 100 got together and by making a purse secured enough to charter three hand organs from Italians. With these they marched up and down several streets, stopping every now and then to play a tune on the organ. Shortly before noon all the marauders drew up in front of the Pennsylvania College for Women, in Fifth avenue, and serenaded the fair young women scholars.

President Chalmers Martin appeared on the scene and ordered the boys off. They would not go until threats of arrest had been made. The aggregation disbanded about noon and returned the hand organs to their owners. Most of them did not see the parade.

Dr. Lewey stated yesterday afternoon that the 48 students of his school would be disciplined for their misbehavior. He said that they would be compelled to make up the time lost through their pranks, and in all probability much more. It is likely the boys of the other schools will be similarly punished.

BIG PROFITS MADE IN WOOD STREET

Willis McCook Sells No. 518 for $130,000, Netting Him $55,000.

ST. JAMES GETS A SITE

Attorney Willis F. McCook has sold his property at No. 518 Wood street, to Joseph Jones of the Pittsburgh Drygoods Company, for $130,000 cash. Liggett & Goehring handled the seller's end of the transaction, and H. C. Mendel & Co. of Allegheny acted for the buyer. The property has a frontage of 21 feet on the east side of the street, between the Farmers bank building and Virgin alley, and a depth of 60 feet, and is improved with a three-story brick building. At the price paid the property stands the purchaser $6,190 a front foot, or $163 17 a square foot. The sale is another striking example of how values have advanced downtown. Mr. McCook bought the property in February, 1901, for $75,000, so that the present sale nets him $55,000, on an investment of a little over two years. No information was given as to what disposition will be made of the property, although it is reported that the purchase was made for a bank.

WILL HAVE A FINE CORNER.

St. James Protestant Episcopal church has bought from Miller & Miller, attorneys, a site for its new church, at the northeast corner of Kelly and Collier streets, Twenty-first ward, for $18,900 cash. The deal was made by George A. Brooks, who is with Cella & McClelland. The lot measures 270x150 feet, making the price $70 a foot for the Kelly street frontage. Plans for the new church, which will cost with the ground $75,000, have been prepared by Architects Carpenter & Crocker and it is expected that the building will be completed by Christmas of this year.

Two sales of Wilkinsburg property were made yesterday at prices that show a steady advance in values. A. J. Puffinburg sold to A. J. Darrah, through the agency of R. S. Marshall of the East End, one of the Freeman apartment buildings on the east side of West street, near Penn avenue, for $16,000. The flat is a three-story brick building on lot 40x80 feet, and was erected by Mr. Freeman last year. Mr. Puffinburg bought the property a few months ago for $12,500.

George H. Thomas was the buyer in the other deal, the consideration being $17,000. The property is known as the Benner lot and measures 183x200 feet, on the south side of Penn avenue, near Wood street. The lot is improved with a two-story brick store and dwelling.

BUILDING IN THE ASHES.

H. L. Kreusler has the contract for the new plant of the Thomas Carlin's Sons Company, which will be erected on the site of the one recently burned in Allegheny, opposite Herrs island. The building will be a three-story brick and steel, slow burning construction structure and will cost $35,000.

Architect C. M. Bartberger is receiving estimates on the warehouse of the Bailey-Farrell Manufacturing Company, to be erected at the corner of Fourth avenue and Ross street, at a cost of about $175,000. The building will measure 72x100 feet and will be eight stories high and strictly fireproof.

John Semple, Jr., has sold to Edna R. Patterson a brick house, on lot 30x100 feet, on the southeast side of Pacific avenue, near Harriett street, Twentieth ward, for $3,100.

Through the agency of Thomas McCaffrey P. J. Young has sold to Thomas Spellman an irregular-shaped property measuring about 45x80x60 feet, at the corner of Virtue avenue and Green street, Eleventh ward, for $10,000. The lot is improved with five brick houses and one frame house.

WILL SELL MONESSEN LOTS.

The Consolidated Real Estate Company has just been appointed exclusive agent for a choice plan of lots at Monessen. The property is owned by the East Side Land Company of Monessen and will be provided with all the usual improvements. It comprises about 400 lots, ranging in value from $400 to $1,500, the total valuation of the tract being $250,000. It adjoins the borough of Monessen on the north, making it very easy of access.

Through the Real Estate Trust Company David P. Black has bought from the Security Investment Company a lot, 20x200 feet, facing the present holdings on the north side of Penn avenue, near Murtland avenue, for $6,500, or $325 a front foot. The lot was bought to round out his grounds upon which a $60,000 residence is now being erected.

Wilkinsburg: R. S. Farts & Co. sold for M. W. Landson to John H. Dash a frame house on lot 53x132 feet, on the south side of South avenue, near Swissvale avenue, Wilkinsburg, for $3,500.

Walker place: George T. McDonald sold for the Waller Place Land Company to M. O. Coggins, two lots 30x120 feet each, in Vernon avenue, Allegheny, for $1,600. He also sold to A. L. Braun one lot of the same size in the same street for $800. These are the first sales made in Walker place, and both the purchasers contemplate improving their properties with handsome houses.

SALES UP THE VALLEY.

East Pittsburgh: Through the agency of V. H. Semmens the following sales have been made this week: To W. C. Harvey a lot 25x110 feet, in Braddock avenue, East Pittsburgh, for $2,500; to E. C. Harvey a similar lot in the same street, for $2,250; to George W. Snyder, a similar lot in the same street, for $2,875; to Joseph Pandullo, a dwelling, for $4,000. He also sold to S. S. Waters a lot 25x110 feet, in Penn avenue, Turtle Creek, for $3,750.

Braddock: Gwaltney & Kelly sold for Attorney F. J. Small to Bixler Bros. a lot 40x150 feet, in Corey avenue, Braddock, for $2,000; for A. W. Mellon to the A. O. H. of Braddock, a lot 90x110 feet, in Washington avenue, near Braddock avenue, Braddock, for $1,000, being an advance of $1,800 on the property in one week. They also sold for H. C. Miller to Anton Futer two frame houses on lot 30x120 feet, in Talbot avenue, Braddock, for $5,000. Also for Mc-Bride Bros. to L. Arcaro a frame store and dwelling on lot 30x117 feet, in Margaretta street, Braddock, for $3,500.

Ivanhoe: Taylor & Moore of Coraopolis, Pa., sold for T. Busbman to Timothy Murray, lot 25x100 in Conelift avenue, Ivanhoe, for $300.

The Twin City Improvement Company sold to John Bender a lot 21x45 feet, improved, on the south line of Elizabeth street, Twenty-third ward, for $3,050.

C. H. Miller & Co., three brick dwellings Mellon, Wellsley and Portland streets, Nineteenth ward, $18,000.

G. G. McAleese, addition to dwelling, 258 Forty-fourth street, Seventeenth ward, $1,625.

NO TRACE FOUND OF MISSING GEORGE WALLS

Martin Walls of East Pittsburgh, has made another unsuccessful attempt to find his 23-year-old son, George Walls, who disappeared over a year ago. Mr. Walls again went to Rouse Grove, near York, Pa., but could not find a trace of his missing offspring. George Walls was a mechanical engineer employed by William B. Scaif & Sons of Pittsburgh.

DENTAL FREE WORK
JUST to introduce my new gauze Aluminum Plate—an entirely new method of making full sets of teeth—I make this most liberal offer. For one month I will make no charge for Dental work. Time is the item dentists charge most for. I will simply ask you to pay for dental material used. A word about my new gauze aluminum plate. It is the lightest material ever used in plate construction and gives perfect ease and comfort to the mouth. In fact it is a revelation to the dental world.
FINEST EQUIPPED DENTAL ESTABLISHMENT IN AMERICA
I GUARANTEE TO GIVE YOU BETTER DENTAL WORK THAN ANY OTHER DENTISTS WHO CHARGE HIGH PRICES.

I GIVE A 25-YEAR GUARANTEE OF ALL MY FULL SETS OF TEETH.
I can truthfully state that I have the finest and most completely equipped dental establishment in America. No expense has been spared—everything modern and up-to-date. All dental instruments thoroughly sterilized, thus avoiding danger of contracting decayed tooth poison.
MY METHOD OF PAINLESS EXTRACTING
Is a decided innovation in dental practice—being used by myself exclusively.
GOLD CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK—This branch of dentistry has been one of my special hobbies and I pride myself in the fact that I have yet to meet one dissatisfied patient. I execute Bridge Work (teeth without plates) in a manner that gives the teeth so natural an appearance as to deceive the most critical eye. I can save broken and decayed teeth by crowning them at very nominal expense.

PITTSBURGH FIRM TAKES RAILROAD CONTRACT WORTH OVER $2,000,000

A Pittsburgh firm has just been awarded the largest contract given in many years by the Michigan Central railroad. The Patton & Gibson company were the successful bidders, and the value of the contract is between $2,000,000 and $2,500,000. The work to be done is the masonry and grading of 15 miles of new double track railroad between Kalamazoo and Lawton, Mich. The work includes several stone arch bridges and some deep cuts, one at the main summit being about 120 feet deep. There are no tunnels. About 2,000,000 yards of material will be excavated.

Work will be started immediately. The time required for its completion will not relapse until January 1, 1905.

Between Kalamazoo and Lawton the Michigan Central now has a single track line, with many curves and very irregular grades. The new work will take out both east and westbound irregular and heavy grades, and give uniform grades of 20 feet to the mile. In addition 185 degrees of curvature are removed.

TALKED ON CONDITIONS.

Freight traffic officers of the whole Pennsylvania system to the number of about 80 are in Pittsburg at the annual convention of their association. The meeting opened yesterday morning at the general offices of the Pennsylvania lines west in the Union station building.

Plans for uniformity in the handling and improvements of the service are discussed at the meetings. Those attending this year's meeting are:

D. T. McCabe, Pittsburgh, president; J. B. Thayer, Jr., Philadelphia, vice president; Joseph Richardson, Philadelphia, secretary; W. H. Joyce, George D. Dixon, J. G. Searles, F. D. Howell, C. H. Cobb, Joseph Richardson, J. E. Payne, Walter Thayer, W. H. Howell and Jefferson Justice, Philadelphia; J. P. Orr, J. B. Hill, S. L. Seymour, E. P. Bates, C. F. Perkins, J. J. Koch, J. D. Lippincott, J. T. Demaston and E. B. Wright, Pittsburgh; George T. Smith, W. J. Rose, T. C. Pollock and C. P. Nye, New York; W. E. Fraser, Williamsport; R. C. Wright, Harrisburg; G. D. Ogden, Altoona; W. H. Drayton, Jr., Baltimore; C. E. Kingston, Wilmington, Del.; E. T. Johnston, Buffalo; William Coffin, Camden, N. J.; J. A. Ackley, Boston, Mass.; A. P. Langdon, Harrisburg; R. B. READY FOR THE RUSH.

Improvement Work Out of Way, the Bessemer's Season Starts.

The Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad improvement work for the present year has been entirely stopped, all that part outlined for use in the rush season having been completed. New work on the Bessemer must be done in the winter when there is no ore movement.

The facilities of the road for handling traffic have been much enlarged during the winter. The Bessemer expects to handle this season about 25 per cent more ore than last season, which broke all records.

General Manager on Inspection.

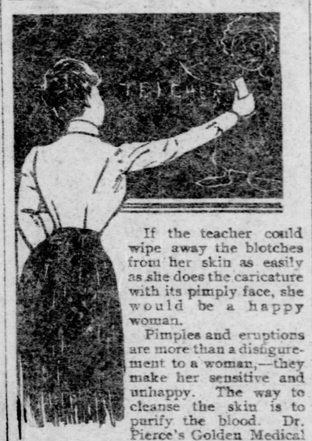
General Manager W. W. Atterbury of the Pennsylvania railroad, General Superintendent G. W. Creighton of the main line, and a large number of other officials spent a couple of hours here yesterday as a part of an inspection trip now under way. They went east over the West Penn division. At Springdale or in that vicinity the Pennsylvania plans to construct large yards to prevent any future freight congestions.

Railroad Notes.

The tremendous shipment of material to the Warwick furnaces has resulted in the effectual blockade of the Pennsylvania lines in and about Pittsburg. Orders have been issued to send no more freight there until conditions are relieved.

E. Doul, commercial agent of the Illinois Central at Pittsburgh, has been granted a three months' leave of absence on account of illness. Walter E. Dowling has been transferred from Cincinnati to look after the company's freight interests here for the time.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling, now a part of the Baltimore & Ohio, has filed two amendments to its charter. One permits it to build through Bellaire, O., to connect with the Baltimore & Ohio and the other to build a branch from Sheffield township, Lorain county, O., to the lake at the mouth of the Black river.



If the teacher could wipe away the blotches from her skin as easily as she does the caricature with its pimply face, she would be a happy woman.
Pimples and eruptions are more than a disfigurement to a woman,—they make her sensitive and unhappy. The way to cleanse the skin is to purify the blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood, and removes the clogging accumulations and poisons which corrupt it. When these are removed, pimples, boils, eruptions, sores, and other consequences of impure blood are entirely cured.
"For about one year and a half my face was very badly broken out," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 115 West Main St., Battlecreek, Mich. "I spent a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received no benefit. At last I obtained a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Before I had taken one bottle of this medicine I noticed a change, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I can well recommend Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one similarly afflicted."

TODAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

Cincinnati at Exposition Park.
Boston at Brooklyn.
Chicago at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at New York.

There probably never has been a ball game played here that had such a heart-breaking finish as the one at Exposition park yesterday, which was won by the Chicago team 11 to 4. Until the ninth inning it looked like another step toward the pennant for the Pirates, but in the last round there was a loud noise, not unlike the explosion of a battery of boilers, and when the smoke had cleared away it was found that the visiting team had snatched victory right out of the jaws of defeat and had sent the Pirates back into second place.

That ninth inning was one of those things sometimes read about, but very seldom seen. The Pirates had trotted out on the field with a "hurry-up-and-let's-get-it-over" expression on their faces, and there was a look of confidence on each countenance, because Deacon Phillippe was doing the pitching and up until that fatal inning had been doing it well. In the first two innings the visitors had scored a run as a result of four hits, a stolen base and a passed ball, but for the next six innings they were as mere puppets in the hands of the deacon; not a hit being made and not a runner getting further than first base.

Quite a few of the 2,400 spectators, thinking it was all over but the shouting, started for their homes and they will be sorry for their hasty action today. Even the Chicago players had about given up all hope and were about to pack up their bats when the change came. Harley, who was first up, sent the ball to right for a single and Slagle followed with a two-bagger to left on which Harley scored. This sudden streak of batting had a reviving effect on the visitors and they began to whoop and yell.

Phillipe at this point took on a serious look, and Manager Clarke's rallying cry of "get in the game" was lost in the air or drowned by the joyous shouts of the Chicago players. Even Bob Wicker, who had been a Pirate victim of Tuesday, got out on the coaching line and laughed in high glee. Chance's single to center scored Slagle with the tieing run. That gave the visitors another chance to shout, but when Jones reached first in safety they fairly danced with joy. Tinker's infield single filled the bases and Evers cleared them with a three-bagger to left.

The spectators were at first inclined to take the matter seriously, but when Chicago got six runs over the plate their seriousness was turned into laughter over the discomfiture of the champions. Just to keep a good thing going, Kling placed a two-bagger in right, scoring Evers with the seventh run. Taylor was the first out of the inning, and Harley also proved a victim, but the fun was not over yet, as Slagle's single scored Kling, and "Shorty" stole second and scored the ninth and last run on Chance's single to left.

The people who were hunting around for excuses could find none, because the Pirates had not played loose ball nor was there a slip-up of any kind. It was just a good, healthy batting rally, every hit being as safe as a whistle; nothing flunky about them at all. Neither had there been any let-up in Phillippe's pitching, for the deacon whizzed the ball over the plate with the same speed and cunning he had successfully used in the earlier innings. The Chicago players had found their batting eyes and that's all there was to it.

Taylor, who pitched for the visitors, was steady and effective at all times. The Pirates got their first run in the second inning on a single by Kruger, a double by Ritchey and Smith's out at first. Another came in the third on Clarke's infield single, an out at first and Wagner's single to left. Two more were made in the sixth on a base on balls to Kruger, singles by Ritchey and Beaumont and a very wild throw by Chance in an effort to catch Kruger at third. These four runs looked as big as a mountain until the ninth inning was reached, and that put an end to the Pirates' jollification. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The pitchers in today's game will likely be Harper, who Kelley has been saving up to put against the Pirates, and Kennedy. It will be Kennedy's first appearance on the home grounds.

Beaumont was guilty of lack of interest when he allowed himself to be caught off first in the sixth inning. Had he been watching the pitcher, as was his duty, he would not have become a victim.

Manager Clarke's strike-out in the first inning was the result of carelessness on the part of the Pirate leader. Clarke was evidently counting his cash when Taylor sneaked a good one over on him and he was forced to strike without taking aim. Fred's display of temper was the best evidence that he was angry at himself for setting such a bad example for his fellow players.

Harley singled and stole second was the byword in the scorer's box yesterday. Richard turned the trick in the first and ninth innings. Both steals were clean-cut and the fielder never had a chance to catch him, although Catcher Smith's throw was accurate each time. When Harley first appeared at bat Umpire Holliday handed him a neatly wrapped package, but its contents remained a secret, as Harley refused to open the box.

Joe Kelley and his team of Reds will be here today to open up their first series of games on the local grounds. The Reds got a bad start in the pennant race, but they have rounded too in fine shape and are now putting up a fast game, both in the field and at bat. Kelley and his crew are sore at the Pirates for taking the opening series from them and the coming games will likely be lively affairs.

Tommy Leach drew a laugh from the crowd in the fifth inning by a clever display of base work. Clarke was on first and Tommy, who was at bat, pushed a sacrifice down toward first, which Chance gathered in. Tommy was headed toward first, but stopped suddenly and started toward home plate with Chance in full pursuit. Leach was touched out near the home plate, but his quick wit gave Clarke plenty of time to reach second.

Prior to that awful ninth inning the Chicago players were a defeated looking lot of players. They could not solve philippe's curves and the score was 4 to 2 against them. Then came the batting streak which served as an elixir of life, and in a few minutes it would have been hard to find a jollier lot of mortals than that same Chicago crowd. They shook hands with each other, patted each other on the back, in fact, they acted like a lot of crazy men, and there was good cause for it.

In the fourth and fifth innings the Chicago players got after Umpire Holliday for his alleged failure to call strikes on Kruger and other batters. The protests they entered were both loud and long and it must be admitted there was some cause for the display. The loudest protests came from Shortstop Tinker, who was silenced by a threat to put him out of the game. The entire display reflected on the umpire, as it demonstrated that he has not control over the players.

After the game was over there were some people inclined to blame Phillippe for an alleged let-down in the ninth, thinking he had the game won, but such was not the case. There was no let-up in Phillippe's speed and he worked the same curves he had used all along, but the Chicago batters had got their eye on the ball and went up to the bat full of confidence. It was one of those peculiar streaks which happens to the best of pitchers and there's simply no way of explaining it.

RUBE WADDELL ARRESTED.

Quarrels With Draymen and Is Taken to Police Station But Later Released.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—Rube Waddell, the well-known pitcher, was in sufficient difficulty this afternoon to land him in the Central police station, but his name was of sufficient eminence to secure his release without the customary ten days' notice. The excitement "Rube" was causing Market street at Ninth this afternoon when a team of horses came too close to him for comfort or safety. He reached up his mighty left that has twirled the leather sphere so successfully and grasped the horses' heads.

This action irritated the two men driving the team, and hot words ensued. Soon afterward the little session on the street became pretty warm, and a policeman arrested all three. They were sent to city hall. They were placed in the prisoners' pen, but were not stood in the dock to face the magistrate.

A Market street dealer in "high balls" whispered a few words in Magistrate Kochersperger's ear, and Rube was taken from the "box" and put on the bench. After the trio's version of the affair and mutual explanations, all three men were discharged.

READY TO OPEN.

Brighton Country Club Golfers Will Begin Playing Saturday, as Will Tennis Players.

The golf course at the Brighton Country club will be opened on Saturday by a handicap tournament for a cup, best score for 18. The tennis courts will open same day.

The Brighton Country club is one of the newer organizations, having but recently completed its first year, which was very satisfactory from every standpoint. A great interest is taken in golf and tennis, while the receptions and dances given during the summer, fall and winter were enjoyed by the large membership. The building of a large addition is now contemplated, addition to be 40x60 feet, to contain on the first floor, billiard and pool rooms and bowling alleys; the second floor to be a large assembly hall.

The grounds are those formerly occupied by the Allegheny Country club, and are the most accessible in the city, being located near the car lines on California avenue and Brighton road, Allegheny. The house and grounds immediately surrounding are leased to the club for five years.

RESERVE TEAM BEATEN.

Pittsburgh High School Players Drop Loose Game to Braddock High School.

The Braddock High school won from the Pittsburgh High school reserve team yesterday afternoon at Friendship park, 12 to 2. It was an even game up to the sixth inning, when the Pittsburgh players went to pieces and let in four runs, principally through wild throws. Braddock then got five runs in the seventh and two in the eighth innings.

The second base playing of Ralston of the Reserves was one of the features, he accepting all his chances. In the fifth inning he retired the side on outs. Score:

VERY QUIET DAY SPENT BY THE SCHOOL PLAYERS

West Virginia Leaves Tonight on Eastern Trip—Homestead Gets Halings.

There was not one interschool baseball game yesterday of any importance and as a result the players at the different schools practiced, while some made it a day of rest. The East Liberty academy players, after winning from Allegheny High school Tuesday took it easy and the Allegheny tossers refused to practice.

Capt. Steve Dravo had his Shadyside academy players out for two hours practicing. Shadyside is scheduled to play the Mercer academy nine at Mercer Saturday. Westminster, Geneva and Washington and Jefferson last Saturday, 8 to 6, which goes to show that the northern students are strong. "Red" Youngson will not play with Shadyside Saturday and Chanle Ahl will hold down the box. Ahl, who can play either the infield or outfield in pinches, was practicing the position yesterday. Brooks will pitch against Mercer, but Youngson will be on the rubber next Thursday against East Liberty academy. Dravo wants to save Brooks for the games later in the week.

The Elders Ridge team will be at Friendship park tomorrow afternoon to play the Pittsburgh High school team. This will be Elders Ridge's first visit to Pittsburgh this season. Capt. "Midget" Spuhler of the Pittsburgh team will very likely pitch Henning against the visitors. The threatened shake-up in the outfield was not made by Spuhler for the reason that the men whom he intended to bench braced up in their work.

The University of West Virginia nine will leave for the east tonight, playing at Baltimore, Annapolis, New York and Yale. West Virginia's pitchers will be James Smith, the Allegheny boy; Cunningham and Grominger. Smith is pitching nine ball and will not work again on the rubber he will alternate in left with Grominger. "Buck" Kenney of last year's Pittsburgh High school team is playing short on the team.

Tom Hulings of the Wheeling-Canton aggregation last year will report to Manager Howard M. Risher at Homestead before the end of this week. Risher received a letter from Hulings, who said that he has been playing with the Zanesville-Cambridge team, but would report to Homestead. Hulings is a first-baseman, but he will be put in right field to take the place of Coleman, who was released. Hulings is quite a hitter.

TWO RECORDS BROKEN AT THE IRWIN TOURNEY

Delaware Shooter Won High Gun and Made a Fine Record. Fleming Was Second.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

IRWIN, PA., May 6.—The two days' tournament of the Eastern Pennsylvania Trap Shooters' league ended this evening with two records broken—one in point of attendance at a like event—60 individual marksmen having faced the trap during the two days, the other was breaking the tournament record of targets. After the old record of 7,000 a day being broken on Tuesday, when 8,010 targets were thrown.

The feature of today's shoot was the fine work of Sculler of Wilmington, who was high gun for the day and the meeting. Today he only missed six out of 150 and had the remarkable run of 75 straight. On the two days he made a total of 272 out of 300. Fleming of Pittsburgh was not far behind. Yesterday he was high gun, with 100 out of 125. Today he made 167, while Sculler hit 168 to Fleming's 165, making of the targets behind the former on the two days' shoot. Denker of Ruffdale was third on the two days' shoot, with 318 out of 350. KNOX BEGINS TRAINING.

A. P. S. Crack Works With Pittsburgh High School Candidates.

Will Knox, the Allegheny Preparatory school crack athlete, began training for the coming school meets yesterday afternoon at Friendship park. He was the only Prep. representative out yesterday, and he practiced with the Pittsburgh High school candidates.

Considering the fact that it was his first appearance in a pair of spiked shoes this spring, he showed up to good advantage. He ran the dashes with Harper of the Pittsburgh team and held his own, finishing in each event without being in any apparent distress. He also practiced the pole vault.

WESTMINSTER DEFEATED IN EXCITING CONTEST

WASHINGTON, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—Washington and Jefferson won its seventh game here this afternoon, defeating Westminster, 9 to 8. The contest was the most exciting of the year on the local grounds and was well played in most instances. Ridgefry pitched six innings for the local team, but was not very effective and was relieved by Nelson, who pitched a fine game. Score:

NEWS OF THE HOME AND THE SOCIETY WORLD

SOCIETY WOMEN'S CLUBS WOMEN'S CORNER

SEVERAL relatives and friends went east to attend the wedding yesterday of Miss Gertrude Lavelle Foin of Hanover, York county, Pa., and William Halsey Moorhead of Pittsburgh. The marriage was solemnized at noon at the home of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Foin, the Rev. P. J. Crane of St. Joseph's Catholic church officiating. Miss Anna B. Lavelle of Torresdale, Pa., was the maid of honor, and Rodman Wister Moorhead and James King Scott of Pittsburgh were groomsmen.

Immediately after the wedding breakfast the bride and bridegroom left for Atlantic City. In about 10 days they are expected to arrive in Pittsburgh and will be the guests of Mrs. Maxwell K. Moorhead at her home in Ellsworth avenue, Shadyside. Mr. Moorhead is a grandson of the late Maxwell K. Moorhead and has made his home with Mrs. Moorhead for many years. His sister, Mrs. Bruce Millard, who before her marriage was Miss Marie Heberton Moorhead, one of the most popular of the debutantes of a few seasons ago and whose engagement followed a few months after her debut, was at the wedding with Mr. Millard. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Heberton were also in attendance.

Mr. Moorhead is a student at the Passavant Medical college, in Chicago, and will take his bride to that city, where they will make their home, at least until he completes his medical studies. Their visit to Pittsburgh in a couple of weeks will be made the occasion of a round of handsome family entertainments in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Millard will be home this morning.

Dinner for the Bridal Party.

An informal dinner was given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. John Caldwell in honor of Miss Mary E. Brown and Horace Moorhead, whose marriage will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Brown, in Penn and Lexington avenues, Homewood. The dinner, which preceded the rehearsal, was given at the home of Mrs. Caldwell in Edgewood park. Covers were laid for 20, and the guests included the attendants and a few friends.

The wedding this afternoon will be quietly conducted. Nevertheless, the appointments will be very handsome. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. William J. Holland, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Fulton. The bride will be attended by her two sisters, Miss Margaret B. Brown and Miss Elizabeth R. Brown. John R. Moorhead, Jr., will be his brother's best man and the ushers will be Dr. Walter Riddle, Harvey Thompson, Norman Woolridge and Frank DeLong of Philadelphia. Five o'clock will be the hour of the ceremony, which will be witnessed only by the immediate members of the two families and a few of the more intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. After the reception and dinner Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead will leave for an extended southern trip. Mr. Moorhead is a son of the late John Moorhead and is a brother of Mrs. William J. Holland, Mrs. Louis Dalzell and John Moorhead, Jr. His engagement to Miss Mary Brown, one of the younger girls in society in the East End, was announced at a small tea given in the winter. During the summer they will spend some time with Mrs. Holland at her cottage at Magnolia.

Last Euchre and Dance.

The last euchre and dance of the season will be given tonight by the Pittsburgh lodge of Elks, No. 11, in their club house, Fifth avenue and Jumonville street. Euchre will begin promptly at 8:30 and continue until 11 o'clock, and will be followed by dancing. Handsome prizes will be given. This entertainment will be given for Elks only and the visiting card must be shown at the door.

Upon this occasion an elegant oil painting of Past Exalted Ruler James E. O'Donnell will be presented to the lodge in kind appreciation of the good work he has done for it. Mr. O'Donnell served two terms as exalted ruler of this lodge. His administration was the most successful of any exalted ruler in No. 11 and he is held in high esteem by all Elks throughout the country. At the coming grand lodge session, to beheld in Baltimore, July 21 to 23, the Pittsburgh Elks will bring Mr. O'Donnell out as a candidate for office in the grand lodge. The presentation speech tonight will be made by Past Exalted Ruler Edward Hays and the portrait will be accepted on behalf of the lodge by Present Exalted Ruler E. J. Small. The club house will be beautifully decorated and a big attendance is sure to be there.

Roth—McGill.

The marriage of Miss Amelia Roth of Allegheny and Dr. C. V. McGill of Pittsburgh took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Roth, in Perrysville avenue. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock by the Rev. W. I. Wishart, pastor of the Eighth United Presbyterian church of Allegheny. Dr. McGill's best man was his brother, Luther McGill. The bride, who was gowned in white mousseline and carried lilies of the valley, was attended by Miss Katherine Graff. After an informal reception and supper the young couple left to spend a month in travel.

College Songs.

The Washington and Jefferson Glee association will give a concert tomorrow evening in the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music, Dithridge street, Bellefield, at 8:15 o'clock. The patronesses will be:

Mrs. J. E. Libbey,	Mrs. G. V. Milliken,
Mrs. W. A. Black,	Mrs. J. I. Buchanan,
Mrs. J. B. Higbee,	Mrs. J. D. Sands,
Mrs. R. H. Boggs,	Mrs. T. L. Hazzard,
Mrs. H. T. McClelland,	Mrs. C. C. Mellor,
Mrs. R. M. Sands,	Mrs. N. A. Means,
Mrs. L. M. Smith,	Mrs. Joshua Gaidhorp,
Mrs. H. A. Reineman,	Mrs. W. L. Sloan,
Mrs. J. N. Pew,	Mrs. J. C. Kirkpatrick,
Mrs. Judge McClung,	Mrs. E. H. Dermitte.

Notes of Society.

Mrs. Joseph N. Conley of Lehigh avenue, East End, left yesterday to spend a month with relatives at Red Bluff, Cal.

The employes of the Rosenbaum Company will give their first annual reception and dance at Kenwood lawn, Larimer avenue, East End, on Tuesday evening, May 12.

There will be music on Saturday evening at the Brighton Country club. This will be the inauguration of the summer season, music being the special feature on Saturday evenings during the coming season.

The board of directors of the Western Pennsylvania branch of the Consumers' league met yesterday in the Twentieth Century club. A resolution was indorsed by the board, its members pledging themselves not to receive packages delivered after 6 o'clock. In busy seasons the delivery wagons from the large department stores are seen throughout the East End late in the evening, thus requiring long and wearisome hours for the drivers and boys.

A nominating committee was appointed whose report of candidates for the offices of the Western Pennsylvania branch will be presented at the next meeting of the board. The election will not take place until January. The nominating committee is composed of Miss Beulah Kennard, chairman; Mrs. Samuel L. Seymour, Mrs. Roe and Miss Martha Jamison. The treasurer, Mrs. James Todd, yesterday reported $50 in the treasury. Twenty-five per cent of this amount is required for the support of the work of the league throughout the state and a certain amount is set aside for the fund to pay the salary of the national factory inspector, Mrs. Florence Kelly.

A meeting of the board will be held next Monday morning at the home of the president, Miss Eliza D. Armstrong, in Kentucky avenue, East End, when a number of special committees will be appointed to visit the stores and factories and to ascertain the conditions which exist there. Mrs. Mattie Patterson is the general chairman of this feature of the work of the Consumers' league.

A New Nurses Bureau.

A department to supply nurses by the hour, day or indefinite period, something which has been much needed by the medical fraternity, will be inaugurated by the bureau of home delicacies for the sick. The bureau will also keep in readiness a supply of pneumonia jackets.

The bureau inaugurated under the auspices of the Domestic Arts association, is now an independent organization because of the dissolution of the association and continues under the supervision of Mrs. W. H. Shields, formerly Miss Agnes Price. The officers are Mrs. James A. Robinson, president, and Mrs. Edward St. John, treasurer, with an advisory board composed of Mrs. John L. Lewis, Mrs. George Burgwin and Miss Hegeman. Delicacies of all kinds, suitable for invalids, are delivered by competent attendants and delivered on short notice. Scrupulous care and cleanliness are observed in the preparation and throughout the various departments. Many orders come through prominent physicians of the two cities.

The bureau was founded two years ago as a feature of the work of the Domestic Arts association and through the generosity of Mrs. Henry Kirke Porter, who gave $1,500 to establish it. Until the association disbanded it was located in the Domestic Arts school, in Forbes street, and then moved to its present home in Baum street, opposite the East Liberty market.

Work Among the Indians.

Work among he Indians in the west was the subject for study yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church. Mrs. Henry J. Stauff was the leader for the day. Particular attention was paid the attempt of the United States to break up the tribal relations and allot the Indians' lands, instead of blankets and rations and to pay them in money for regular employment. The older Indians, knowing nothing of the value of money, are the easy victims of dishonest speculators, and their children suffer. For these children the missionary workers have planned a home where they may be cared for, trained and protected, with trustees to guard their inheritance until they are of age. Already thousands of acres have been given for that purpose and money is now being raised for the erection of farm buildings beside the home, for it is the purpose of the promoters of the scheme to make the institution self-supporting as well as a training school for younger Indian farmers.

To Create Interest.

A meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Park Avenue Presbyterian church will be held next Thursday in the church and will be addressed by Mrs. William J. Askin in the interests of the Consumers' league. Mrs. Askin is chairman of the committee to interest in the league the clubs and societies in Western Pennsylvania. Meetings will be held in other churches and before other societies and clubs in the near future, plans for which are not completed.

Missionary Socities Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young People's branch of the missionary societies of the presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny of the Presbyterian church, was held in the Second church, Penn avenue, Pittsburgh, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Dr. Harry W. Wood of Mt. Washington, a returned missionary from the field of Siam, spoke interestingly of her work. Contributions for the Christmas box, to go to Mrs. A. M. McGoheen, the missionary for the famine orphans in India, were received in large numbers.

Meet for Election.

The Wimodausis club will meet next Tuesday afternoon in Syria temple. The annual election will be conducted and reports will be presented from the committees appointed to take up civic work. The summer playgrounds and the project for building a woman's club house.

"Yes, of course, she is a pretty girl, but she knows it so well that it spoils her." This is such a usual phrase of description that one wonders if an unconscious beauty is really to be found. As success turns the head of so many men, so does flattery increase the vanity of woman. Many a nice looking, sweet-dispositioned girl has taken on beauty-airs, because on two or three occasions she had looked very well, and her unwise friends had told her so in exaggerated terms. It is nice to be told of it when the gown is becoming, or one's color or coiffure command special admiration, and none of us like the brutally frank person who says, "What a frightful fit your foulard has," or "I don't want to annoy you my dear, but how could your ever dream that you could wear that color?" No, these things are not agreeable, but a few salutary shocks would be well for the girl who has just wakened up to a realization of her own fairness, and who at once is made vain thereby. There is only one antidote for self-consciousness, and that is a determination to stop thinking about one's self and one's personal appearance beyond the natural effort to appear as well as possible. The girl who spends hours before her mirror has not enough healthy interests to occupy her mind. Vanity hardens the heart, renders the brain vapid, and cheapens the life of the soul.

The Consciously Pretty Girl.

An exceedingly smart reception gown is built of pale, biscuit colored voile. The skirt, which is one of those long, clinging affairs, has a two-inch band of seal brown panne footing it. The straight line is relieved at intervals by tabs of the velvet, on which are fastened turquoise silk buttons. About 10 inches from the foot of the skirt there is a cluster of tucks. Above these appear insets of antique lace. Then more tucks and another inset of the lace. The second group of tucks is ornamented on either side of the central box pleat, which runs from waist to hem, with two of the brown panne tabs. The waist is a combination of antique lace and cloth. The lace forms a little close-fitting bolero, opening over a close-fitting waist and girdle of the cloth. The upper part of the sleeve is of lace and the very full lower is of biscuit colored chiffon. The hat to be worn with this fascinating little gown is of yellow straw, faced with row after row of blue mallne and circled by a wreath of pink roses.

No woman who has a home need ever be idle, says Marie Corelli in the Ladies' Realm. If she employs her time properly she will find no leisure for gossiping, scandal-mongering, moping, grumbling, "fadding," fortune telling or crystal gazing. * * * Of course, if she "manages" her household merely through a paid housekeeper, she cannot be said to govern the establishment at all. The housekeeper is the real mistress, and very soon secures such a position of authority that the lady who employs and pays her scarcely dare give an order without her. * * * No one knows the real character and disposition of the mistress of a home better than the servants she employs, and if she is honored and loved by her domestics she stands on surer ground than the praise or flattery of her fashionable friends. * * * The charm of home depends, of course, entirely on the upbringing and character of the inmates. Stupid and illiterate people make a dull fireside. Morbid faddists, always talking and thinking of themselves, put the fire out altogether. If I were asked my opinion as to the chief talent or gift for making a happy home, I should without a moment's hesitation reply: "Cheerfulness." A cheerful spirit, always looking on the bright side, and determined to make the best of everything, is the choicest blessing.

What is the good of railing at Dame Fashion? She is a power, and she has come to stay; we may try to do without her, but it generally turns out a failure, and her reign goes on. Women are apt to hanker after her. She is a promoter of trade, of happiness and cheerfulness in women. Ever since the sex took to gowns and hats they have varied as time went on. This year she has taken a wider range, and the sleeves of gowns and mantles she has often been inspired from the east. In her skirts she has shown some originality. If she has not created a style afresh she has certainly adapted several old ideas as the newst methods. Romney and Mme. de Lamballe have suggested a certain style of hat, which Dame Fashion has transformed for purposes of her own. There is a great deal at present left in uncertainty. When we take to picturesque dressing we are not as faithful copyists as we might be. We do not consider the tones of color employed at the time, and they are an all important feature in success. Gainsborough's beautiful blues, Sir Joshua Reynold's dull red, and the clever adaptations of yellow were like the tones employed by Rubens, Van Dyck and others, treated with true artistic skill, and contributed a very important quota to the appearance.

Dame Fashion the Autocrat.

A green luncheon should be an attractive entertainment for spring. If you have a lace centerpiece or table-cloth place green silk or sateen under it. Have candle shades of green paper and a delicate vine twined about the candlesticks. Place vases of maidenhair ferns at the corners of the table and a low bed of ferns in the center, and if you want any flowers use white spring flowers in preference to a color. The bonbons should be green, the icing on the cakes green, and the place cards the small four-leaf-clover cards that come for the purpose. All the dishes should be green. For the menu have grape-fruit served on green leaves decorated with cut-up angelica; next, puree of pease with whipped cream served in bouillon cups; next, shad roe with sauce tartare sprinkled with parsley; then sweetbreads and mushrooms creamed and served in green peppers; broiled spring chicken, new potatoes with melted butter and parsley, and fresh string beans. Punch made with creme de menthe davoring may be served next in glasses, and then a salad of mixed green vegetables on lettuce leaves. The dessert may be forms of pistache ice cream with the little cakes with green icing. Fruit and bonbons are the last course, and coffee and creme de menthe may be served in the parlor. It may be a very charming effect it dainty, delicate shades of green are used as a rule.

In days when superstition was more prevalent than it is now, says Answers, the shape and appearance of the finger-nails were considered to have reference to one's destiny.

To learn the message of the finger-nails it was necessary to rub them over with a compound of wax and soot, and then to hold them so that the sunlight fell fully on them.

Old Superstitions About the Nails.

Then on the horny, transparent substance certain signs and characters were supposed to appear, from which the future could be interpreted.

At the present day nail experts say that a man with red and spotted nails has a hot temper, while pale, lead-colored nails are considered to denote a melancholy temperament.

Narrow nails are supposed to betray ambition and a quarrelsome nature, while round-shaped nails are the distinguishing marks of lovers of knowledge and people of liberal sentiment.

Conceited, narrow-minded and obstinate folk are supposed to have small nails; indolent people, flashy; and those of a gentle, retiring nature, broad nails.

APPOINTMENTS AMONG THE CITY'S GUARDIANS

Teeters and Ford Are Both Restored to the Position of Captain.

Director Moore of the department of public safety made these appointments yesterday:

Albert Teeters, night captain; Matthew Gorman, day captain; Charles Grimes, day lieutenant, all at Central station; C. F. Ford, reappointed as captain at No. 5 station, Lawrenceville; Peter Welsh, lieutenant, No. 5 station.

Albert Teeters has been connected with the police department for 20 years. He was formerly a captain and was reduced because of political differences. Since then he has been acting as a patrolman.

Capt. Gorman has been policing for 15 years. Lieut. Charles Grimes has been cornerman at Wylie and Sixth avenues for a number of years. He was an ardent Citizens worker in the Sixth ward and was appointed at the suggestion of Superintendent McTighe.

Capt. Ford has been captain at No. 3 police station for a number of years. He was appointed at the suggestion of Superintendent McTighe took office. As he was a capable officer and had considerable influence, he was reappointed at the suggestion of Mayor Hays. Lieut. Welsh has been patrolman for a long time.

MORE CHOIR TROUBLES.

Question of Vestments Likely to Disrupt Congregation of New York Church.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—Because the organist wanted the choir to wear vestments, the congregation of Calvary Methodist Episcopal church was called together to vote on the important question, and notwithstanding many protests the singers will appear in robes. As a result of the decision, half of the choir have withdrawn.

Jenny Lind Green, who lives at the Martha Washington hotel, is organist of the church. She came here from Grace church, Baltimore, a short time ago and ever since she has been injecting vigor into the choir. She informed the musical committee that she would appear only in vestments, whether or not the others of the choir did so.

Missionary Societies Met.

The Presbyterial Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Blairsville presbytery of the Presbyterian church met yesterday in the First Presbyterian church, Braddock. The convention, which is the annual one will be in session this morning and afternoon. Work for the executive committee was planned yesterday and Mrs. William Sloan of Blairsville, Mrs. Alice E. Johnston of Braddock and the Rev. William G. Reagle, pastor of the First church, Braddock, made addresses.

Not After Small Companies.

The reported absorption by the Consolidated Ice Company of a number of the smaller concerns in Pittsburgh and Allegheny was denied last night. The rumor of the big ice concern taking in the smaller companies was again put in circulation yesterday, but T. A. Dunn, manager for the Consolidated company, said the rumor is without foundation. H. Kappeler, manager of the Anti-Trust Ice Company, also denied positively that his concern was going in.

Drummond Monument Unveiled.

PORTLAND, ME., May 6.—A monument erected to the memory of Josiah H. Drummond, who was a past grand master of the general grand chapter and general grand council of the United States and honorary member of the supreme council of the northern jurisdiction of the United States, was unveiled by the grand lodge of Maine at Evergreen cemetery today. Subscriptions for the monument were received from many parts of the world.

Royal Arch Masons.

Officers of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons are in the city to witness the exemplification of the degrees of Royal Arch Masonry. This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the chapter rooms of Freemason's hall, Fifth avenue, the work, most excellent and royal arch degrees will be exemplified.

Quite a select party will leave the east on May 27 for Alaska and the Yellowstone under the guidance of the Raymond & Whitcomb Tourist Co. Pittsburg is well represented on the trip.

FUNERAL IS DELAYED BY WAIT FOR STEAMER

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash, with Mrs. Ramsey and three daughters, are at East Orange awaiting the arrival of the tramp steamer Hilltarn, which is bearing the body of Miss Anna Ramsey, the daughter of Mr. Ramsey, who died in Egypt last month.

The boat was to have arrived here today, but after midnight it had not been sighted. Arrangements had been made to leave here for Pittsburgh on Thursday evening, but owing to the delay the start will likely not be made until Friday night on the Pennsylvania railroad. The funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at the residence of J. W. Patterson, president of the Pittsburgh, Carnegie & Western railroad.

The Hilltarn sailed from Calcutta early in April and received the body of Miss Ramsey at Port Said. Upon arrival here the body will be removed to a private car in Jersey City. Relatives of Mr. Ramsey will come on to Pittsburgh from St. Louis in two private cars to attend the funeral services. C. P. GRENEKER.

Club Notes.

Sorosis will give a musicale this afternoon at the home of its president, Mrs. Henry J. Bailey, Center and Aiken avenues, Shadyside.

The Professional Women's club met last evening in Miss Lynn's school room in Westminster street, Shadyside.

PERSONALS

A committee representing the Presbyterian church of Brookville, Pa., is stopping at the Seventh Avenue hotel. The party is composed of H. G. Means, Mrs. George Rogers, J. B. Henderson and wife and the Templeton and wife. The Brookville congregation is about to build a new house of worship, and the committee is here to get ideas from the churches of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Thomas Gray, vice president, and Prof. John Peddle, accompanied by 28 members of the senior class of the Rose Polytechnic Institute of Terre Haute, Ind., are in Pittsburgh on a sight seeing tour of industries. They arrived yesterday morning and are stopping at the Victoria. They represent the architectural, mechanical, civil engineering, electrical and chemical branches of the institute. Yesterday they visited the Duquesne Steel works, the Ramdin power station, the Carrie furnaces and the Homestead steel works. Today the class will be divided. The electrical and mechanical students will visit the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Company, the Westinghouse Airbrake works and will take dinner at the Westinghouse club. The civil engineer students will visit the improvements being made by the Pennsylvania railroad and the Wabash inlet into Pittsburgh. The chemical section will inspect the Atlantic Refining Company. On Friday the mechanical, electrical and civil engineering students will go through the works of the Pressed Steel Car Company and the American Locomotive works. This is the first time the students of this institute have visited Pittsburgh.

Samuel F. Nixon of Nixon & Zimmerman, accompanied by R. B. Marshall, architect for the new theater on Sixth avenue; George J. Charlton, assistant architect; Harry J. Powers, owner of the Powers theater in Chicago, and W. J. Davis, owner of the Illinois theater of Chicago, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh. They were on their way to New York and decided to inspect the invention for making rainbow effect in staging. The invention is being tested in the last act of the "Golden Honeymoon," which is being reproduced at the Alvin. Mr. Nixon said that the device is what has been needed on the stage for some time. The new theater, he said, would be completed by November 1, without a doubt.

S. D. Casanave, general superintendent of motive power of the Pittsburgh & Ohio system, passed through the city last night on his way to Chicago on a business trip.

PEKING HERO VISITED PITTSBURGH YESTERDAY

Arranged to Permit United Labor Carnival to Use Arsenal Grounds.

Maj. Edgar B. Robertson of the United States army, having charge of the post at Fort Niagara, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh. He was detailed here by Gen. A. R. Chaffee of the department of the east to conclude arrangements permitting the United Labor league carnival to use the arsenal grounds. By permission of Secretary of War Elihu Root the arsenal property has been placed at the disposal of the carnival people.

Maj. Robertson gained much prominence in China. A few months before the Boxer uprising he had charge of the post in the orient. He has the distinction of having been the first American who entered Peking. He tells some thrilling experiences he underwent while in that city. The American soldiers, he said, made the most impression on the Chinese after the disturbance was quelled. He left last night for Niagara.

Capital Minister Called.

The members of the First Presbyterian church, McKeesport, last night decided to call the Rev. G. N. Luccock, pastor of a Presbyterian church in Washington, D. C. The church has been without a pastor ever since the death of the Rev. Dr. J. J. McCarrell, former moderator of the general assembly, last January.

Hotel Men Expect Big Crush.

Delegates to the convention of the Order of Railway Conductors and the conference of Presbyterian ministers, which will meet in Pittsburg next week, it is said will find considerable difficulty in finding stopping places while here. About 8,000 visitors will be attracted to this city.

CHILD TELLS STRANGE STORY OF A MURDER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW BRIGHTON, PA., May 6.—The police are greatly wrought up over a supposed murder which it is thought to have occurred Tuesday on Block House run. The police received a report that a fight had taken place in an old house which is occupied by several Italians employed at the American sewer pipe works. The officers went to the house late last night, but the men had escaped.

This morning a woman residing near the house went to Chief of Police Dalrymple and stated that she was sure a murder had been committed. County Detective Lazerus of Rochester was summoned and, accompanied by Chief Dalrymple and Officers Garber and Chambers, went to the house. They found 12 men, a woman and a 10-year-old girl in the house. The officers questioned them closely, but could get nothing from any except the little girl.

She declared that one man was shot in the leg and cut across the breast, and that the man who did the shooting was thrown on the floor and killed with a hatchet. She said that the wounded man was taken away and that the dead man was buried in the cellar. This afternoon two of the officers took picks and shovels and dug in the cellar for the body, but could find no trace of it. The officers are of the opinion that the body was afterward removed from the cellar.

PRISONERS PUT TO WORK

Inmates of Washington County Jail to Be Employed Improving Roads.

WASHINGTON, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—The Washington county prison board today closed a contract with the road supervisors of South Strabane township for the employment of prisoners of the county jail to labor in quarrying stone for the improvement of the public highways of the township.

Under the terms of the contract the township must provide guards for the men while at work. The county will have no expense in keeping prisoners while they are employed by the township.

GAS COMPANIES ARE CONSOLIDATED

JEFFERSON, O., May 6.—(Special.)—The Northeastern Oil & Gas Company, whose dozen gas wells near this village supply heat and illumination to Ashtabula, Austinburg, Geneva and Jefferson, has ceased to exist as an independent organization. With a number of small concerns about this state and Pennsylvania it has been merged into the Pittsburgh Oil & Gas Company. This lessens the number of officials and greatly reduces the expenses.

WOMAN SUPPOSED DEAD CAME TO LIFE

WARREN, O., May 6.—(Special.)—Mrs. Jane Hill of Fowler, this county, who has consumption, apparently died on Sunday morning. The body became cold and stiff. An undertaker was sent for to embalm the body. He arrived an hour later, and when he began his work he noticed a movement of an eyelid. Stimulants were administered and in a few minutes life returned. Mrs. Hill is still alive.

New Fast Trains on Pennsy.

ALTOONA, PA., May 6.—The schedule committee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company began the work of revising the schedule today. Two new fast trains will be put on the new schedule now being prepared. One will run east, passing Altoona about 4 p. m., and the westbound train will pass through here about noon. The new trains will be as fast as the limited.

Hammer Blow Caused Death.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—William Dinkuhm, of Rathmel, died today from the effects of a blow on the head with a hammer last March. Dinkuhm and his neighbor, August David, quarreled because the drainage from the latter's coal bank passed over Dinkuhm's land. David is under bail.

TEXT BOOKS RECOMMENDED

The text book and course of instruction committee of the central board of education met last evening. The course of study recommended by the industrial committee was approved without discussion. The music committee's recommendation of the "Educational Course in Music," was turned down by the text book committee.

At the last meeting of the text book committee the "Natural Series" in music was recommended, there being no recommendation before the committee from the music committee. Since that time, however, the music committee held a meeting and took a stand for the educational course. The "Educational Course of Music" is published by Ginn & Co., while the course previously recommended by the committee is published by the American Book Company.

ON THE BRINK OF ETERNITY

That consumption and lung disease can be positively cured even after an advanced and dangerous stage has been reached, the following absolutely authentic case will prove:

Out at 422 West Eighteenth street, Erie, Pa., Mr. Otto Matties conducts a cigar and newsstand. In reply to a question regarding his wife, he said: "Right after Christmas my wife was stricken down with grip, and kept getting worse. I called in our physician, one of the best doctors in town, he gave her some medicine but it didn't do any good. She got worse and the disease settled on her lungs. Every day she kept getting weaker and an abscess formed on her left lung, which made her cough dreadfully. She got bed-sore and for two whole months never took a mouthful of food. We kept her alive on medicine and brandy. Finally she got to having sinking spells and I called in other doctors; one of them said she couldn't live for two days and was past help. Another told me that the left lung was covered with a hard substance and was dead and that she couldn't survive long.

"I here spoke up and said, 'Here's Kessler out here who makes that Mizpah Cure for weak lungs and consumption. Do you mind if I give her some of that?' 'No,' they said, 'you can give her that, it won't do her any harm. You can give it to her between times while giving her other medicine.'

"I went to Kessler, got a bottle of his medicine and commenced to give it to her. It seemed to help her and in two days I quit giving her the doctor's medicine.

"Well, sir, in three days after she began taking the Mizpah Cure she asked for something to eat. Mr. Kessler told me it was a good symptom, and to give her a little food, not much. We did so and she began to improve. Her cough was terrible and she raised large quantities of mucus from her lungs. I had to use carbolic acid and chlorate of lime constantly to keep the room habitable. It is now less than three months since she began taking Mizpah Cure, and she doesn't cough a bit.

"I had her out for a drive today, and she walks nicely and is all right with the exception of being a little weak. The doctors examined her lungs recently and say that the left lung, what is left of it, is alive and in good working condition. After she showed signs of renewed life, the doctors kept coming to see her every day for three weeks and finally admitted that Mr. Kessler's medicine was a good thing."

This is no isolated case. Mizpah Cure has saved thousands from an untimely grave. It is a positive cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Grip, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Weak Lungs and all disorders of the air passages. Ask your druggist for Mizpah Cure; price 50c and $1, or write to Henry Kessler, sole proprietor, 436 West 18th st., Erie, Pa.

The Rev. Samuel H. Moore.

NEW CASTLE, PA., May 6.—(Special.)—The Rev. Samuel H. Moore, D. D., pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of this city, is as yet undetermined whether or not to accept the unanimous call extended him by the East End Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh. When asked regarding his plans this morning he would not give a definite answer. "This is so sudden," he laughingly replied. "The only information I have is the report published this morning in The Gazette. I have not solicited the call and I do not yet know what I will do in the matter."

Dr. Moore is one of the most widely known divines in the Presbyterian church body. During his three years' pastorate here he has succeeded in building up the Central church in both membership and otherwise and it is today one of the most influential religious bodies in the city. It was principally through his influence that dissatisfaction was ended over the present by Andrew Carnegie of the handsome pipe organ which now adorns the church. Dr. Moore ended opposition to the acceptance of the gift from the source it came by announcing that whatever was for the good of religion was right, and objection to the acceptance of the organ from Carnegie was wrong.

AUDITORS IGNORED JOHNSON'S PROTESTS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

COLUMBUS, O., May 6.—In spite of the protests of Tom L. Johnson, the county auditors having in charge the appraisement of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Ohio property today made a material reduction in the valuation of the property for taxation.

The Pittsburgh division was appraised as follows: Main track, $12,500; second track, $3,250; sidings, $1,750; rolling stock, $7,340; moneys and credits, $2,070. In 1902 the main line was appraised at $13,750. There is an increase in the rolling stock of $2,840 per mile. The appraisement of the main line of the Indianapolis division was reduced from $16,750 to $16,000.

Sues for Freight Rebates.

ALTOONA, PA., May 6.—Coal Operator R. H. Splendley of this city, brought suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company to recover $772,572 for alleged unjust discrimination in freight rates on coal shipments allowed to competitors for twelve years. The case was argued before Judge Bell in the Blair county court today.

Inspected Youngstown Plants.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 6.—(Special.)—The inspection party of the Carnegie Steel Company today looked over the Ohio steel plant and the plants of the American Steel Hoop Company, afterward going to Bellaire and Mingo Junction.

Do You Enjoy What You Eat?

KODOL
The Stomach Sweet.

If you don't your food does not do you much good. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the remedy that every one should take when there is any thing wrong with the stomach. There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up.

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol. Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. When you take Kodol everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that it contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Kodol gives health to the sick and strength to the weak.

"Why don't you take Kodol? I was troubled with dyspepsia for 18 or 20 years and had gotten so bad that I had to be very careful what I ate. I had pains at night so that I could not sleep, and pains in the stomach before and after eating. My druggist asked me to try Kodol, which I did. I used some 3 or 4 bottles. It has now been two years since I used Kodol and I have had no stomach trouble since. By all means you should get a bottle at once."

CHARTIERS VALLEY

The Cecil Improvement Company will offer for sale on SATURDAY, MAY 9, '03,

EAST CANONSBURG, PA.

Where they have already located a Big Steel Mill, combined with three other manufactories, working about 1,400 men, also a Large Planing Mill, Box Factory and Lumber Yards, with two other large manufacturing plants now being negotiated for. This property fronts on the Chartiers Valley Railroad, with Wabash Railroad surveyed and will be built through the property. This is pronounced by experts and all who have looked at it, to be the FINEST TOWN SITE in Western Pennsylvania. The company has graded the streets, the town has a complete sewer system, with city water, natural gas for light and heat, and electric lights. The Canonsburg & Washington electric railway will run through the principal streets.

The old town has already, in the way of manufacturing plants: The Canonsburg Steel & Iron Works, Fort Pitt Structural Iron Works, Canonsburg China Company, Pittsburgh & Buffalo Mining Company, Simpson Stove Works, Alexander Manufacturing Company, two large planing mills and lumber yards, extensive flour mills; also the best graded schools, an academy and churches of all denominations.

This plot of lots is in the heart of the richest farming district in Western Pennsylvania, also the best Pittsburgh gas coal district and has abundance of natural gas and oil.

EIGHTEEN PASSENGER TRAINS DAILY

to and from the city, five of which make the trip in 40 minutes. There can be no better investment than to build houses for rent. Six-room houses in the old town are renting for from $25 to $30 per month. The demand for houses now is so great that 50 to 75 could be rented now if we had them, and the Steel Mill will guarantee the rent of the first 100 houses built for that purpose. BUY LOTS, BUILD HOUSES AND MAKE MONEY. No other investment compares with real estate; double your money in one year. These lots run in prices from $50, $75, $100, $125, $150, $175, $200 and upwards, one-third of the price they can be bought for in the old town.

DON'T MISS THIS SALE.

NOTICE—These lots will be sold from tabs on a stake on each lot, with block number, lot number and price. The person removing a tab from a lot and returning it to the office will be entitled to that lot. No person will be allowed to hold the tab over half an hour. No tabs shall be removed until the signal is given by a blast from the big mill whistle on the grounds, which will be at 11 a. m. sharp.

A SPECIAL TRAIN will leave Union Station, Pittsburgh, Pa., May 9, 1903, at 9 o'clock a. m. city time, stopping at all stations, arriving at East Canonsburg at 10 o'clock, to accommodate parties wishing to attend the big sale. All lot buyers within 100 miles of Canonsburg will have their railroad fare remitted. Keep your eye on East Canonsburg; don't hold back on account of rain. A good lunch will be served on the grounds. No brass band. For further information, call on or write,

CANAL DEPENDS UPON MARROQUIN

MAY BECOME NECESSARY

Newly Elected Members Seem Not to Favor Giving Sovereignty Over Isthmus Territory to United States.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The latest advices received here indicate that President Marroquin of Colombia has almost decided not to call a special session of the Colombian congress to act upon the Panama canal treaty. In the election in progress in Colombia, the opposition continues to gain, and the prospects for a government majority are so doubtful that President Marroquin seems indisposed to act. The Colombian congress will, however, assemble July 20 in regular session. At that session the canal treaty might be taken up, but in view of the sentiment existing much doubt is felt here as to whether it will be acted upon.

This outlook, however, does not discourage the officials here. The United States government has gone so far in its negotiations with Colombia that confidence is felt here that President Marroquin will feel himself bound to carry out the engagements into which he has entered.

The Colombian constitution contains a provision enlarging the powers of the executive in case of disturbed conditions, and if there is the slightest sign of forcible opposition to the government, or of revolutionary uprisings, such as are hinted at in the stories from Kingston, Jamaica, and from Isthmian points, indicative of a purpose to sever the isthmus from Colombian sovereignty, the president may arrogate to himself dictatorial power and go to the length of ratifying the canal treaty without assent of congress.

If he does so, the United States government will sustain the title thus acquired.

MANY LUTHERANS ARE AT THE CONVENTION

Incorporation of Eastern District Discussed—Election Today.

When the eastern district of the German Evangelical Lutheran synod of Missouri opened its annual session at the First Evangelical Lutheran church, Fifth and Sixth avenues, yesterday morning, 400 delegates responded to the roll call. The Rev. William Broecker, pastor of the church, opened the service. All discourses are in German.

The morning session was devoted to a sermon by the Rev. F. Brand, pastor of the South Side church, and vice president of the general synod. The Rev. H. H. Walker, president of the local synod, presided at the afternoon session. The Rev. F. Ruhland was elected chaplain of the convention.

The question of incorporating the eastern district was discussed. Final action was deferred until tomorrow. The committee on finance reported that the church's college at Hawthorne, N. Y., is $12,935 in debt, and a committee, of which the Rev. Timothy Stenecke of Baltimore, Md., is chairman, was appointed to try to liquidate the debt.

The Rev. F. Brand, chairman of the committee on colored missions, reported that the missions are in flourishing condition, but asked for some increases in the donations next year. The annual election will be held this afternoon.

BALTIMORE IN DOUBT.

Ballots in Four Precincts Uncounted Because of Judges' Dispute.

BALTIMORE, May 6.—The ballots in 304 of the election precincts cast at yesterday's municipal election give Robert M. McLane, Democratic candidate for mayor, a plurality over Frank M. Waechter, Republican, of 529. The ballots in the remaining four precincts are uncounted owing to disputes among the judges of election. They will not be opened until tomorrow. Waechter and his party leaders charge that many ballots cast in his favor have been illegally thrown out, and they announce that they will appeal to the courts.

The Republican candidates for city comptroller and president of the second branch of councils were elected. The Democrats will have a majority in council on joint ballot and thus will be able to elect the city register, who is virtually the municipal treasurer.

OMAHA, NEB., May 6.—Complete returns from yesterday's city election give Mayor Moore a plurality over Benson, the Citizens' candidate, of 959 and 1,000 over Howell, the Democratic nominee.

COURSEY BEATEN AGAIN.

Activity of New York Police Commissioner's Secretary Once More Goes Astray.

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—Wm. S. Coursey, Police Commissioner Greene's private secretary, distinguished himself early this morning by making a personal raid in a disreputable chop house and by invading a room where half a doezn members of a social organization were holding a private meeting.

For the second time within two months Coursey received a sound thrashing and the men whose arrest he had caused were discharged in the police court, where several witnesses expressed the emphatic belief that Coursey was intoxicated.

Coursey was formerly a protege of Secretary of War Root. He first attracted general atention on the night of March 17, when he was knocked down at Thirty-fourth street and Seventh avenue after a wrangle during which he had exhibited his gold badge and tried to use a revolver.

SCHOOL TAX INCREASED.

Village in McKeesport Is to Be Raised from 8 to 8 1-2 This Year.

The finance committee of the McKeesport school district has decided that it will be necessary to increase the millage from 8 to 8½ mills to raise enough money for the coming year. They figure that it will require $171,375 to operate the schools, a large increase over any preceding year. Some members of the board do not take kindly to the proposed increase, as $4,000 is to be expended for additional ground, made necessary by the donation of a large plot to the United States Steel Corporation.

FIREMEN TO PARADE AT SCHWAB DEDICATION

Chief Charles K. Bryce of the Homestead fire department has invited 26 volunteer fire departments from various parts of the county to participate in the dedication of the Charles M. Schwab Manual Training school, Saturday, May 16.

Recruits for the Navy.

The recruiting party of the United States navy at No. 435 Fourth avenue, has accepted these seven out of 60 applicants in three days: J. B. Whitman, S. A. Michael, J. S. Senger, C. Humphreys, J. Thomas and F. Jochufm, of Pittsburgh, and W. J. Davis of Philadelphia. The party leaves this Saturday.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The Delmonico Gold Mining Company, of which John MacMillan is president and Joseph H. Eaton secretary and treasurer, has just completed a new amalgamation and concentration plant to treat its own ores right at the mine. The plant will have a capacity of 25 tons per day and will be increased as necessity demands. This mine is situated in Gilpin county, Colo., on Quartz hill.

The third payment on the Fairview mine at Thunder mountain, amounting to $7,500, was paid May 1. The mine was the first to be floated in Pittsburgh after the consummation of the deal on the Dewey. It lies west of Monument creek and shows a large body of ore. The Fairview Mining Company was organized and has done considerable development work, with satisfactory results. There remain three payments to be made. One of these will fall due on August 1st next; it amounts to $12,500; the next, $50,000, becomes due in December; the last, $48,000, on December 31, 1904. The Fairview was located by H. E. Taylor and M. P. Eby.

The Honerine Mining Company has just placed in commission its new $50,000 compressor. The plant has 25c capacity of operating 30 or more power drills, and in addition of supplying all the air needed in operating the drills, running hoists and for ventilation. Work has been in progress for the past three months in erecting the buildings and installing the machinery.

The Calumet and Texas Mining Company will be organized at a near date. Calumet will have three of the directors. A large number of Calumet people have taken stock in the new venture. The property is located in the Gaudalupe mountains 64 miles southwest of Carsbad, New Mexico. John H. Shary of Carsbad is in Calumet placing stock.

The lead situation in British Columbia is now the most important thing up for consideration in mining circles there. The Slocan mine owners, whose properties have been rendered almost worthless in many cases through the decline in the price of lead from £16 and £17 a ton to £10 and £12, which have been the quotations prevailing lately on the English market, recently sent a deputation to Ottawa, to use all influence possible with the Canadian government to secure a duty on lead similar to the Dingley tariff in the United States. They felt that with such protection on their product they could get prices for lead in Canada somewhat commensurate with those prevailing in the United States, where $3 90 is being paid to the Coeur d'Alene miners, as against about $1 60@1 75 which the British Columbia mine owners received on the basis of English quotations.

What appears to be one of the best strikes that has been made in the district for many days and one of the most important that has ever been uncovered in the north end of the district has been opened up by the Cripple Creek Enterprise Gold Mining Company. The shaft of the corporation is situated at the northeast corner of Fourth and Myers avenue and it is down to a depth of 200 feet. In a crosscut run from this depth 18 inches of ore has been encountered and assays on the rock show that it is all of high grade value. The discovery was made some 80 feet from the shaft. Both walls are granite and the ore is of a phonolytic nature or basalt. The rock shows sylvanite in abundance and assays went from $72 co as high as $130. Three assays taken later show the remarkable value of $438, $557 and $889 60 a ton.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Tin was unchanged at £126 for both spot and futuers in the London market today, while in New York it was a shade lower on the outside price, closing at $29 90@30 10. Copper closed 15s higher in London for spot and 17s 6d for futuers, with both positions quoted at £61 17s 6d. The local copper market dull and nominally unchanged at $14 50@14 75 for lake, electrolytic and casting. Lead was unchanged at $4 37½ in New York and at £12 1s 3d in London. Speiter was unchanged here as well as in London, where it closed at £21 10s. The local price is $5 75. Iron closed at 52s in Glasgow, and at 40s 4½d in Middlesboro. Iron in New York was quiet. No. 1 foundry northern is quoted at $22 00@22 50; No. 2 foundry, northern at $20 50@21 00; No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern soft at $21 50@22 00. Warrants are nominal.

Dr. Wood Raps Mormon Church.

A pamphlet reviewing the history of Mormonism and the recognition of representatives who are members of the Mormon church sent to the congress of the United States by the state of Utah, has been issued by the Rev. E. M. Wood, LL. D., pastor of the Fifth Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. Dr. Wood in his review takes the position that Mormonism is antagonistic to the state and national governments. He says polygamy violates the law of nature and prostitutes religious liberty. Dr. Wood says polygamy may be heaven for the men of the Mormon church, but it is hell for the women.

George Bingham Seriously Ill.

George Bingham, president of the Phoenix Galvanizing company in Duquesne way, who resides at Aspinwall, is reported to be very ill at Atlantic City. It was said yesterday that Mr. Bingham would be removed to the home of his son-inlaw, Wallace P. Bache, vice president of the American Sheet Steel Co., at Bayside, L. I. Owing to Mr. Bingham's advanced age it is feared it may retard his recovery.

Officers Get Wadsworth Opinion.

Printed copies of the opinion handed down by the supreme court of Pennsylvania in the case of Arthur Wadsworth, a private of Company A, Eighteenth regiment, N. G. P., who shot and killed a man named Durham during the anthracite coal strike on the evening of October 8, 1902, have been mailed to the officers of the national guard. The opinion is being distributed among the officers that they may better inform themselves as to their duties under the law while on service duty for the state.

Death Was Visitor in His Absence.

When A. J. Neally of Island avenue, McKees Rocks, returned home from Butler yesterday he learned that his sister-in-law, Miss Margaret V. Vargar, 17 years old, who had made her home with him for the past three years, had died during his absence. Neally is interested in the oil fields in Butler county, and although his family repeatedly tried to communicate with him, he could not be located and advised of Miss Vargar's death.

Viola Allen Takes Name Role.

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Special.)—Viola Allen is to play "Viola," the character from which her name was taken, in "Twelfth Night," all of next season. For the past few months she has been studying the famous Shakespearean collection in the Boston Public library.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

Messrs. Hanna, Jenkins and Conant, who compose the commission which will represent the United States at the International monetary commission, will sail from New York for London May 19.

The twentieth annual readjustment of salaries of presidential postmasters is in progress. It involves about 5,000 postmasters. Most of the changes are increases. The appropriation for salaries for next year was increased $750,000.

An invitation has reached the navy department from an Irish rifle association, to send a team to represent the United States in the approaching international rifle contest, to be held at Belfast.

Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, authorizes an emphatic denial of a report that he was incensed with the action of the German ambassador in placing the name of the sister of the German ambassadress in the diplomatic list as a member of the German embassy.

WANTS CHINA COVERED BY MONROE DOCTRINE

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 6.—John R. Proctor, United States Civil Service commissioner, in an interview today, urged President Roosevelt to promulgate with reference to China, a doctrine similar to that of Monroe respecting the western hemisphere. The doctrine, as Mr. Proctor would write it, is:

"In the wars of European powers, in matters relating to themselves, we have never taken any part. With the movements in China we are of necessity more immediately connected. We owe it to candor and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and those powers to declare that we should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of the Chinese empire as dangerous to our peace."

Mr. Proctor also said: "The value of the trade of Great Britain and the United States with China now amounts to six times as much as the combined trade of Germany, France and Russia with that country, and consequently these two countries may be said to have paramount commercial interests in China."

THE THREE RIVERS.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, May 6.—The stage of the river at 6 p. m. marked 14.8 feet and falling. Owing to a heavy fog the Virginia was delayed. The Bird not get away from her wharf until 8:00 this morning.

EVANSVILLE—River falling slowly; stands 15.5 feet.

MEMPHIS—The river here stands 27.7 feet and falling.

LOUISVILLE—River is falling, with 5 feet 2 inches on the falls, 7 feet 4 inches in the canal and 14 feet 5 inches at the foot of the locks. The Sprague is above Paducah with her tow of 48 pieces. The Coal City arrived from Cairo with empties and will go on to Pittsburgh.

GALLIPOLIS—River 9 feet and falling.

HUNTINGTON—River 11 feet 2 inches and falling.

GREENSBORO—River 7 feet 6 inches and falling.

WARREN—River 9 tenths of a foot.

OIL CITY—River 1 foot 7 inches and stationary.

MORGANTOWN—River 8 feet and stationary.

POINT PLEASANT—River 7 feet and falling.

MARIETTA—River 5.4 feet and falling.

WHEELING—River 5 feet 2 inches and stationary.

COAL COMING INTO HARBOR.

The river coal companies are turning their attention to bringing coal from the pools into the harbor. There are 3,000,000 bushels loaded in boats along the river front and from three to five tows are added every day. No coal stage is looked for within five or six weeks, but when it does come a great amount of coal will be sent to the down-river ports.

ARRIVAL.

Queen City, Sandford, Cincinnati.

DEPARTURE.

Queen City, Sandford, Cincinnati.

The stage of water at Davis island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 4.5 feet and the river was rising.

Inspectors Isaac B. Williams and George H. Atkinson will inspect the Muskogee and Blanche Edna at Point Marion today.

The Rosa Hite, from Morgantown, was compelled to lay up over night. She arrived late last night and will leave this morning.

A heavy fog stopped business along the wharf yesterday. For several hours it was impossible for the boats to move with safety.

There were 6.5 feet of water in the harbor yesterday afternoon, and the Ohio is also rising. The down-giver packets will probably be able to get above Sewickley in a few days.

The Oakland, with 28 boats and 6 barges; the John A. Wood, 28 boats and three model barges, and the W. W. O'Neill, 21 boats and 21 barges, passed Memphis, going down, yesterday.

The news sent out from Washington that the new marine hospital will probably be located at the arsenal grounds is not well received by the rivermen. It has long been contended by them that Duquesne Heights, where a good view of the harbor is obtainable, is the best place for the hospital. Some action will be taken to bring the matter once more before the officials at Washington in the hopes that Duquesne Heights will be selected.

AFRAID OF SNEAK THIEVES.

McKeesport Man Refused Admittance to Two Health Officers.

"Get out of here; you can't play any sneak thief racket here," was the order that greeted City Health Officer C. A. Walker and Secretary Archie Richards of the health board, McKeesport, yesterday, as they attempted to enter the premises of Jacob Snyder of the East End. The officers went to the house to investigate a complaint concerning a nuisance and were met at the door by Snyder, who locked the door and refused admittance. Information was made against him before Alderman P. S. Langsdorf on a charge of interfering with officers.

When the summons was served Snyder regretted his nasty action and said he had heard so much of sneak-thieving that he was certain he had met a pair when the officers called.

Miss Alice M. Smith, of So. Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering is permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day while visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain, and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change."—Miss Alice M. Smith, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Many women suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes the entire female organism healthy.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

The most important strike reported yesterday is in Southeastern Ohio, about two miles northwest of the Unity Oil Company's No. 2 on the James Cooper farm, near Monroefield, and about the same distance southeast of Miltonsburg, Monroe county. The well is owned by Johnson Bros. and is located on the Ross Burkhart farm. When drilled into the Big Lime the well began to show some oil and is estimated to be good for 10 barrels a day, natural. It may improve when shot. The size of the well is not significant. The location and formation, in which the oil was developed, are and may lead up to the discovery of a Big Lime pool. This is the first well in this part of Monroe county to find oil in paying quantities in the Big Lime.

In the Knoxville development in Jefferson county, R. Hindman, Wegeleid a test on his own farm and has a duster.

In the same district the Tri-State Gas Company and C. M. Crawford have completed No. 1 on the John Good farm and have a 25-barrel producer in the Berea grit. No. 3 on the same farm has been drilled in and is showing for a 10-barrel pumper.

In Wetzel district, Wegeleid county, W. Va., Brash Bros. & Co. have drilled their test on the A. M. Crow farm into the Gordon and have a 30-barrel producer.

On the White Day, Winfield district, Marion county, the Hope Natural Gas Company has drilled a wildcat on the Brent S. Jones farm through all known sands and has a duster.

In the lower end of the Folsom district, in Wetzel county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed No. 37 on the Genine Robinson tract and will have no better than a 10-barrel pumper in the Gordon.

The same company has completed its No. 3 on the Hall-Price farm and the well is producing 180 barrels a day.

In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, the Carter Oil Company has completed its No. 3 on the S. F. Potts farm in the Maxon sand and has a duster.

In the Elbee district, Pleasants county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 10 on the A. H. Wells farm through the Cow Run sand and has a 30-barrel producer.

In the same district, Schlagel & Fried have completed No. 8 on the Edward Massey farm and have a duster in the Cow Run.

Miners Are in Demand.

The Pittsburgh officials of the United Mine Workers yesterday by the Wiota Coal company of Lazearville, W. Va., were requested to send a number of union miners to their mines. This is the second time in the history of the district that such a request has come from a West Virginia mine. New locals have been formed at Smithton, with 300 members, and at Cherry Run mine, on the Panhandle, with 150 men. The troubles at Snowden and Bellevernon have been settled.

CHURCH CLUB MEETS.

The annual meeting of the Church club of the diocese of Pittsburgh was held last evening in the Monongahela club, Wood street and Fourth avenue. Reports were submitted by President Reuben Miller and Treasurer W. L. Lenhart. The officer selected for the ensuing year were: President, John B. Jackson; first vice-president, C. E. E. Childers; second vice-president, James W. Brown; treasurer, W. L. Lenhart; historian, George H. Randall; secretary, William C. Lynne; assistant secretary, Frank R. Fortune; trustees, Edward T. Dravo, Edwin Z. Smith and William McConway.

A paper was read on "Current Topics," by R. C. Cornelius. Mr. Cornelius touched upon the church congress, the proposed change of name, the Rainsford incident, changes in the constitution of the church regarding presiding bishops, representation of missionary dioceses, formation of new dioceses and the authority of the bishops for special forms of worship, all of which will be discussed at the annual meeting of the diocese next Wednesday in St. Peter's Episcopal church. The club now numbers about 200, half of whom were present last night. A dinner was enjoyed and several short addresses were made by incoming officers and members.

The Rev. Dr. Potts, president of St. John's college, Shanghai, China, will be the speaker at the special meeting of the club to be held at the rooms of the Union club, Frick building, on May 15. Dr. Potts will speak on "The Scope of Christian Education in China."

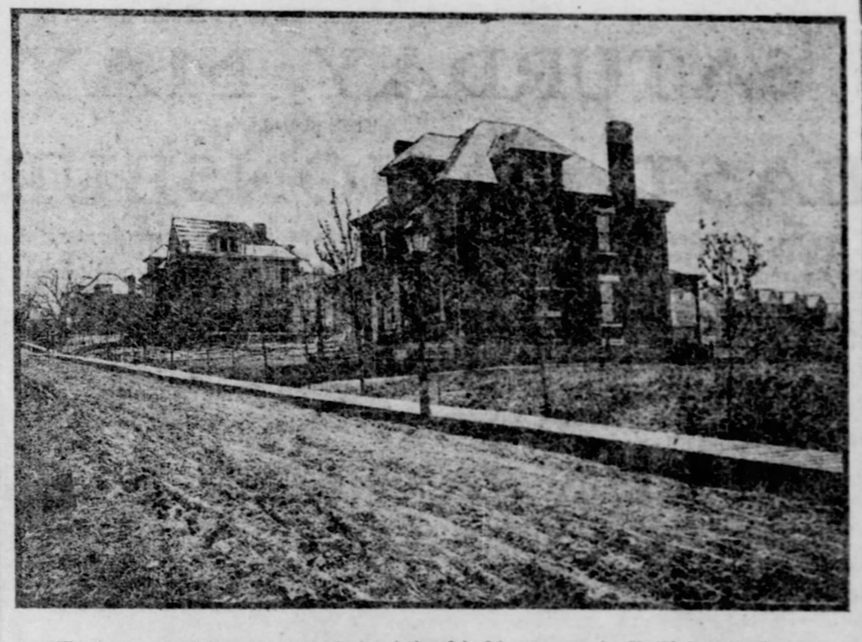
For homeseeker or investor "Bon-Air" is the most inviting real estate proposition on the market today. Again we say—see for yourself—compare it with other residence sections within Greater Pittsburgh, and when you have done so you will agree that Bon-Air is logically the "Peerless City of Homes!"



This house, one of the most convenient and cheerful of homes, on a lot 50x120 feet, fronting on Bon-Air avenue, overlooking McKinley Park, well built and everything first-class. Handsome mantels throughout, combination light fixtures, instantaneous water heater, clothes presses and linen closets in plenty. The very best plumbing. We shall not attempt to enumerate all of the good features, for this property is absolutely first-class. That means that ALL features are good. Price of this property $6,000. Terms to suit. TRADING FALLS OFF, BUT TONE IS FIRM

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was quite a falling off in the volume of trading on the New York stock exchange yesterday, but the tone of the market remained firm. London was not a factor in the dealings, its transactions not exceeding 10,000 shares, but the tone in financial circles abroad shows decided improvement. The chief cause of this is the expectation that the Transvaal loan will be announced today, and private cables yesterday were to the effect that the loan would be £35,000,000 3 per cents at par, the government having made this concession. The loan was quoted in the London market at a premium, and it was reported that continental investors were likely to be large bidders. It is expected that it will be so largely oversubscribed by genuine investors that a better feeling will be produced abroad for all class of high-class securities. Some of the New York international bankers wired their Pittsburgh correspondents yesterday that they would be ready to forward any subscriptions that might be offered, but the impression prevailed that investors in this country would not be attracted by the loan. At the opening of the stock market prices showed small gains, but the principal activity was in Rock Island and Frisco issues. Rock Island common advanced to 45¾ and held its gain well, while Frisco common, which closed on Tuesday at 76⅜, opened nearly a point higher and advanced to 80. The movement in these two stocks revived the rumor that there had been a resumption of the negotiations for a merger of these systems. It was generally believed that such negotiations were nearly ready for closing about the time the Northern Securities decision was handed down, and the sharp reaction which occurred at that time was construed as meaning that the deal had been abandoned. It was the opinion among close observers yesterday that the buying of Rock Island was based more upon the change of front of a prominent New York-Chicago house, which has been bearish, and which yesterday was the most conspicuous purchaser. What gave color to the opinion that the movement was largely speculative was the giving currency to a rumor that Rock Island common was to be placed upon a 4 per cent dividend basis this year. There was considerable activity in Illinois Central, which has been neglected for some time, and the stock advanced to 139. The movement was accompanied by talk of the probability of an increase in the dividend rate. Its earnings are estimated at 14 per cent on its total capital, and the present dividend rate is 6 per cent. Missouri Pacific and the coal stocks were strong in the early dealings, but the gains did not extend to more than fractions. The only feature of the industrial list was the extreme weakness in the National Lead stocks. The common opened lower at 22½ and broke to 20, while the preferred after opening at 90½ declined to 88⅛, and closed at 85⅛ bid. The cause of the weakness was a report of dissensions between the Guggenheim interests, which are negotiating a combination of the lead companies, and President Cole of National Lead, and there were rumors that the latter would be left out of the proposed combination entirely. The steel stocks were dull and Amalgamated Copper firm on the advance in the metal abroad.

⊙ ⊙ ⊙

Factors in yesterday's market were the continued easy tendency in money and the better demand for investments reported by bond dealers. The latter market has been flat for five or six months, but within the past week or so has displayed some life. Call money rates did not get above 2¾ per cent, and closed at 2½ per cent. The offerings of time money were more liberal, and it was reported that loans could now be obtained at 5 per cent for any period to the end of the year. While bank reserves are increasing in the east, however, as a result of liquidation in the stock market, they average low throughout the country, and the demands of the latter are likely to increase rather than diminish during the summer. The slight declining tendency which occurred in the stock market during the latter part of the afternoon was based upon the advance in sterling exchange. At one time during the day it was reported that a prominent international banking house had made arrangements to export $1,000,000 gold to Paris, but this was subsequently denied, the shifting of the exchange rate at Paris making the transaction unprofitable. It is calculated, however, that a slight further advance in sterling exchange would make it possible to ship gold direct to London at a profit. Should the Bank of England reduce its minimum rate of discount at today's meeting, it would neutralize the advance in sterling here, and perhaps entirely avert shipments of the metal.

On the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday there was also a considerable falling off in the volume of trading, the sales reaching less than 6,000 shares. Westinghouse Electric second preferred was the only stock in which the transactions exceeded 1,000 shares. It opened at 107½ and advanced to 107⅝, subsequently reacting to and closing at 106½, a net decline for the day of ⅛. It was reported that a meeting of the directors would be held in New York yesterday to take action on the issue of a portion of the treasury stock, but a dispatch from that city quoted an official as stating that the directors would not meet until next week for this purpose. The same dispatch stated that nothing had been definitely decided upon as to the price at which subscriptions would be received, but the opinion was expressed that it would be in the neighborhood of $90 a share. This is at least $15 a share above the estimates made by local traders, and if it should prove correct it would considerably reduce the market value of the rights. Westinghouse Air Brake sold to the extent of 35 shares at 163½, which was unchanged from the day before. Pittsburgh Coal common was much less active, and on sales of 700 shares ranged between 29⅞ and 29½, closing at a net decline of ¼. River Coal was a shade firmer, the common advancing to 10⅝ and the preferred to 40. The steel stocks continued dull but firm. Philadelphia Company was more active than for some time past, 350 shares selling at 45⅝. Fire Proofing and Brewing stocks were quiet and unchanged.

A drop of 19 points in Colonial Trust to 630, and of 10 points in American Trust to 515, suggested the possibility of a hitch in the negotiations for the merger of these two interests, but there was no official information on the subject. Allegheny Trust was also lower, 80 shares selling at 165, a decline of 9 per cent from the last previous sale. Peoples Savings made a new high record by selling at 625, an advance of 40 points over the last previous sale. Equitable Trust was 1 per cent higher, advancing to 181, and Cosmopolitan National bank closed 4 per cent higher, advancing to 109½. Safe Deposit, Iron City Trust and Bank of Pittsburgh each declined slightly on small transactions.

PITTSBURGH STOCKS.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

After remaining neglected for several days there was a revival of business in Allegheny and Colonial Trust stocks. The former declined to 515 and the latter, after selling at 640, broke to 630, a net decline of 10 points. The source of the strength in these stocks was based upon the negotiations for a merger. At one time traders plunged blindly into the market and bid up prices rapidly, when it was inferred that naval values were to govern the basis of the merger. When it was reported later that book values and not market values would govern there was a cessation of speculation. Now that a rather sharp reaction has occurred the natural inference is that there has been a hitch in the deal. There has been no announcement to this effect, however, and the street is still without official information as to the status of negotiations.

The Chartiers Valley Water directors will meet today for organization. In the announcement of the annual election the other day it was erroneously reported that Mr. Francis Rawle, of Philadelphia, had been elected a director. Mr. John C. Fisher was elected, Mr. Rawle not being a candidate.

An initial transaction occurred in American Window Glass Machine common yesterday, 25 shares selling at 25, and the stock being subsequently quoted at 22 bid, 28 asked. The preferred stock was quoted at 75 bid, and it was reported that private transactions had occurred at 80. This would be on a basis of about 52½ for the old Window Glass common stock that was converted into Machine stock.

If a New York dispatch yesterday was correct, quoting a Washington official to the effect that the new Electric stock was likely to be offered for subscription at a price in the neighborhood of $90 a share, the stock would stand the purchaser about 105, taking yesterday's market value as a basis of calculation. If the company increased the rate of dividend in July to 10 per cent per annum the investment at 105 would be slightly under 5 per cent.

The only large individual transactions on the exchange yesterday were a block of 500 shares Philadelphia Company, sold by Prescott, Wright & Schoyer to Masten & Co.; 500 shares Pittsburgh Coal at 29¾, Sprout & Co. to Hill & Co., and 500 shares Pittsburgh Brewing preferred at 47¾, Long to various buyers.

Harris Gates & Co. bought Rock Island yesterday. It is said that this house has recently changed its position and is now bullish.

It is stated upon authority that negotiations have been practically concluded for the placing in New York of a Mexican loan of not much less than $25,000,000, the proceeds of which are to be used for public works in Mexico. A considerable part of this loan will be taken in Europe.

At the annual meeting of the Consumers Gas Company it was announced that the indebtedness of the company had been wiped out. R. B. Stoney of Bradford, A. J. Hazeltine of Warren, J. P. McKinney, E. M. Riggs, W. F. Wolfenden, Jr., Thornton Wood and J. Wilson Stewart were elected directors. The board organized by electing R. B. Stoney president; J. P. McKinney, vice president, and J. Watson stewart, treasurer. The company declared a dividend of 2 per cent, making 2 per cent monthly since December, on a capital stock of $300,000.

A. M. Simon of Hanover, Germany, was in the city yesterday and made a friendly call upon Mr. Daniel E. Crane of Robinson Bros. Mr. Simon is in this country for the express object of studying the methods of Booker T. Washington in his efforts to raise the negro race, the information being obtained for the use of Baron Rothschilder in the philanthropic work after a. For many years Mr. Simon was the head of the Hanover banking house of Alexander M. Simon & Co. Speaking yesterday of the quotation on sterling exchange, which foreshadowed gold exports, he said: "Yes, you may ship a little gold this spring, but it will all come back to you and more too. European bankers are afraid of the United States. You have such a great country and it is developing so rapidly. Your exports of merchandise are steadily increasing, and you have become such a great manufacturers, that as soon as you overtake your home consumption demand you will be independent of your exports and nothing may the markets of foreign producers. Your great investment bonders are changing positions with those abroad, and are buying our bonds instead of trying to sell us yours. What a change has taken place in your financial position. Why, I can recall, when I was a banker in Hanover during your war, of selling your government bonds bearing 6 per cent interest at 38 cents on the dollar. When they reached 68 cents on the dollar we thought—that is, some of us—that your credit was high. I recall a reaction which occurred in the market for these bonds following a reverse in one of the great battles. Some of my friends came to me to warn me to sell the prize I stopped touch on. I stood a good chance of being strung up to a lamp-post by some of the customers who had bought the bonds on the advice of my house. I suggested to them to wait awhile before they began the stringing. Now look where your credit is. Your 2 and 3 per cent bonds are quoted at a high premium. Yes, you have a great country. I have watched its development for years and in a way have felt familiar with your growth, for before I retired from the active banking business our house had correspondents with prominent banks in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, and for a long period I acted as your vice-consul in Hanover. Now, you have a cable, and a vessel coming over remarked, you have everything you need of material things; and the only thing Germany can send you now is an occasional scholar."

The next regular meeting of Pittsburgh chapter, A. I. B. C., will be held May 12 in Masonic temple, Sixth street, and the ways and means committee have arranged for three contests in connection with the annual election. The election for six governors will be held from 7 to 9 o'clock. The contest will follow election, and will consist of: Contest for speed and accuracy on adding machines; contest for speed and accuracy in penmanship, and contest for speed and accuracy in counting money. Any members wishing to enter contest should send their names to E. S. Eggers, care of N. Holmes & Sons Bank, Pittsburgh, Pa., as early as possible. Suitable prizes will be given for each contest. Contests will be for the championship of Pittsburgh chapter and only members are eligible to enter.

The London Financial Times says: The relief afforded by the reduction of the income tax is, of course, very welcome to the large body of investors who derive their incomes from dividends paid less tax. The reduction to 13s 6d is equivalent to a practically equal to an increase in a given income from taxed dividends of almost 1 2-3 per cent. Capitalized, it represents on a 4 per cent stock quoted at par, a sum of £4 11s 1d per £100 of value, namely, 25 years' purchase at 1s 4d, which represents the tax on £4 per annum. In the case of consols the reduction is of particular interest as the high tax has hitherto disinclined the ordinary class of investors from investing. The annual net income from £100 consols, instead of being £2 6s 10d, is now raised to £2 7s 8d. Capitalized on the same basis as the taxed dividend, 2½ per cent annuity, 37 years' purchase—this extra 10d is worth rather over 1½ per cent.

THE MONEY MARKET.

The local money market remains firm and unchanged at 5@6 per cent on call and time loans. Clearing house comparisons:

Money on Call Easy.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Money on call easy at 2¼@2½ per cent. Closing 2@2½ per cent. Time money easy; 60 days, 4 per cent; 90 days, 4 per cent; 4 months, 4½ per cent. Foreign exchange was very strong today; demand sterling selling as high as $4 85.10, the highest figure in many months. Later in the day it was offered at $4 85¾. The principal feature of the exchange market was the belief that the new South African loan will be opened for subscription in London tomorrow. As many American banking houses are likely to participate in this loan there was heavy buying of exchange for cable remittance. It is thought that the loan will be largely oversubscribed, and as a result American financial interests in London will be afforded considerably larger than they are likely to receive.

Foreign Quotations.

LONDON, May 6.—The amount of bullion taken into the Bank of England on balance today was £177,000. India council bills were allotted today at 1s 3 15-16d; consols for money, 92⅛; consols for account, 92 11-16; exchequer bonds, per cent, 99 7-8; exchequer bills 3⅛ per cent; three months' bills 3⅛ per cent.

PARIS, May 6.—Three per cent rentes, 98 francs 20 centimes for the account. Exchange on London, 25 francs 19 centimes for checks.

BERLIN, May 6.—Exchange on London, 20 marks 40 pfgs for checks.

IMPROVEMENT IN IRON AND STEEL

PIG SLIGHTLY LOWER

Billets Continue Firm — Sheet Bars Very Scarce—Coke Supply Good but Car Famine Again Confronts Shippers.

Unhesitating expression of improved conditions were heard in all departments of the iron and steel industry yesterday, producers noting increased confidence in the situation as shown by larger specifications on contracts being placed, and a greater number of inquiries in the various lines. The feeling is that, in addition to the fact that the strike among structural bridge workers has been settled during the week past, there is a general tendency toward clearing in the labor skies, notwithstanding the fact that in spots there is still fear of interruption from differences not yet adjusted. There is a marked improvement in the matter of structural work, inasmuch as enterprises which were being held in abeyance until conditions were more definitely ascertained are being pushed, and work which is begun is now being rushed. Railroad construction throughout the country is enormous, and the consequent demand for both materials and labor has much to do with the general activity.

It cannot be denied that there has been a slight easing off in the price of Bessemer pig iron, and the average of sales for the week past has been on a basis 25 cents a ton lower than figures quoted a week ago. This is not a serious matter, however, and producers with but a limited quantity to offer claim to be holding out firmly for higher prices. One large producer sold 18,000 tons during the week, for which the average was $20 25, Pittsburgh delivery. Coke supply has been continuous and plentiful, enabling furnaces to run steadily, while a number of new furnaces coming into the market with products have had their influence on the situation helping to bear prices to some extent.

Forge iron is in larger demand than for several weeks, and is firm. Foundry iron is slow to actual business being done, but inquiries are much more numerous, buyers evidently getting into shape to cover their wants without further delay.

BILLET DEMAND STILL HEAVY.

There is no diminution in the demand for billets, which are being taken as rapidly as they can be offered, and prices show no departure from figures ruling last week. Structural shapes and plates are active, and specifications on contracts are growing heavier each day. Sheet bars are practically unpurchasable, and independents who, which have not had their wants fully covered, are forced to use billets in place of bars. Demand for sheet iron and steel is unabated, and prices are very firm, although nothing more has been heard of the advance in prices which was rumored a short time ago. Tin plate is without change, but is active, and the leading producer will accept no new business for earlier than August delivery. While there is not much doing in the scrap iron market in the way of new business, there is heavy delivery on contracts, and the situation is strong. Buyers for the third quarter are expected in the market toward the close of this month, and present quotations seem likely to hold as they are until that time.

Fear is expressed that there will be a return to congested railroad conditions inside of the next 60 days, when heavy ore shipments get under way. Already coke shippers have commenced to feel the shoe pinching again, and requests for cars could not be granted in full this week. There has been such smooth running for a few weeks, that normal conditions had commenced to prevail wherever coke was a factor, but there seems to be some likelihood that this condition will be but temporary. Consumers have commenced to anticipate their wants, and are increasing their orders in expectation of the coming of a time in the near future when the question of supplies will be a serious one.

NAILS AND WIRE ACTIVE.

The hardware market continues active in every particular, business moving along at a good pace, and orders arriving in ever increasing number as well as for larger quantities as the season advances. Nails and wire are movers in large volume, the steady price at which they have held for some time seeming to have an excellent effect upon dealers and consumers. The general feeling being that there might be an advance at this time, it is generally understood now, however, that advances will not be ready, as the desire of manufacturers is to keep trade in the best possible shape. The supply is barely equal to the demand, so that sizes and kinds of wire and nails are at times very difficult to obtain. This shows that need for keeping stocks well supplied. Builders' hardware keeps moving at a good rate, the demand being active and for a good character of supplies. Housefurnishing goods continue to move freely, this being the season in which goods go into the hands of consumers, and there is a tremendous demand. Business in bicycles and sundries continues very active, the roads having gotten into fair condition and the weather being favorable for riders of bicycles. Albion tools move in excellent volume into the hands of dealers and consumers, the demand for these goods being constant, of course, upon the heavy and extensive building operations together with the busy condition of mills and factories. Window glass is moving out in fair volume, prices being still very low and exceedingly close. Miscellaneous colors and varnishes are moving into the hands of agents for consumers' use, the largest business doing in that line that has been seen for years. General conditions are satisfactory, every one apparently being busy and having a good character of business, so that the prospects are profits will show up fairly well in all lines. Prices are firm, while the factories not inclined to make any concessions.

REVISED QUOTATIONS.

FOUNDRY PIG ORDERS ARE BEING CANCELED

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Iron Age tomorrow will say:

The foundry iron market in many respects is the test guide to the condition of the iron market, because it is almost entirely free. The United States Steel Corporation is a minor factor, and there are numbers of producers and thousands of consumers whose products go into very many channels. There is a mild form of co-operation among some of the large southern furnace interests, but there are a number of outside independent producers in that section, while all other districts act freely, so that the influence of concerted action is not very strong.

Now there has practically been a deadlock between consumers and producers, the former holding off persistently, while many of the latter have been steadily weakening. This week records another gain on the part of the consumers since a number of outside southern furnacemen have come down squarely to the basis of $16 for No. 2 Birmingham, while the leading furnace interests are still holding at $17 50. Some moderate business has been done on the basis of the lower prices.

The interesting feature of the week, however, has been the closing of a contract by the Pullman Company of Chicago for 25,000 tons for delivery during a part of the second half of the year. Our Chicago representative telegraphs that the order was taken by a northern furnace company at the reported price of $19 50 for No. 2 and $19 for No. 3, which is lower than the $16 figure quoted. The contract action is interesting, as showing at what figure large consumers will take hold, and is the first serious indication that the deadlock may be soon broken. There is no doubt that founders have failed to cover new business taken for a considerable period, so that there must be a very large amount of tonnage to be placed when the movement does begin.

Sellers, both of domestic and foreign foundry pig, complain that founders are making frequent and urgent demands for the cancellation of orders, in some cases justified by the fact that deliveries are vastly slow.

While the foundry iron market is weak, the demand for basic iron is pretty strong. In Bessemer pig the central west shows a somewhat unsettled market, with a downward tendency.

In the central west and in the Chicago district the steel market is strong, although complaint is made that importers are being helped to regain a foothold by reductions of freight. At tidewater foreign steel is being offered at $28 50 duty paid, while domestic steel has been quoted at $28 at steel mill.

Reports from the wire trade continues very good. In the steel bar trade Chicago notes a revival of business. In other finished lines tonnage is still satisfactory.

About 20,000 tons of steel skelp have been sold in Eastern Pennsylvania. A tube mill is starting up which has been idle for some time.

In the west there have been some large transactions in cast iron pipe, Minneapolis contracting for 45,000 tons, Kansas City for 4,500 tons and Indianapolis for 6,000 tons.

Turpentine and Rosin.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 6.—Spirits turpentine, nothing doing; rosin, nothing doing; crude turpentine, quiet, $2 00, $3 25 and $3 50; tar, firm, $1 65.

SAVANNAH, GA., May 6.—Turpentine, firm, 45c; rosin, firm, A, B, C, D, $1 75; E, F, $1 80; G, $1 85; H, $2 25; I, $2 85; K, $3 00; M $3 10; N, $3 15; WG, $3 25; WW, $3 35.

Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The drygoods market shows little indication of improvement, although a few inquiries are being made for fall and buyers are evidently beginning to feel that it is necessary to buy more or less for the future. Prices are unchanged and manufacturers are unwilling to make concessions.

WHEAT, CORN AND OATS LOWER IN CHICAGO PIT

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—Selling by local traders on the rather bearish weekly government crop report was the cause of an easier opening in wheat, July being off 1 cent to ¼c, at 71 to 73½c. The early weakness was soon dissipated, however, on open buying by the leader of the longs, followed by a fairly good demand from locals, and the market developed considerable strength, July selling up to 78¾c. May was also strong on active covering by shorts, who were alarmed at the reports of damage which came in. Later in the day a reaction occurred on liberal commission house selling, together with selling by early buyers. After selling down to 72¾c, July closed ¾@1¼c lower, at 72¾@72¾c. Primary receipts were 271,700 bushels, against 293,800 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 79 cars, which, with local receipts of 40 cars, none of contract grade, made total receipts of 119 cars, against 182 cars last week and 140 cars a year ago.

Corn retained the bullish tendency which it developed yesterday during the greater part of the session today, and closed with a firm tone and character in both May and July. Small receipts and rather unfavorable weather, with no pressure to sell, were the early features. The government crop bulletin showed considerable damage had been done in the southwest by frosts, and this helped in the bull feeling. Late in the day the market became easier in sympathy with the weakness in wheat, and on a break of 1⅜c in May at New York. After selling between 44⅞ and 45¼c, July closed ⅛@⅜c lower, at 44¾c. Local receipts were 251 cars, 12 of contract grade.

There was a good general commission house demand for oats the greater part of the day, and prices were strong, the unfavorable weather conditions being the principal bull factor. Toward the latter part of the session the market became somewhat easier, the weakness in other grains being the depressing influence. July closed a shade lower at 31¾c, after ranging between 31¾@31⅞c and 32⅜c. Local receipts were 79 cars.

Trading in provisions was quiet, but prices held firm throughout the session, in spite of the lower prices of hogs.

PRODUCE RETARDED BY COOL WEATHER

Strawberry Prices Suffer a Slight Decline—Flour May Go Higher.

Backward spring has held back produce and crops are all about two weeks later than the average. At this time last year farmers were cutting field lettuce, while all the home-grown now coming to market is raised in hotbeds. For this there is an active demand, and prices are very firm as quoted, while some strictly fancy stock has commanded a premium above list prices. Cool nights are retarding growth of all field produce and giving sellers of southern goods a clear market which they would not otherwise have at this time. However, home rhubarb is lower, and asparagus is selling at slightly reduced figures. Home-grown spring onions, both seed and tinge raised from plants, are now in market and are selling freely. Strawberries were abundant yesterday, and prices went off 4c, selling at 8c a quart. In other lines there was no change.

May receipts were light and the situation lost none of its strength, quotations all holding strong. Corn was firm and in active demand, rather than losing strength. Oats were in heavy supply, and the actual selling was perhaps a shade lower than quotations in the majority of transactions. Common dealers were endeavoring to keep the market steady.

Cash wheat is firm, and flour is steady at the recent advance; in fact local dealers are talking of an advance in prices. Even the primary markets hold as they are for a day or two longer. Retailers claim to find it difficult to raise prices, while millers and jobbers assert that, as flour is ready low at present, there should be no trouble in making forward movements. Coffee is unchanged and quiet, while sugar maintains an even tone, with prices steady. Other staples are unchanged.

Butter is fairly active and prices are steady as quoted. Cheese is easy, and arrivals of new are so free as to cause sellers some anxiety to dispose of the large consignments they are receiving from the west. A further slight decline will occur before the end of the week, as concessions are already being allowed to make sales. Eggs are easy at quotations, and warmer weather will likely effect the market to go off. Receipts are ample for demand, and sellers are desirous of seeing a more rapid movement.

The poultry situation is unchanged. Arrivals of chickens are sufficient for the diminished demand, although there is call for all stock now coming forward.

CHAMBERLAIN PREDICTS NEAR FEDERATION OF SOUTH AFRICA

Foreign Secretary Explains Transvaal Loan in an Optimistic Speech.

TO BUY THE RAILROADS

Largest Part of Vast Sum to Be Spent on Railways, Balance on Public Work and Land Settlement.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

LONDON, May 6.—In moving, in the house of commons today, a formal resolution guaranteeing the Transvaal loan of $175,000,000, Colonial Secretary Chamberlain delivered a lengthy, optimistic speech on the future of the new South African colonies. Mr. Chamberlain declined to give the price or the time of issue of the new loan, but said the prospectus would shortly be issued.

He explained that it had been decided to purchase all the existing railways, which would absorb $65,000,000 of the new loan and $25,000,000 more would be expended as quickly as possible on the development of railways; $12,500,000 would be spent on land settlement and $10,000,000 on public works.

The loan would be a charge on the common fund of the two new colonies, the Transvaal and the Orange River colonies, whose finances would be administered by the new inter-colonial council, which was about to be created for the purpose of dealing with the constabulary, railways and other matters where the colonies were jointly interested. This would be a commencement of the policy leading to the federation of South Africa, which he believed was nearer than many persons thought.

The chancellor of the exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, declined to reveal the rate of interest in advance of the issuing of the prospectus. He said the interest and the sinking fund would total 4 per cent, but it would tie his hands were he to announce the interest rate alone.

After some debate the resolution was agreed to.

Foreign Secretary Lansdowne has proclaimed a British Monroe doctrine in the Persian gulf and has practically notified the competing powers that any attempt on their part to establish a naval base or fortified post in those waters means war with Great Britain.

"I say without hesitation," said the foreign secretary, dealing with the subject in the house of lords yesterday, "that we should regard the establishment of a naval base or a fortified port in the Persian gulf by any other power as a very grave menace to British interests, and we should certainly resist it with all the means at our disposal."

RELIEF TO EXPLORERS IN ANTARCTIC REGIONS

STOCKHOLM, May 6.—The government today introduced a bill in the rikadag granting about $50,000 for the equipment of a vessel to be sent to the relief of the Nordenskjold antarctic expedition, which should have been heard from before this. The Nordenskjold expedition left Gothenburg, Sweden, October 16, 1901.

NEW YORK DRUMMER ROBBED IN PONCE

SAN JUAN, P. R., May 6.—A dispatch from Ponce says Charles Jacobs, a salesman of New York, was chloroformed at the Hotel Francis, Ponce, Monday night, and was robbed of $1,000, clothes and jewelry, by a man who was hidden in his bedroom. The sum of $800 in checks was subsequently found in the street, but $200 in gold and other property are missing.

Germany Objects to Reproduction.

BERLIN, May 6.—The German foreign office has begun negotiations with the government at Washington so as to afford German exhibits at the St. Louis exposition better protection from reproduction.

Colombia Opposes Panama Treaty.

COLON, COLOMBIA, May 6.—The congress of Colombia is not likely to meet at Bogota before July. The general opinion prevails that there will be strong opposition to the ratification of the Panama canal treaty in congress.

CABLE BRIEFS.

YOKOHAMA, JAPAN.—The cabinet has abandoned the land tax as a means for providing funds for the naval program which proposes an expenditure of $5,750,000 per year for 10 years.

MANILA.—Col. Aurado Santos and Col. Marcelo Delacrtng, leaders of the recent insurrection in Rizal province, have been convicted of brigandage and conspiracy and have been sentenced to death.

ROME.—Several ladies were presented to Emperor William, including Mrs. Meyer, wife of the United States ambassador. The emperor lunched with the queen mother and left Rome later in the afternoon.

BERLIN.—Late statistics show that the reduction of criminality in the Germany army, which began in 1903 with the introduction of two-year service, has become permanent. The military offences show only about one-half the numbers recorded prior to 1903.

FORTUNE THROWN AWAY.

Smokeless Powder Worth $40,000 Cast Overboard as Defective, Found to Be Good.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—(Special.)—Forty thousand dollars' worth of smokeless powder was thrown overboard from the battleship Olympia off Honduras last March because it was supposed to be defective. Now a board of powder experts has reported that the ammunition was good.

While cruising in the Caribbean the officers of the Olympia suspected that a portion of the ammunition in the magazines was defective. In accordance with regulations, Capt. Lyon appointed a board of survey.

The board applied tests, which, in the mind of the board, showed that the ammunition was defective.

FOUND DEAD IN CELL.

Cleveland Man Accused of Murder Escapes Trial by Committing Suicide.

CLEVELAND, O., May 26.—(Special.)—Ludwig Sedlazyk, whose trial on the charge of murder has been on in criminal court for the last few days, committed suicide in jail. Deputy Sheriff Eggers found the body hanging from the water pipe in a cell.

Sedlazyk was charged with the murder of Mrs. Anna Heffner.

Denied Unlawful Combination.

CHICAGO, May 6.—In an answer filed in the United States circuit court today, the Indiana and Illinois coal operators who were recently made defendants in a case started by the government, admitted that they had been acting for a time under an agreement, but denied that there was any unlawful combination to fix prices.

REBELS VICTORIOUS IN NICARAGUA

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Reports by the steamer Colon, from Panama, indicate that Gen. Emilio Chamorro, the Conservative leader of Nicaragua, is making great progress against the forces of President Zelaya. Passengers on the Colon refute the statement that the government forces have retaken the vessels captured by Gen. Chamorro on Lake Nicaragua.

The report is brought from Nicaragua that Americans are openly hissed on account of the feeling against President Roosevelt, who is blamed for "not enforcing the Monroe doctrine by preventing Great Britain and Germany from collecting their debts from Salvador and Nicaragua.

BROKE DOWN BARRICADE ERECTED BY MONKS

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

PARIS, May 6.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says the Capuchins who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days were expelled today by the police, a detachment of infantry and a number of gendarmes.

The friars refused the final demand of the authorities to take down their barricades and the doors were then broken in and the friars arrested. About 2,000 persons made a demonstration against the authorities, but they were dispersed.

Disorderly scenes occurred at a number of other points, due to the expulsion of members of unauthorized congregations. At Moulins there was a fight between the supporters of the Marists and counter manifestants.

TO BE DECIDED HERE.

New Orleans Street Railway Employes Delay Action on Demands for Increase.

NEW ORLEANS, May 6.—(Special.)—E. C. Foster of Boston, general manager of the constituent lines of the Massachusetts Electric Company, operating over 800 miles of street railroad lines in eastern Massachusetts, is here at the invitation of the board of directors of the New Orleans Railways Company, to inspect the local properties and pass judgment as to possible improvements and betterment.

It is understood that Mr. Foster has been offered the presidency of the Railways company, to succeed H. H. Pearson, the Philadelphian who resigned several weeks ago.

The Pearson resignation was the climax of a series of official shakeups. During this upheaval the employes presented new demands for 23 cents per hour, and a nine-hour work day, with inequivocal recognition of the union. The company refused the demands flatly. The union decided to withhold further action until after the Pittsburgh convention.

OPPOSED CHILD LABOR.

Employing Children at Night Discussed at Congress of Mothers.

DETROIT, May 6.—"Education by Occupation," was the title of a paper read tonight by Dr. W. T. Bryan, president of Indiana university, before the conference of the National Congress of Mothers. At the morning session the feature was the report of the committee on child labor presented by Mrs. Florence Kelley of New York.

Mrs. Kelley handled very completely the question of employing children at night. She said: "I wish every mother realized that there is no state in the union that has a safe law covering this phase of the question. Pennsylvania, in particular the cities of Philadelphia and Scranton, is the worst in the union in this regard.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.

Meeting to Be Held in Old City Hall to Make Arrangements.

Labor Day this year will be more elaborately observed than any previous year in the history of labor organizations. George W. Miller, chairman of the general Labor Day committee of last year and John Fernau, secretary, yesterday sent out circulars calling a meeting of all labor organizations for May 24, at Old City hall, to take preliminary steps in arranging for the exercises.

At the meeting the report of the auditor's report of last year will be read. It will show a surplus of $1,088 75. Of this amount $1,000 was donated to the anthracite strikers, leaving a balance of $88 75.

SCALES TO EXPIRE TOGETHER.

Builders' League Arranging to Have Agreement End December 31.

An effort is being made by the Builders' league of this city to have the various scales and agreements between the workmen and employers renewed at one certain day. At present each different craft renews its agreement on a separate date, which is confusing to the builders throughout the district. January 1 is the date suggested.

This year the tile layers were out for nine weeks, the painters seven weeks and the plasterers five weeks, while the hoisting engineers have been on strike since May 1. These strikes have interfered with building considerably, but with the new arrangement the contractors will know exactly how to act.

Stone Cutters Form a Union.

The curb and flagstone cutters, setters and helpers have organized a local assembly of the K. of L., which will be chartered with 50 members. There are 300 men employed in the craft in the city. The following officers were elected: Master workman, John Millan; worthy foreman, B. Lyons; recording secretary, James Gilchrist; financial secretary, Michael Harvey; treasurer, P. Impertole. An eight-hour scale will be drawn up.

Arranging for the Eisteddfod.

The Pittsburgh Eisteddfod association will hold a special meeting this evening in the Oakland Welsh Presbyterian church to complete the details for the eisteddfod to be held at Exposition music hall on Memorial day, May 30. Several committees will be appointed. Samuel T. Jones, mayor of Toledo, and the Rev. W. C. Roberts, D. D., president of Danville, (Ky.) college, have accepted invitations to be present.

Tin Plate Committees Named.

The committee to meet in conference with tin plate officials was appointed yesterday by President Shaffer of the Amalgamated association.

The conference will be held in New York next Tuesday. It is not thought that many difficulties will be experienced in agreeing upon the scale, which contains few changes. The old scale expires July 1.

STRAPHANGERS' ORGANIZATION WILL HOLD A MEETING TOMORROW

In accordance with the constitution of the Straphangers league, which provides that as soon as 50 subscribers have been secured, a meeting will be held for the purpose of permanent organization and the election of an executive committee, a call has been issued for all members to gather at the offices, No. 57 Schmidt building, Fifth avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is expected.

There will be elected an executive committee, which will be authorized to make application for a charter and to endeavor to bring about the reforms for which the organization has been formed.

A change in the transfer system, better ventilation in cars, cleaner cars and various other impositions on the public that have been fully explained in The Gazette, will be attacked, and measures will be adopted to try to secure changes for the better.

JUDGE'S PEN CUT BIG SWATH IN ONE FAMILY

C. J. Hoop's Wife Given Divorce, Receiver Appointed for the Father's Business.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—With the same pen that signed the decree granting Mrs. Dexter Broad Hoops a divorce from Thomas J. Hoops, son of the millionaire mantel manufacturer, Judge Chytraus of the circuit court this afternoon signed another order appointing a receiver for the business of the young society man's father, William H. Hoops.

The receiver was appointed on petition of Charles H. Ludwig, the elder Hoops' partner in the Hoops-Ludwig Mantel Company, who alleged that the elder Hoops made false entries in the books to divert to himself more than his just share of the firm's money.

In the divorce case young Mrs. Hoops, who is a leader in the most exclusive South Side society circles, alleged cruel treatment.

TO MEET IN GREENSBURG.

Democratic Committee Will Investigate Fight of Westmoreland Factions.

HARRISBURG, May 6.—(Special.)—The merits of the contest between the Doty and Keenan factions of the Westmoreland county Democracy will be investigated tomorrow at Greensburg by a committee from the state Democratic executive committee, composed of ex-State Chairman William T. Creasy of Catawissa, W. H. Knibe of Erie and John F. Ancona of Reading.

The committee held a meeting at state headquarters in this city this evening and mapped a plan of procedure for the investigation, which will probably continue several days. National Committeeman Guffey is trying to compromise the trouble, but neither faction will yield and it is expected the matter will be carried into the next state convention, no matter what may be the verdict of the investigating committee.

Fine Speakers Ordained.

The annual examinations of the Reformed Presbyterian seminary, by the board of superintendents, were concluded yesterday. These candidates delivered trial sermons in the Central church, Sandusky street, Allegheny: Samuel Edgar, Boston; Ernest M. Elsey, Beaver Falls; Samuel E. Greer, Hopkinton, Ia.; Julius A. Kempf, New York, and P. C. Matthews, Sterling, Kan. All the sermons were approved and the young men were ordained to preach.

Activity Among the Railroaders.

The remainder of the present week will see considerable work accomplished by those preparing for the twenty-ninth biennial convention of the Order of Railway Conductors, which meets here next week. The jurisprudence committee, began its sessions in the Monongahela house yesterday and will continue to hold two sessions a day during the week.

Sentenced for Insurance Fraud.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Joseph Trepani, the alleged head of a gang of Italians who defrauded insurance companies by bogus deaths, was sentenced today to not less than two years and not more than four years and eight months in state's prison.

Changed Constitution of A. A. S. R. E.

At yesterday's meeting of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes some changes of minor importance were made in the constitution. The resolutions offered applied to individual locals, and all were referred to the committee on resolutions. No session was held in the afternoon.

LONDON IS ACCEPTING AMERICAN PROGRESS

Yerkes Says He Has Surmounted Objections to His Railway Plans.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—Charles T. Yerkes returned today on the Kronprinz Wilhelm on a trip to California. He says he intends to return to London in three weeks to resume work on the London United Tramways Company's tubes. Speaking of the progress of the underground work in the British metropolis he says:

"All the 'knocking' has stopped. London is becoming used to the upheaval necessarily incidental to the laying of the tubes, and as her people now see the result they have ceased kicking and take everything as a matter of course."

Gen. James Franklin Bell, the commander of the province of Batangas, island of Luzon, who was said to have criticised a report of Gen. Miles, also returned on the Kronprinz Wilhelm. He was shown a number of cable clippings, all of which made it appear as if he had reflected in a public interview upon the report of Gen. Miles.

"While I do not care to be placed in the light of criticising Gen. Miles or any of my superior officers," said Gen. Bell, "I stand absolutely by the interview."

C. P. GRENEKER.

TASTE OF WILD WEST.

Two New York Lads Rob Father Then Accidentally Shot Cousin.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—After robbing their parents of over $250 worth of jewelry and shooting their cousin, Howard and Donald Snyder, sons of a prominent stock broker of this city, were picked up early this morning asleep in Morningside park, by a policeman.

The father of the boys appeared in the Harlem court today as complainant against Howard, who is 17 years of age. The boy was held in $1,000 bail.

Last Saturday night the parents were absent from their apartments and Howard placed young Donald in the dumb waiter, hauling him to the third floor, where the Snyders live. Donald was instructed what to do and made away with much valuable jewelry.

The boys then went to Philadelphia, where they purchased revolvers and while walking with their cousin, Ethel Burke, one of the pistols was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking the girl.

MUST PAY $13,500 TO COMMON LAW WIFE

CHICAGO, May 6.—(Special.)—Mrs. Julia McKenna, 73 years old, commonlaw wife of James McKenna, a wealthy South Side contractor, was awarded $13,500 by a jury in the suit against her husband for non-fulfillment of a contract he made several years ago to pay her $30 a month during the remainder of her life. He cast her off to wed a pretty young nurse. For ten years Mrs. McKenna had been fighting to force McKenna to support her. He is worth $500,000.

Hill Mixing in Politics.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 6.—(Special.)—From his headquarters here David B. Hill is sending out to the Democratic newspapers of the state, speeches which have recently been delivered by Martin Littlejohn of Brooklyn. These are apparently a notice on the part of former Senator Hill that his will be the guiding hand at the next national convention and that those who place reliance either upon Bryan or Cleveland will find that they builded upon the sand.

"Tell me what you like and I will tell you what you are"

—John Ruskin

If you had told the great art critic that you liked Gorham silver he would have told you that you were a person of good taste, for must have satisfied even Ruskin, not only because it is beautiful in design, but by reason of its inherent truth and honesty of workmanship. It follows another Ruskinian dictum too: It is useful as well as beautiful.

CHANGE IN THE NAME OPPOSED BY DIOCESE

State Episcopalians Voted Not to Drop the Word "Protestant."

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—The historical diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church in Pennsylvania—the diocese which originally adopted the present name of the denomination—placed itself on record, by an overwhelming vote in convention today, as opposed to the proposition to change the name of the church. The vote was: Clerical, 112 to 34; layity, 72 to 21, and was taken on a resolution against the change presidented by a special committee appointed by Bishop Ozi W. Whitaker at yesterday's session.

There was a full and free discussion of the resolution and the report of the special committee which accompanied the resolution. Bishop Whitaker and Coadjutor Mackay Smith voted for the resolution.

The report of the special committee was in part as follows:

In the diocese of Pennsylvania there is nowhere any question of the Catholic character of the church to which we belong. If there are some who would prefer that the word Protestant should be no longer retained in the name of our national church it is chiefly because that name belongs to an age of division, not to the ages of catholic unity; and on the other hand, if a large majority of our people are opposed, as we believe, to the dropping of that word, it is to some considerable extent because of a growing appreciation of the Catholic character of the historic protest to which it originally referred.

CAMDEN, N. J., May 6.—The delegates to the convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of the diocese of New Jersey today voted on the proposition to change the name of the church. The clerical vote resulted 30 yeas and 35 nays. The lay vote was, 15 for, 56 against.

COMMISSION TO SIT IN PITTSBURGH

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The interstate commerce commission announces that a hearing will be held in Pittsburgh on May 19 to investigate the charge of Charles A. Thompson against the Pennsylvania Railroad company involving local rates.

New Pennsylvania Orators.

Hall to Open Headquarters.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—(Special.)—Democratic State Chairman J. K. P. Hall will come to Philadelphia next week and engage permanent headquarters. Chairman Hall says that conditions make it essential that the party headquarters should be in Philadelphia except during a session of the legislature.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was a soldier in the Spanish-American War. After returning home I found that I was a perfect wreck. I was all run down, my blood was impure, and my nervous system in bad shape. I tried almost every medicine I could hear of, but none of them did me any good. I then tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once. I want to recommend it to every sufferer from impure blood."—H. C. Doehler, Scranton, Pa. November, 1902.

"I had a terrible case of scrofula, and I kept trying all kinds of medicines, but they did me no good. One day I thought I would try Ayer's Family Medicines, so I bought two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla and two boxes of Ayer's Pills. I took them according to directions, and in a week I was greatly improved. Before all the medicine was gone I was completely cured. I shall always recommend your medicines to others."—Chas. L. Locke, Stanford, Mont. December, 1902.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla made the greatest cure for me ever accomplished by any medicine in the world. As a result of a long sickness in the army I had fever-sores, varicose veins, and ulcers of the worst kind. I was on crutches a great deal of the time from 1862 to 1901. Then I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I am happy to say that my limb is entirely cured. I can go without crutches and can walk without a limp."—David C. Holt, West Haven, Conn. December, 1902.

Cured these people

"I suffered untold misery for many years from indigestion. I then began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla and I soon felt its good results. I only had to use four bottles, and I tell you it was money well spent. Words cannot express to you the gratitude I feel for this great cure. I must say that no one need suffer with indigestion if they can buy Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Mrs. F. R. Hart, Mt. Kisco, N. Y. September, 1902.

"I owe my life to Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills. They are the wonders of the world. I was in a terribly nervous condition, so that I could not bear the slightest noise, but immediately after beginning the use of these medicines I noticed an improvement, and soon was entirely well. I have also gained 10 pounds in weight from its use."—Mrs. Delia McWell, Newark, N. J. September, 1902.

"I am anxious to let every one know what Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I am a great sufferer from sciatic rheumatism, but whenever a fresh attack comes on I take the Sarsaparilla and am soon over it. I keep it in the house all the time, for I cannot get any ease from any other medicine. How can I tell you the true worth of this medicine?"—Mrs. Chauncey Tyler, Randallsville, N. Y. September, 1902.
